

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

PREFACE TO THE ENGLISH VERSION

OF THE

Poliglott Bible.

THE form in which this Volume now appears, is altogether different from any which has before been given to the Public; its originality will be found pre-eminently to consist in a laborious and entirely new Selection and Arrangement of References, in which it has been endeavoured fully to exhibit the Scripture as its Expositor.

The greatness of the advantages that accrue to a sincere and diligent reader of the Sacred Pages, from having constantly before him a reference to similar illustrative passages, carefully investigated, and suitably applied, must be obvious to every one; and has been well understood by many pious and able men, to whose diligent and useful labours the work is unspeakably indebted.

References, however, have hitherto been printed, almost exclusively, in the margins of Bibles of a large size; and benefit resulting from them has, in consequence, been very much restricted—the only small Bible with References, in the English language, being published by Mr. Canne. The defects of which are many; for though he was a diligent student of the Scriptures, and his work was at that time eminently serviceable, yet, as he was not in possession of those helps, for the accomplishment of which he had undertaken, that were now afforded by many valuable works and comments, which have been introduced in different languages since his time; and being, therefore, under the necessity of relying chiefly on his own study; it is not surprising that he should have been less successful than he would otherwise have been. His references are in a only remotely applicable; he seems generally to have been guided more by a variety of expression than by illustration; the errors in the letter-press are numerous; many of the Marginal Readings omitted; the Chronology is altogether out; and all the References in this, as in the larger Bibles, are placed in the margin of the text; by which they are renderable to be cut in binding, or worn out by use, or bound so into the back of the book as not to be easily read.

On all these accounts, it has long appeared as exceedingly desirable that a new Bible, of convenient size for the Pocket, original in its plan, purpose, and execution, should be published; in which a MORE APPROPRIATE and ACCURATE selection, adaptation, and Arrangement of References might be introduced; both for the Assistance of Private Readers, and to facilitate the ready examination and quotation of passages, which the Preacher, or the Biblical Student, may have an immediate occasion to cite, or to consult.

Convenience and utility were, however, to be equally consulted in all the parts of the undertaking. If the size of the book were too large, or the page too crowded, so as to be made wearisome to the eye, its convenience would be lessened; and if, in the limits which these considerations imposed, great care were not employed in examining and applying the References, its utility would in a great degree, be destroyed. On mature deliberation, therefore, it appeared best to adopt the plan here presented to the notice of the Public; in which the Marginal Readings and References are all contained in a MIDDLE COLUMN, between two of text; and the number introduced is sufficient, except in a few pages only, completely to fill that column.

The Chronology is always placed at the top of this middle column, where it denotes the Date of the writing or transaction contained in the text, at the beginning of the page.

The Marginal Readings contained in the folio and quarto Bibles are all introduced; the idioms of the original languages which are preserved in many of them, and also the various senses of particular words or phrases, being in most instances instructive, and in all worthy to be known. But it has not been thought necessary, in giving these readings, to insert such words as are repeated in the text, and which would therefore have fruitlessly occupied a portion of the space allotted to references.

The Various Readings are referred to by small figures placed immediately before the words for which they are to be substituted, and the References by Italic letters, which are generally placed after the first or second word of a verse, or clause of a verse, when they are intended to illustrate it.

whole of that verse or clause; but when the principal force of the illustration rests on a single word, the latter reference is placed immediately after that word. This has been the general rule; and the exceptions have either been unavoidable, or quite quite immaterial.

In referring to several relations of the same facts, by different Writers in the Sacred Volume, as in the histories recorded by the Four Evangelists, and in those contained in the Books of Kings and Chronicles, the corresponding chapters, or parts of chapters in each, having been once cited at the beginning of the history or object, it has not been thought necessary to repeat those references in the subsequent verses, except where something material is to be noticed. That also in the prophecy of Obadiah, which relates merely to the destruction of the Edomites, the prophecies of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Amos, on the same subject, having been once pointed out at the commencement, are not again referred to, and so in the history of our Lord's temptation, given in the fourth chapter of the Gospel by St. Matthew, reference being made from the first verse to the fourth chapter of that by St. Luke, where the same history is recorded, no further reference is made to that chapter in the subsequent verses; the connexion of the whole being obvious, and the comparison easy. Some space has been thus retained for the citation or confirmation of the subjects or sentences individually, which are connected in the particular parts of the history or discourse.

For a similar reason, where the same identical words, or nearly so, might be found in a great number of texts, a few of these only have been selected;—illustration, not repetition, having been the object in view.

The references, therefore, which fill the middle column, have all been diligently considered and applied with a particular attention to this specific end, that none which were superfluous might be introduced, while the most material purposes might be answered by References might vertically be effectually secured.

Whether the latitude or the limits of such an undertaking be considered, it is proper that the principles on which it has been conducted should be so far explained, as that the Reader may be apprised of what he is to expect from it, and in what branches of religious inquiry it may most materially assist him.

1. That grand enunciation of the dignity and design of the Sacred Volume, which is given by the Apostle Paul, (2 Tim. iii. 16.) we are told, that "ALL SCRIPTURE IS GIVEN BY INSPIRATION OF GOD, AND IS PROFITABLE FOR DOCTRINE, FOR REPROOF, FOR CORRECTION, FOR INSTRUCTION IN JUSTICES; THAT THE MAN OF GOD,

MAY BE PERFECT, THOROUGHLY FURNISHED INTO ALL GOOD WORKS." But it is evident, that the Scripture could not be effectually profitable for these great ends, nor make the man of God perfect, if it were not perfect itself; if its different parts were at variance with each other; if, in understanding all the variety of its multiplicity of detail, which such a required, the doctrines revealed, and moral duties enjoined, were not substantially and essentially the same throughout; and if all the parts did not concur in the plan of the whole. To exhibit the harmony of the Sacred Writers, subjects of which they treat, has been the primary design of this selection.

2. There are some subjects of leading importance, in which all the rest are included, by means of which the harmonious perfection of the Inspired Pages are seen, as with the beams of the sun these, especial care and attention been devoted.

I. It has appeared an object of the magnitude, that the reader of the Scriptures should be assisted by ranges from text to text, to have consigned in view the connexion of all the attributes, and the holy uniformity of his government, both of his Church of the world. A display of the true character and perfections of God is, without dispute, one chief design of the inspired Bible. Here, as in Isaiah's miraculous vision, may Jehovah be seen, sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; his train the temple, and the Sacred Writers the Seraphim, cover themselves, at one to another, and say, HOLY, HOLY, IS THE LORD OF HOSTS, THE WHOLE IS FULL OF HIS GLORY. It is this which gives to the Scripture its superlative value. By it, God is known; his will promulgated; his purposes are revealed; his mercy is announced; and he is whose exhibited as worthy of the supernal adoration, love, service, and praise, his intelligent creatures. Let he who neglect their Bibles think who find delight they lose, by thus to away their eyes from the most sublime and the most glorious, and the most beautiful object of contemplation, that the universe affords.

II. But this manifestation of the Father character and government is not presented to us as a matter of mere speculation which we have no immediate and personal interest. The Holy Scriptures are directed to promote the Glory of God by the SALVATION OF MAN. The peculiar purpose of the whole is, to turn men from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God; to raise them from the ruin which were written in the law of Moses,

 9. It has therefore been a chief design of this Work to connect and to exhibit the testimony which all the Sacred Penmen bear to the adorable Immanuel; in the proper and unequivocal Divinity of his nature, the necessity of his incarnation, the reality and design of his incarnation, his spotless and exemplary life, his unparalleled sufferings, his vicarious death, the verity of his resurrection and ascension into heaven, the sufficiency of his righteousness,
 the prevalence of his intercession, the spirituality of his kingdom, his sovereignty to the Church, his constant care and love of his people, and the certainty of his second coming to raise the dead and judge
 the world in righteousness;—grand and sublime truths, in which every individual of the human race is deeply and eternally interested.

IV. The chief purpose of Christ's mission being that such as believe on him might be saved from sin, which is the transgression of the Divine law, and from the punishment due to it; it has been thought important frequently to connect those texts which speak of transgressions, with those in which the law concerning them is to be found, and in which punishment is threatened; and sometimes with those in which the atonement is set forth, and pardon is proclaimed; or in which sanctification is promised, or enforced; and these again with such as relate to the future happiness and glory which is promised to the faithful, or punishment and misery denounced against the unrepentant. A small body of divinity is sometimes comprised in a few texts connected together in this way. Thus, from those words in Exek. xxi. 49. Ye shall bear the sins of your idols, the Reader is referred first to Numb. xiv. 34, as a parallel passage, showing God visiting sin upon the trans-gressors themselves; then to Numb. xvi.
 23, to show the typical visitation of it upon the Levitical priesthood; then to Isaiah liii. 11, to show the prophetic declaration of its being laid on Christ; and lastly, to 1 Pet. ii. 24, to show the actual fulfilment of that prophecy, and the end to be answered by it; for there we are told, that He that judgeth righteously, his own self, bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sin, should live to righteousness.

V. The concurrence of the Old and New Testament with each other, and the relation of the types before and under the Mosaic law, to their completion under the Gospel, have been studiously regarded, so as to render it evident, that whatever variations may have been made in the form and administration of external worship, true religion, under the former dispensations, was always essentially the same as true religion under the present; that "he is not a Jew which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." For in every nation, he that feareth God, and worketh righteousness, is accepted of him." Rom. ii. 28, 29. Acts x. 35. In this, the revelation made before the institution of the Levitical priesthood, that made during its continuance, and that which has been made since its termination, all agree. The Mosaic ritual was the shadow of good things to come; so were the priesthood and kingdom of Melchisedec: and the body is Christ, who is essentially the same, both in his person and in his government. yesterday, to-day, and for ever. Heb. xiii. 8.

VI. But the instruction diffused through the Scriptures, respecting the gracious and indispensable operations of the Holy Ghost in the Sanctifier, has not been forgotten: and the references on this article will show, that, as to his sacred influence on the minds of the inspired Penmen, we are indebted for all the truths they have taught us; so to his influence on the minds of those who receive and regard them, must such persons be indebted for all they have learned, or can learn, of them. His work completes the great design of the whole; and his assistance and blessing are distinctly promised to all who sincerely ask them.

VII. As the Scriptures harmonize in their primary and general objects, so do they with regard to the particular subjects comprehended in their plan. Historical accounts are verified by other concurrent ones, or by accounts of the persons or places to which they refer. The prophecies of one Prophet, concerning events which were to take place, relating either to kingdoms, families, individuals, or the world at large, are consistent with those pronounced by other Prophets. The accounts of the Jewish polity under its various vicissitudes, are confirmed by the writings of the Prophets who lived during or after those vicissitudes; while the former tend reciprocally to establish the authenticity of the latter. The histories of the Four Evangelists have a regular connection and parallelism, especially those of Matthew, Mark, and Luke. The recital of the transactions of the Apostles, after the ascension of our Lord, strongly authenticate the Apostolic Epistles; and Archbishop Paley has well shown the confirmation which the Epistles of St. Paul derive from the circumstances recorded by St. Paul in his book of the Acts. Prophecies connected with their accomplishments are in the Scripture History. Promises and threatenings are connected with the respective fulfilment; precept with precept, and with supplication; and the reward of believers with the answers they receive. All these relations have been carefully regarded in this compilation.

VIII. Further, the Scriptures are merely intended to lead men to God: they are intended also to exhort to Repentance, Faith, Hope, Charity, a virtuous life, and are here exhibited in the most perfect models; and it has therefore been into the design of this Work to shew the corresponding emotions and conduct of Saints, both of the Old Testament and New, when under the influence of dispositions, contemplations, and affections, which are most peculiarly characteristic of true piety: and also to exhibit the devotional parts of Scripture, the occurrences which gave rise to them, as far as they can be ascertained.

IX. Religion known by its fruits: no thing merely of times and circumstances: but a living principle in the mind, which times and circumstances call into action, and contribute to

IX. The aphoristic and poetical parts of the Sacred Writings are also chosen as to illustrate and enforce each other, that the Reader may be constantly pressed with those momentous and that sublime language which they abound, and which afford proof for the best exercises of the understanding, and the finest emotions of the heart; at once furnishing us for the most rational entertainment and the most solid instruction. In the poetical parts, the Scriptures will be found to resemble the garden of Eden, in which the Lord God has made to grow everything that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food. But no Charnish flaming sword are here to prohibit access to the Tree of life. The club with which the second Adam may frenzy, and with which he may interrupt, now put forth hands to its soul-riviving fruit, and eat, and live for ever.

X. The agreement of the Sacred Writings with each other will be found not to exist in the subjects on which they treat, but to extend to their own individual references. It will appear that they were all animated by the same Spirit; that they were all holy men, speaking as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, calling to holiness, as the indispensable means to the enjoyment of everlasting happiness; men, nevertheless, of like passions with ourselves, conscious of their own infirmity and sinfulness, and of their dependence on God through Christ Jesus, as the his just displeasure. In short, men fearing God ; loving God ; obeying his laws, his will ; adhering to his wonderful purposes, willingly, deliberately, and determining themselves to his service, might cost them, and to what end ? To expose them. On all these things are held forth as examples, patience, and practice, Christians follow. 1 Cor. xi. 1. Heb. xiii.

But the Scriptures are profitable for the purposes for which they are given, and are calculated to make the perfect, and thoroughly furnish all good works. To the benefit at large may be applied the words of the excellent Bishop Horne (on the influence of the Scriptures on all hearts are known, and unknown, they suit mankind in all seasons, grateful as the manna descended from above, and con- firmed to every palate. The fairest of human wit, after a few pe-rials, like gathered dowers, wither in our hands, and lose their fragrance ; but these unfading plants of Paradise become, as we are accustomed to them, still more and more beautiful ; their bloom appears to be daily heightened, fresh odours are emitted, and new sweets extracted from them. He who hath once tasted their excellencies, will desire to taste them yet again ; and he who tastes them oftenest will relish them best."

Happy in having laboured to facilitate the acquaintance of the Christian with this invaluable treasure, the Editor has now only to implore the blessing of Him by whom its exhaustless stores have been bestowed on sinful man ; and to hope that his feeble endeavours may be instrumental in advancing the Reader's edification, and, in their humble measure, tend to promote that happy state of things, so long foretold and so ardently to be desired, in which THE EARTH SHALL BE FILLED WITH THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE GLORY OF JEHOVAH AS THE WATERS COVER THE SEA. the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth.

18 And to g rule over the day
over the night, and to divide light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth abundantly the living creature that hath b life fowl c that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of h

21 And God created great v
and every living creature
moveth, which the waters b
bring forth abundantly after them
and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them.
Be fruitful, and multiply, a
the waters in the seas: and fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature
after his kind, cattle, and of the kind, and beast of the earth
after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the be the earth after his kind, and after their kind, and every that creepeth upon the earth
after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, Let us man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,

the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, r in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER II.

1 The first Sabbath. 4 The manner of the creation. 19, 20 The naming of the creatures. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THESE the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And a on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life: and e man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted f a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food; the g tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the h tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took 6 the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, m thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, n thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; n I will make him an help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto 10 Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but to Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib which the LORD God had taken from man, he made it a woman, and brought her unto the man.

21 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called <sup>22</sup> Woman, because she was taken out of me.

22 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

23 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER III.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's shameful fall. 16 The punishment of mankind. 22 Their casting out of paradise.

NOW the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, 1 Ye, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree
which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent <sup>d</sup> said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened: and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was <sup>2</sup> pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked: <sup>f</sup> and they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves <sup>3</sup> aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the <sup>4</sup> cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God
amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, <sup>h</sup> because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, <sup>i</sup> The woman,

me, she gave me of the tree, and
did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto
the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat
all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and <sup>h</sup> her seed; <sup>h</sup> he shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow, and thy conception: in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children: and thy desire shall be <sup>4</sup> to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee:

17 And unto Adam he said, I cause thee to be sorrowful, and thou shalt eat of the dust of the ground, and thou shalt eat of the fruit of the tree of the life:

18 Thorns also and thistles will I bring forth with thee, and thou shalt eat of the herb of the field;

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art,
and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name <sup>7</sup> Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Adam also, and to his wife, did the LORD God make coats of skins, and <sup>q</sup> clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, <sup>r</sup> I hold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: <sup>r</sup>
now, lest he put forth his hand,
and take also of the tree of life,
and eat, and live for ever:

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, till he till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; <sup>s</sup> and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden cherubims, <sup>s</sup> and a flaming sword <sup>s</sup> which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The birth of Cain and Abel. 8 murder of Abel. 11 The Curse on Cain.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife: and she conceived, and bare <sup>1</sup>Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother <sup>2</sup>Abel. And Abel was <sup>3</sup>a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And <sup>4</sup>in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought <sup>5</sup>a of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought <sup>6</sup>a of the firstlings of his <sup>7</sup>stock, and of the <sup>8</sup>best thereof. And the LORD had <sup>9</sup>respect unto Abel, and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain, and to his offering, he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why are thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not <sup>8</sup>be accepted? and if thou doest not well, <sup>9</sup>d sin lieth at the door. And <sup>10</sup>unto thee <sup>11</sup>shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and <sup>12</sup>he slew him.

9 And the LORD said unto Cain, f Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: <sup>13</sup>Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's <sup>14</sup>blood <sup>15</sup>crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now <sup>16</sup>art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, <sup>17</sup>My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth: and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth: and it shall come to pass, <sup>18</sup>that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, <sup>19</sup>Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him seven-fold. And the LORD set <sup>20</sup>a mark upon Cain, lest any find him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in

<sup>1</sup> The wickedness of the world causeth
the flood. <sup>8</sup> Noah findeth grace.

ark.

began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them.

<sup>2</sup> That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, <sup>b</sup> that they were fair; and they <sup>c</sup> took them wives of all which they chose.

shall not always strive with man, for that he also <sup>e</sup> is flesh: <sup>f</sup> yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

<sup>4</sup> There were giants in the earth
in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old, men of renown.

edness of man <sup>g</sup> was great in the earth, and <sup>h</sup> that every <sup>i</sup> imagination <sup>g</sup> of the thoughts of his heart <sup>h</sup> was only evil <sup>2</sup> continually.

<sup>6</sup> And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth,
and it grieved him at his heart.

<sup>7</sup> And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth: <sup>3</sup> both man,
and beast, and the creeping thing,
and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

eyes of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man, and <sup>4</sup> perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God:

<sup>10</sup> And Noah begat three sons,
Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

<sup>11</sup> The earth also was corrupt before God; and the earth was filled with violence.

<sup>12</sup> And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon
the earth.

end of all flesh is come before me:
for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them <sup>5</sup> with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher-wood; <sup>6</sup> rooms shalt thou make in the ark; and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark; thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus said Noah; therefore he to all that God commanded him, so did he.

all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass, after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the sixth hundred year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty day upon the earth; and the water increased, and bore up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased exceedingly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that move upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beasts, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man.

hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah,
saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon
the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons'
wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake;
for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth,

and heat, and summer and winter,
and day and night shall not cease.

CHAPTER XI.

1 One language in the world. 3 Babel built. 5 Language confounded.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another,
Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stones, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people are one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's
speech.

8 So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad
upon the face of all the earth.

10 These are the generations of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and
begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah:

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years,
and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years,
and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg:

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years,
and begat Ren:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat
Ren two hundred and nine years,
and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Ren lived two and thirty years, and begat 8 Serug:

21 And Ren lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven
years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years,
and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and
begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat 9 Terah:

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen
years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years,
and begat Abram, 4 Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah, in the land of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; 4 and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, (the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Israh.)

30 But Sarai was barren; 4 she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law,
his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan; and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

4 ¶ So Abram departed, 4 the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan;
4 and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, 4 unto the plain of Moreh. And the Canaanite 4 was then in the land.

7 And the LORD appeared 4 unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: 4 and there builded
he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and 4 Hai
on the east; and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called 4 upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, 4 going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land; and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass,
when the Egyptians shall see thee,
that they shall say, This is his wife:
and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my osister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Abram was come into Egypt,
the Egyptians beheld the woman
that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh; and the woman was 4 taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well
for her sake; and he had sheep, and oxen, and asses, and men-

she asses, and camels.

Sarai giveth Hagar to Abram. 15
Isaac is born.

1 NOW Sarai, Abram's wife, bare him no children: and she had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, behold now, the LORD hath remained me from bearing: I pray see, do go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 ¶ And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.
5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My right is upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when I saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD deceiveth between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, g

then Sarai dealt hardly with her,
and fled from her face.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?

13 And the Lord said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgement; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 I will go down to now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom; but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

23 ¶ And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

11 And they spote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? sons-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here: lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters: the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Sarah's age and death. 3 Purchase of Machpelah, 19 where Sarah was buried.

AND Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; s the same is Hebron b in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 ¶ And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger c and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may d bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince e among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, eves to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 ¶ And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure.

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Abraham for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Abraham sendeth his servant for a wife for Isaac: 48 He obtaineth Rebekah.

AND Abraham was old, and the LORD had blessed a Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this

11 And he made his camels kneel down without the city well of water at the time of evening, even the time that men go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O LORD God my master Abraham, I pray I send me good speed this day, shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

lien with thy wife, and thou shouldst have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and <sup>1</sup>received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him:

13 And the man waxed great, and <sup>2</sup>went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of <sup>3</sup>servants: and the Philistines <sup>n</sup>envied him.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much <sup>o</sup>mightier than we.

17 ¶ And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of <sup>4</sup>springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well <sup>5</sup>Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it <sup>6</sup>Sitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it <sup>7</sup>Rehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father; fear not, <sup>p</sup>for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he <sup>q</sup>builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and swore one to another, and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, y I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed q him, and said, See, r the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed: s

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons u bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, v and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau.

33 And Isaac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath b taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before to thou camest, and have blessed him? *y*ea, x and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, y O my father.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtlety, z and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named b Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; a and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, b and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, and c wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold thy dwelling shall be: the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and d shalt serve thy brother: and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou e shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Esau f hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning g for my father are at hand, then will I slay h my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth i comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother, k to Haran;

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

4 And give thee e the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land f wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed f Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that, as he blessed him, he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed g his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan h pleased not Isaac his father;

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had i Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jacob k went out from Beersheba, and went toward l Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he m dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and n behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And, behold, the LORD stood above it: and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, o and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed p shall be of the dust of the earth, and thou shalt q spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed r shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, I am with thee, s and will keep t thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again u into this land: for I will not leave v thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, surely the LORD is in w this place, and I knew x not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful y is this place! this is none other but the house of God.

31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he t opened her womb : but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name s Reuben : for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked v upon my affliction ; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son ; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also : and she called his name s Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son ; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have borne him three sons : therefore was his name called s Levi.

when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, a speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters; that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man b increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, c and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 Jacob departeth from Laban. 21 Laban pursueth him: 44 their covenant.

AND he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory. a

2 And Jacob beheld b the countenance of Laban, and, beheld, it was not c toward him 1 as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be d with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me. e

6 And ye know that with all my power I have served f your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages g ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me. h

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ring-straked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the 2 rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grised: 1

11 And the angel of God k spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grised: for I have seen m all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, n where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return o unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered, and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, p and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels; q

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his r father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the 3 images s that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away 4 unware to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had: and he rose up, and passed over the river, t and set his face u toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream v by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob w either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob,

Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob <sup>11</sup> offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread; and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed to them;
and Laban departed, and returned unto his place. z

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Jacob's vision: 3 his message, 13
and present to Esau: 24 wrestling with an angel, he is called Israel.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God a met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's b host: and he called the name of that place Ma-hanaim. c

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him d to Esau his brother, unto the land of e Seir, the 2 country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my f lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and wo-menservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace
g in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: h and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, i O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me, k Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am 3 not worthy of the least of all the mercies, l and of all the truth, m which thou has shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan:

and now I am a become two bands.

11 Deliver me, o I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother <sup>4</sup> with the <sup>p</sup> children.

12 And thou <sup>q</sup> saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present <sup>r</sup> for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams,

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drive.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease s him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok: t

23 And he took them, and s sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestled u a man with him until the v breaking of the day:

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let w thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? and he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall field: and Jacob held his peace f

until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard i:
and the men were grieved, and they were g very wroth, because he had wrought folly h in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done. i

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us,
and give your daughters unto us,
and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us:
and the land shall be before you; k dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry l and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father de-ceitfully, m and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised:
for that were a reproach n unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: if ye will be as we be,
that every male of you be circumcised; o

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hammor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young men deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight p in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable q than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs, be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city loquely, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field.

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I bring few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

Seir: e Esau is Edom.
9 ¶ And these are the generations of Esau the father of 2 the Edomites in mount Seir.
10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.
11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, 3 Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.
12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz, f Amalek: these were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.
13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.
14 ¶ And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah,
the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau, Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.
15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; duke Te-man, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.
17 ¶ And these are the sons of Reuel, Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom;
these are the sons of Bashemath,
Esau's wife.
18 ¶ And these are the sons of Aholibamah, Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.
19 These are the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these are their dukes.
20 ¶ These are the sons of Seir
the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah.
21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir
in the land of Edom.
22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and 4 Hemam; and Lotan's

sister was Timna.

AND it came to pass at that time,
that Judah went down from

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a

4 And she conceived again, and

and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: k The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh ² lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But ³ think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, m I pray thee, unto me; and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing: that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three ⁴ white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of ⁵ bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three p days shall Pharaoh ⁶ lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh q from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, r that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he ⁷ lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup s into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker; as Joseph had interpreted t to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but u forgot him.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Pharaoh's two dreams: 25 Joseph interpreteth them 33 he giveth Pharaoh counsel 38 Joseph is advanced.

AND it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed; and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine, and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and lean-fleshed, and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, ¹ rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit b was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dreams; but there was none that could interpret d them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh was wroth e with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker.

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he: f we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they ² brought him hastily out of g the dungeon: And he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that ³ thou canst understand a i dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph in my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river: k

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed and well-favoured; and they fed in a meadow.

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor, and they

stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

20 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

called he ¹⁸ Ephraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful f in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenty that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: g and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, h the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph: what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph opened ¹⁹ all the store-houses, and sold i unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Jacob scuteth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt: 17 they are imprisoned by Joseph as spies.

NOW when a Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may b live, and not die.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, Lest peradventure mischief c befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Chanaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor d over the land, and he e was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake f roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Chanaan, to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed g of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

3 And Judah spake unto him, say-test unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy
those food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him,
we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man <sup>2</sup> asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother?
and we told him according to the tenor of these words: <sup>3</sup> could we certainly know that he would say,
Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety <sup>4</sup> for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear
the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned <sup>5</sup> thus
second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this:
take of the best fruits in the land
in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, <sup>6</sup> a little balm, <sup>7</sup> d and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand: and the money that was brought again <sup>8</sup> in the mouth of your sacks, carry <sup>9</sup> it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight.

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before <sup>10</sup> the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. <sup>11</sup> If I be bereaved <sup>12</sup> g
of my children, I am bereaved.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjaruler <sup>13</sup> h of his house, Bring these men home, and <sup>14</sup> i slay, and make ready; for these men shall <sup>15</sup> j dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in, that he may seek & occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house.

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands, to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace, I be to you; fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

Joseph's policy to stay his brothers.

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn-money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? Ye have done evil to me so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing.

let thy servant abide instead of the lad, v a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me?
lest peradventure I see the evil w
that shall x come on x my father.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren: y he sendeth for his father.

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he l wept aloud: a and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph: doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled b at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you.
And they came near. And he said,
I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold c into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not d grieved,
e nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me e before you, to preserve
life.

6 For these two years f hath the famine been in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which (here shall neither be earing g nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you, <sup>4</sup> to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great h deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but i God: and he hath made me a father k to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, l and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee, (for yet there are five years of famine,) lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, m and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste, and bring down n my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, o and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them; and after that, his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it <sup>2</sup> pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, Thus do ye: lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me; and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the <sup>7</sup> commandment

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five r changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses <sup>2</sup> laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father.

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And <sup>3</sup> Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived <sup>4</sup> it.

28 And Israel said, It is enough: Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jacob is comforted by God at Beer-sheba: 5 he goeth into Egypt: 28 Joseph meeteth him.

AND Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the God <sup>5</sup> of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Israel <sup>6</sup> in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob! And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will there <sup>7</sup> make of thee a great nation.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Joseph shall put his hand <sup>8</sup> upon thine eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent <sup>9</sup> to carry him.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, 7 and his father, before Pharaoh: 11 he giveth them habitation and maintenance.

¶ WHEN Joseph came and told a Pharaoh, and said, My father,
and my brethren, and their flocks,
and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the b land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, c and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? d
And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, e both we,
and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn f in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks: for the famine is sore in the land of Ca

naan : now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee :

6 The land of Egypt is before thee : in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell ; in the land of Goshen let them dwell : and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over g my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh : and Jacob blessed h Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How i old art thou ?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years : few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and i have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ramesses, as k Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, 2 according to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread l in all the land : for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt, and all the land of Canaan, fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought : and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread : for why should we die in thy presence ? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle ; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph : and Joseph gave them bread m in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses ; and he n fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 Joseph visits his sick father. 3 Jacob repeats the promise, 21 and prophesieth their return.

AND it came to pass, after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me;

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee, for everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine: as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of thy brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan, in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless thee.

10 (Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see.) And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face; and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger; and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Manasseh was the firstborn.

15 ¶ And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did wall the God which a fed me all my life long, unto this day,

16 The Angel of which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, as the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father had his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great; but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day saying, In thee shall Israel bless saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover, I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and wit my bow.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Jacob calleth his sons to bless them 3 their blessings in particular. 2 His charge concerning his burial. 33 His death.

AND a Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, ye hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hear unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art my firstborn my might, and the beginning my strength, the excellency of

nity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, ¹ thou shalt not excel; because ^e thou wentest up to thy father's bed: thou defilest thou it: ² he went up to my couch.

6 O, ^h my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they ⁴ digged down a wall.

7 Cursed ^{be} their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide ⁱ them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ Judah, thou ^k art he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand ^{shall} be in the neck of thine enemies: thy father's children shall bow down ^l before thee.

9 Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, ^m and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The sceptre ⁿ shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver ^o from ^p between his feet, until Shiloh ^q come; and unto him ^r shall the gathering of the people ^{be}.

11 Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt ^s unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, ^t and his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His ^u eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ Zebulun ^v shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he ^{shall} be for an haven of ships; and his border ^{shall} be unto Zidon.

14 ¶ Issachar is a strong ass, couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest ^{was} good, and the land that ^{it} was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan ^{is} shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an ^{adder} in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 ^{Is} he have waited for thy salvation, O LORD!

19 ¶ Gad, a troop shall overcome him; but he ^y shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of Asher his bread ^{shall} be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 ¶ Naphtali is a hind let loose: he ^{giveth} goodly words.

CHAPTER I.

22 Pharaoh commandeth the male children to be cast into the river.

NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into a Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the 1 loins of Jacob were seventy b souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died, c and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, d and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew e not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we:

10 Come on, let us deal wisely f with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them task-masters, to afflict them g with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pithom and h Raameses.

12 ¶ But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:

14 And they made their lives i bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, k and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour. l

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives: (of which the name of the one was Shiphras,

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared b God, and did not as the king c of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive?

19 And the midwives answered d Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well e with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he p made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

CHAPTER III.

1 Moses keepeth Jethro's flock: 2 God appeareth unto him in a burning bush: 3 he sendeth him to deliver Israel.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses! And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their task-masters; for I know their sorrows;

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land, a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now, therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee: and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

CHAPTER I
1 Moses' rod is turned in his hand into a leprous message to Pharaoh.

AND Moses answered But, behold, they believe me, nor hearke voice: for they will say hath not appeared unto thee. 2 And the LORD said What is that in thine hand? he said, A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent, and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it was a rod in his hand:

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said more unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom; and he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom; and he took it out, behold, it was as the other flesh.

 him, and sought to kill s him.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and t cut off the foreskin of her son, and u cast u at his foot, and said, Surely a bloody husband art
 thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said,
 A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron,
 Go into the wilderness to meet
 Moses: And he went, and met him in the mount u of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went
 and gathered together all the elders
 of the children of Israel:

30 And Aaron spake v all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs w in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed: x and when they heard that the LORD
 had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads y and worshipped.

CHAPTER V.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron:
 5 he increaseth the Israelites' task.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast a unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, b Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the c
 Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, d or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many,
 and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the task-masters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people
 straw to make brick, as heretofore:
 let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay e upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 ¶ Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein: and let them not regard vain f words.

10 ¶ And the task-masters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not aught of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the task-masters hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, 2 your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's task-masters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore deniest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil of case, after it was said, Ye shall not diminish aught from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh;

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge: because ye have made our savour 3 to be abhorred 4 in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil-entreated 5 this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done

CHAPTER VI.

1 God remembereth his promise by his name JEHOVAH.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what e I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand b shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall I drive them c out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am 1 the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God d Almighty; but by my name e JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my covenant f with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard thy groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have 4 remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out 5 from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will k redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me 6 for a people, and I will be to you 7 a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did 2 swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not 8 unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have 9 not hearkened unto me: how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of 9 uncircumcised lips?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Moses is encouraged to go to Pharaoh: 10 the rod is turned to a serpent. 13 Pharaoh's heart is hardened. 19 The river is turned to blood.

AND the LORD said unto Moses,
 See, I have made thee a god a to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all b that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel
 out of his land.

3 And I will c harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt:

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt
 by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I d am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle e for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants,
 and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their en-chantments.

12 For they cast down every man
 his rod, and they became serpents:
 but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD f had said.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, h he refuseth i to let the people go.

 morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand turned to a serpent k shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, m that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loath to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER VIII.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand upon the waters, and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

14 And they gathered them up upon heaps; and the land was cleansed.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The murrain of beasts. 27 Pharaoh saith to Moses, 35 but yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses,
Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go,
that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go,
and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field,
upon the horses, upon the asses,
upon the camels, upon the oxen,
and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and a all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold,
there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses
and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil b breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh;
and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the magicians could not c stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearken-

had spoken e unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all f my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and g thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for h this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew m thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go!

18 Behold, to-morrow k about this time, I will cause it to rain l a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come m down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word n of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that o regarded o not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and p hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground: and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that *was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail q smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.*

26 Only in the land of Goshen, r where the children of Israel were,

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 Entreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more g mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands u unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet v fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten; x for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was balled.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten; for they were y not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken z by Moses.

CHAPTER X.

12 The plague of locusts, 21 of darkness, 27 Pharaoh's heart is yet hardened.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, b and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how c that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble d thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse e people go, behold, to u I bring the locusts e in.

3 And the LORD gave the people b favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great c in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight d will I go out into the midst of Egypt :

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, e from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 And there shall be a great cry f throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast; that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants h shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people i that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in j a great anger.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that my wonders may k be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

CHAPTER XII.

3 The passover instituted. 29 The firstborn slain. 31 The Israelites are driven out of the land.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This a month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a b lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take c it according to the number of the souls: every man, according to his eating, shall make your count for the lamb.

Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the Lord,
as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone;
and ⁹ bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent to upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their ⁹ kneading-troughs being bowed up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses;
and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold,
and raiment:

36 And the LORD ^z gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses ^y to Sac-coth, about ^z six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And ¹⁰ a mixed multitude ^a went up also with them; and flocks,
and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was ^b four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the self-same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is ¹¹ a night to be much ^c observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance ^d
of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast ^e circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A ^f foreigner and an hired se-vant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten : thou shalt not carry forth aught of the flesh abroad out of the house ; neither shall ye break a bone hereof. g

47 All the congregation of Israel shall ¹² keep it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the sabbath to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it ; and he shall be as one that is born in the land : for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law h shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel ; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the self-same i day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt k by their armies.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The firstborn sanctified to God.

3 The memorial of the passover is commanded. 21 God guideth them by a cloud, and by fire.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sanctify unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast : it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Remember this b day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of ¹ bondage ; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place : there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, c in the month Abib.

5 ¶ And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Iivites, and the Jebusites, which he d swore unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days e thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days : and there shall f no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shew thy son g n that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did to me when I came forth out of gypt.

memorial between thee and gypt; that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth : for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of gypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance i in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 That thou shalt <sup>2</sup> not spare unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast ; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a <sup>3</sup> heave, and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck : and of the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ And it shall be, when they asketh thee <sup>4</sup> in time to come, saying, What is this ? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of gypt, from the house of bondage.

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast : therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males ; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token unto thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes : for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near ; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return n to Egypt :

18 But God <sup>o</sup> led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea. And the children of Israel went up <sup>6</sup> harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him ; for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, p God will surely visit you ; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

Egyptians! For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not. A stand still,
and see the salvation of the LORD,
which he will shew to you to day:
1 for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall fight for you,
and ye shall hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground
through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden
the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And the angel of God,
which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them: and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light
by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea a dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses,
his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, 2 that they drove them

heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered p the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea-shore.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed q the LORD, and his servant Moses.

1 Moses' song. 23 The waters at Marah are bitter.

THEN sang a Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and b song, and he is become my salvation: h he is my God, and I will prepare him an c habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

3 The LORD is a man of d war: the LORD is his name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, e O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in *p*ieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine f excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: g thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like k unto thee, O LORD, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them: by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which p thou hast purchased.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, o Say unto all the congregation of o the children of Israel, Come o o near before the LORD; for he hath heard o your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron o spake unto the whole congregation o of the children of Israel, that they o looked toward the wilderness, and, o behold, the glory of the LORD o o appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto o Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the o murmur- o ings of the children of Israel: o speak unto them, saying, At even o ye shall eat flesh, and in the morn- o ing ye shall be filled with bread; o and ye shall know that I am the o LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at o even the quails o came up, and o covered the camp; and in the morn- o ing the dew lay round about the o host.

14 And when the dew that lay o was gone up, behold, upon the face o of the wilderness there lay a small o round thing, as small as the hour- o frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Is- o rael saw it, they said one to ano- o ther, o It is manna: o for they wist o not what it was. And Moses said o unto them, This is the bread which o the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the o LORD hath commanded, Gather of o it every man according to his eat- o ing, an omer o for every man, ac- o cording to the number of your o persons: take ye every man for them o which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did o so, and gathered, some more, some o less.

18 And when they did mete it o with an omer, o he that gathered o much had nothing over, and he o that gathered little had no lack: o they gathered every man according o to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man q leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you, to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to-day, for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like e coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, w Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up be-

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The people come to Sinai. 3 God's message to them out of the mount. 8 Their answer.

In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness a of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from b Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 Ye have seen what I did c unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, d and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, f and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And Moses came, and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end; even of the mercy-seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 ¶ Thou shalt also make a table of shittim-wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and tongs thereof, to cover withal: of gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table shew-bread before me at all times.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shalt the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his bowl, his knops, and his flutes, shall be of the same.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side.

33 Three bowls made like almonds, with a knop and a fluted in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a fluted so in the six branches that shall come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flutes.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under three branches of the same, according to the six branches that shall come out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their flutes shall be of the same; all of beaten work of pure gold.

another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver;
two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tab-

six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle
in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled to-coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards,
and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim-wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of
the other side of the tabernacle,
and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars;
and thou shalt overlay the bars
with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion whereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a vail
of blue, and purple, and scarlet,

work: with cherubims shall it be made.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim-wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony:

and the vail shall divide unto you between the i holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And thou shalt k set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

36 And thou shalt make an i hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

CHAPTER XXVII

The altar of burnt offering, with the vessels thereof, etc.

AND thou shalt make a an altar of shittim-wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare; and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of net-work of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make d staves for the altar, staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with brass.

1 The sacrifices and ceremonies of consecrating the priests. 38 The continual burnt offering.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto a thorn to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

2 And b unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened smothered with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them in one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons that shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt c wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the d garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod.

Re. 5. 9-12.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering,
which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel: for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation, to minister in the holy place.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

33 And they shall eat those things wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if aught of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remain unto the morning, then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanc-tify it; and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer
in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD; where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

45 ¶ And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof: and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the door, that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

when he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it; a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifices, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it, throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel, after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no plague among them when thou numberest them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that is numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement-money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet

CHAPTER XXXI

2 Bezziel and Aholub are called for the work of the tabernacle. 12 Of the sabbath. 18 Moses receiveth the two tables.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 See, I have called by a name Bezziel b the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah :

3 And I have c filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge,
and in all manner of workmanship,

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him d Aholub the son of Ahismach, of the tribe of Dan : and in the hearts of all that are wise-hearted e I have put wisdom, that they may make f all that I have commanded thee :

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is thereupon, and all the i furniture of the tabernacle.

8 And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense,

9 And the altar of burnt offering with all his furniture, and the laver
and his foot,

10 And the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons,
to minister in the priest's office.

11 And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place : according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my g sabbaths ye shall keep : for it is a h sign between me and you throughout your generations ; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.

14 Ye shall keep i the sabbath
therefore, for it is holy unto you :
every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death : for whosoever k doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

15 Six days may work be done, but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, ² holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath-day, he l shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.

17 It is m a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in s six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was o refreshed.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, p two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The people cause Aaron to make a calf. 19 Moses breaketh the tables. 25 The idolaters slain. 31 Moses prayeth.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed a to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, b which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, c we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the d golden ear-rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden ear-rings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a e molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made f proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people g sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have h corrupted themselves.

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it,

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 The Lord refuseth to go with the people. 9 The Lord talketh with Moses. 12 Moses desireth to see the glory of God.

AND the LORD said unto Moses,
Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:
2 And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite,
and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up into the midst of thee; for thou art a stiff-necked people; lest I consume thee in the way.

4 ¶ And when the people heard
these evil tidings, they mourned;
and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee:
therefore now put off a thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments
by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the b tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORDc talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee f by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, g show me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight; and consider h that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, My presence i shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not l with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so m shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my goodness n pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious o to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see p my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts; but my face shall not be seen.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai (with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount) that Moses wist
not that the skin of his face shone d while he talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone : and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them ;
and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him :
and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh : and he gave them in commandment e all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail f on his face.

34 But when Moses went in before the LORD, to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out.
And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone : and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

CHAPTER XXXV.

2 The unbath. 4 The free gifts for the tabernacle. 20 The readiness of the people to offer.

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, a These are the words which the LORD hath comanded, that ye should do them.

2 Six days b shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you 1 an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD : whosoever doeth work therein c shall be put to death.

3 Ye shall kindle no d fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD : whosoever is of a e willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD : gold,
and silver, and brass,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate.

10 And every wisehearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

12 The ark, and the staves thereof, with the mercy-seat, and the veil of the covering,

13 The table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the shewbread,

14 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light;

15 And the incense altar, and his staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle.

16 The altar of burnt offering, with his brazen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

19 The cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one of whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass, brought the LORD's offering: and every man with whom was found shittim-wood, for any work of the service, brought it.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.
 19 And he made a covering m for the tent of rams' skins dyed red,
 and a covering of badgers' skins
 above that.
 20 ¶ And he made n boards for the tabernacle of shittim-wood, o
 standing up.
 21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board
 one cubit and a half.
 22 One board had two tenons,
 equally distant one from another:
 thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
 23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward.
 24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.
 25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards.
 26 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board,
 and two sockets under another board.
 27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.
 28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.
 29 And they were ¹coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.
 30 And there were eight boards;
 and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, ²under every board
 two sockets.
 31 ¶ And he made p bars of shittim-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards of
 the other side of the tabernacle,
 and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.
 33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.
 34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.
 35 ¶ And he made a q veil of blue,
 and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.
 36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an r hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, ³ of s needlework;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapters and their fillets with gold; but their five sockets were of brass.

1 The ark. 6 The mercy-seat with cherubims. 10 The table with its vessels.

AND Bezaleel made the a ark of shittim-wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 ¶ And he made the mercy-seat b of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two c cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy-seat:

8 One cherub ¹ on the end on this side; and another cherub ² on the other end on that side: out of the mercy-seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubims d spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another: even to the e mercy-seatward were the faces of the cherubims.

10 ¶ And he made the f table of shittim-wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof:

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an hand-breadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof, round about.

month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.*

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail.

*4 And thou shalt bring in the tathat are to be set in order upon it;

and thou shalt bring in the candle-

*5 And thou shalt set the altar of

of the testimony, and put the hang-

*6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the *9 And thou shalt take the anoint-

*10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar:
and it shall be an altar most
holy.*

*11 And thou shalt anoint the laver

*12 And thou shalt bring Aaron

*13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the veil.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there to wash withal.

31 And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, washed their hands and feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the round about the tabernacle the altar, and set up the pillars of the court-gate. So Moses washed the work.

34 ¶ Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud thereof, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went forward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not up, then they journeyed not the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journey.

13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar: it shall never go out.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD.

16 And the remainder thereof he shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place: in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire: it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations, concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; it shall be wholly burnt:

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is most holy.

26 The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof a shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken; and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

offering r before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw they shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER X.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire. 8 The priests are forbidden when they are to go into the tabernacle.

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censet, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered a strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them; and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, Uncover h not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest your wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out k from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is l upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink m wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat above upon the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle p northward, without the veil.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 ¶ And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the veil:

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon: as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 ¶ And he set up the hanging of the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the s altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And he set the t laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, washed their hands and their feet thereat:

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up r the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court-gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 ¶ Then a cloud w covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud x was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel z went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not y taken up, then they journeyed not y till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD s was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

CHAPTER V.

11 The trespass offering in sacrilege, 17 and in sins of uncharity.

AND if a soul a sin, and hear the voice of b swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall c bear his iniquity.

2 Or if a soul touch any d unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and e guilty.

3 Or if he touch f the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when g he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips h to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall i confess that he hath sinned in that thing :

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And if j he be not k able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and shall wave off his head from his neck; but shall not divide it asunder : And he shall sprinkle l of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar : it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the a manner; and the priest shall b make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be c forgiven him.

11 ¶ But if he be not d able to bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put e no oil upon it, neither shall he put f any frankincense thereon : for it is a sin offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even a g memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD : it is a sin offering.

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him : and the h remnant i shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, j in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring, for his trespass unto the LORD, k a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after l the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering :

16 And he shall make m amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest : and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a n soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; though he wist it not, yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest : and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not; and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a trespass offering; o he hath certainly p trespassed against the LORD.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The trespass offering for sins done unwittingly: 10 The offering at the consecration of a priest. 21 The law of the sin offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and a lie unto his neighbour in that which was b delivered him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or c hath deceived his neighbour;

3 Or have found d that which was lost, and both concerning it, and e sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found;

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even f restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, <sup>2</sup> in the day of his trespass offering.

6 ¶ And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:

7 And the priest shall g make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of h all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, <sup>2</sup> because of the burning upon the altar all night i unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

10 And the priest shall put on k his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall be put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on l other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it, it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire shall ever be burnt upon the altar: it shall never ¹ out.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it a handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, of all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it, unto the LORD.

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place: in the court, the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be taken with leaven. I have given it ² unto them: their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: ³ shall be a statute for ever in your generations, concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth the shall ⁴ be holy.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of ⁵ Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil: and when it is baked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked piece of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons it is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; ⁶ it shall be wholly burnt. 23 For every meat offering for a priest shall be wholly burnt: shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the ⁷ sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed, before the LORD: it is most holy.

26 The priest that offereth the sin shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall be flesh thereof u shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken; and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood v is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation, to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The law of the trespass offering, 11 and of the peace offerings.

22 The fat, 26 and the blood, are forbidden.

LIKewise this is the law of the trespass offering: a it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill b the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about c upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it d all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests e shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them; the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

AND it came to pass on the a eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel:

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a *b*sin offering, and a ram for a *c*burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

offering r before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and s blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD l appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire n out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw they e shouted,
and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER X.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire. 8
The priests are forbidden wine
when they are to go into the tabernacle.

A ND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them
his censer, and put fire therein,
and put incense thereon, and offered a strange fire before the LORD,
which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire b from the LORD, and devoured them;
and e they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron,
This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified d in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be e glorified. And Aaron f held his peace.

4 And Moses called Michael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and g carried them in their coats out of the camp;
as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Itamar, his sons, Uncover h not your heads, neither read your clothes; lest ye die, and lest i wrath come upon all the people; but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out k from
the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is l upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink m wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations;

10 And that ye may put n difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

11 And that ye may teach o the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the p holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave-breast and heave-shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for thy b e thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave-shoulder and the wave-breast shall they bring, with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, q as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted r in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying unto them, n ch. 11. 47. 20. 25. 26. Jer. 15. 19. Esc. 44. 23. 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which ye shall eat a among all the beasts that are on the earth.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, b c and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

4 Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: e as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

5 And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.

7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch: c they are unclean to you.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: d whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, these shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an e abomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the f fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination; the eagle, and the osprey, and the osseage, and the ospray.

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind,

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the owl, and he night-hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the screech-owl, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier-eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; g the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth h the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall wash i his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor cleaveth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, these are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash k his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, l and the tortoise after his kind.

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth m touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or rument, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, n it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel wherewith any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and o ye shall break it.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

CHAPTER XII.

The purification of a woman after child-birth.

raol, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man-child; then a she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her b infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the c eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. 4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid-child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her d purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb <sup>1</sup> of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtle-dove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest;

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her: and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And e if she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER XIII.

Tokens to discern the leprosy.

AND THE LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a <sup>1</sup> rising, a a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, b or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall c shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay,

B. C. 1490.

and the plague spread not in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest d shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be <sup>2</sup> quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, whosoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: e he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned unto white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a f boil, and is healed.

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white: the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague bright spots, or even white bright spots,

39 Then the priest shall look: and,
behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white;
it is a freckled spot that groweth
in the skin: he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald;
yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin
of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and he shall have his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, I unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ The garment is also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or wool: of linen, or of woollen: whether in a skin, or in any ^a thing made of skin:

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any ^a thing of skin: it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin: the plague is a fretting leprosy: it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn y that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy: it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin:

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: z and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread, it is unclean: thou shalt burn it in the fire: it is fretting inward, whether it be ⁷ bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin: it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn a that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Thus shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought a unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two ¹ birds alive and clean, and ^b cedar-wood, and scarlet, and ^c hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over ^d running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall ^e sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy ^f seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose ² into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash ^g his clothes, and shave oil all his hair, and wash himself ^h in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows, ⁱ even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day ^k he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb, ³ of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour ⁴ for ^l a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean shall present ^m the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for ⁿ a trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for ^o a wave offering before the LORD:

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering, and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for ^p as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy.

If the priest shall take some blood of the trespass offering, the priest shall put it q in the tip of the right ear of him to be cleansed, and upon the tip of his right hand, and upon the tip of his right foot: the priest shall take some oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand: the priest shall dip his finger in the oil that is in his hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD: of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and the thumb of his right hand, and the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering: the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD. the priest shall offer the burnt offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed: and after he shall kill the burnt offering, the priest shall offer the offering, and the meat offering on the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean. If he be poor, and cannot so much; then he shall offer a lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth part of fine flour mingled with oil, and a log of fat of two turtle-doves, or two pigeons, such as he is able, and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering: he shall bring them on the day for his cleansing unto the door of the congregation, before the LORD. the priest shall take the fat of the trespass offering, and of the oil, and the priest shall wave it for a wave offering before the LORD. he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the 31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as if there were a plague in the house;

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strokes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place c without the city:

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house.

43 And if the plague come d again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is e a fretting leprosy in the house; it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down f the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut g up shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest h shall come in, and look upon it, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, k because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take i to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:

the holy place. 30 The scape-goat.

29 The yearly feasts of the expiations.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, a when they offered
before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses,
Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times b into the holy place within the vail before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud c upon the mercy-seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come d into the holy place: e with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the f holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments;
therefore shall he wash g his flesh
in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel h
two kids of the goats for a sin

offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering which is for himself, and make an atonement for i himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats: one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the <sup>1</sup> scape-goat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot <sup>2</sup> fell, and offer him for a sin offering:

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scape-goat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make k an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scape-goat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire m from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet n incense beaten small, and bring t within the veil:

13 And he shall put the incense o upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat p that is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, q and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy-seat eastward; and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering r that is for the people, and bring his blood within s the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement t for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins; and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that <sup>3</sup> remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make v an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it to from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling x the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over y him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them z upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of <sup>4</sup> a fit man into the wilderness.

22 And the goat shall bear a upon him all their iniquities unto a land <sup>5</sup> not inhabited: b and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there:

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And c the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes, and bathe d his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall e one carry e forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you, that in f the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall effect g your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you :

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse h you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.

32 And h the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments :

33 And l he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar ; and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this m shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Blood of beasts must be offered at the tabernacle door. 10 Blood forbidden.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What a man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD, before the tabernacle of the LORD ; blood shall be imputed b unto that man ; he hath shed blood ; and that man shall be cut off from among his people :

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which c they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle d the blood upon the altar of the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and e burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I am the LORD your God.

3 After b the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwell, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.

5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments; which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the LORD.

7 The nakedness d of thy father, e or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

9 The nakedness of thy sister, g the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even thy nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for their is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, (she is thy sister,) thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his n seed among his people; for I the LORD do sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, o
let him not approach p to offer the bread of his God:

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous, q

19 Or a man that is broken-footed,
or broken-handed,

20 Or crook-backed, or r a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or r hath his stones broken:

21 No man that hath a blemish
of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish: he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most s holy, and of the holy; t

23 Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish:
that u he profane not my sanctuaries: for v I the LORD do sanc-tify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAPTER XXII.

The priests in their uncleanness
must abstain from the holy things.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo-
ses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they separate a themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that b they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow c unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, having d his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or e hath a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he be clean. f And whoso g toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man h whose seed goeth from him:

5 Or whosoever i toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or k a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath:

6 The soul which hath touched l any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash m his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because n it is his food.

8 That which dieth o of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest p they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest buy any soul with q his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house; they q shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto r a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned r unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, s then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things t of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD:

16 Or u suffer them to bear u the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for i the LORD do sanctify them.

19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, w of the heaves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 But whatsoever x hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings y unto the LORD to accomplish his vow z or a free will offering in heaves or z sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted: there shall be no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a aa lamb that hath any thing superfluous, or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering: but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's i hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their c corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them; they shall not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 When d a bullock, or a sheep or a goat, is brought forth, then i shall be seven days under the dam, and from the eighth day, and thenceforth, it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

15 ¶ And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering;
seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number: fifty days; and ye shall offer
a new meat offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave-loaves, of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits k
unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish, of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering,
and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits, for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they n shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you; ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And when ye reap o the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reap-est, neither shalt thou gather any gleaming of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, p and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh q month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, r an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto
Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doeth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly, and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink of ferments, every thing upon his day: besides the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

38 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations; ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days: all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths:

43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIV.

13 The law of blasphemy. 17 Of murder.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command a the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil-olive, beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning, before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed; and they brought i him unto Moses; (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they k put him in ward, ² that the mind i of the LORD might be shewed them.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall bear his sin.

16 And he n that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that ³ killeth any o man shall surely be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast p shall make it good; ⁴ a beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as q he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have one r manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

23 ¶ And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

a sabbath of rest unto the land, sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That b which growth of i own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather t grapes of thy <sup>2</sup> vine undressed: f it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and f thy servant, and for thy maid, u for thy hired servant, and for t stranger that sojourneth with thee.

7 And for thy cattle, and for t beast that ore in thy land, shall u the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet <sup>3</sup> of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month in the day c of atonement: shall u make the d trumpet sound through out all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return fevery man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man un his family.

11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall n sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather t grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat t increase thereof out of the field.

13 In g the year of this jubilee u shall return every man unto h possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto t neighbour, or buyest ought of t neighbour's hand, ye h shall n oppress one another:

15 According to the number u years after the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years u the fruit he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude u years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years u thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to t number of the years of the fruit he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall do k statutes, and keep my judgments and do them; and t ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will command m my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And n ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold 4 for ever; for the land is mine; o for ye are strangers p and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and q if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brothersold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and 6 himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count r the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it, until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out, s and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no walls round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country; 6 they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities t of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

34 But the field u of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 ¶ And if thy brother be waxen v poor, and 8 fallen in decay with thee, then thou shalt 9 relieve w him; yea, though he be a stranger, z or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no usury y of him, or increase; but fear x thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I a am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not 10 compel him to serve as a bond-servant:

40 But b as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are my c servants which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold 11 as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour, d but shalt fear e thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you: of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover, of the children of the strangers f that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy and of their families that are with you, which they beget in you land; and they shall be your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as u inheritance g for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; 12 they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren, the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour. h

poor, and sell i himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family: 48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again: one of his brethren may redeem him: 49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or, if he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years; according to the time h of an hired servant shall h be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed <sup>14</sup> in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they l are my servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: b for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land l their fruits.

23 And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;

24 Then will I also walk e contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge f the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence g among you: and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken h the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not i be satisfied.

45 But I will for their sakes l remember the covenant of their m ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head c of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these a are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur d the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enun.

16 These f were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads g of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed h by their names: i

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according k to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 And the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 ¶ Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward,

all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

22 ¶ Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

24 ¶ Of the children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

26 ¶ Of the children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

28 ¶ Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

30 ¶ Of the children of Joseph, n namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand and five hundred.

32 ¶ Of the children of Manasseh, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

36 ¶ Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were threescore and two thousand and seven hundred.

38 ¶ Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

39 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

40 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

41 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

42 These o are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

43 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

44 Even all they that were p numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

45 ¶ But q the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

46 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

47 Only thou shalt not number U tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But r thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof: and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp s round about the tabernacle.

51 And t when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the u stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man v by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites w shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath x upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites y shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

CHAPTER II.

The order of the tribes in their tents.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every a man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: i far b off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and Nahshon c the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were three-score and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nathanael the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

4 And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest office in the sight of Aaron the father.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring d the tribe of Levites and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they e shall keep his charge and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle: e the congregation, to do f the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give g the Levites unto Aaron, and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office, and the stranger h that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine:

13 Because all the firstborn k are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: none shall they be: I am the LORD.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male l from a month old and upward shalt the number them.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the 2 word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these m were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon, by their families: Libni, and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath, by their families; Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by families; Mahli, and Meshi: these are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them, were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Elizaphan the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall be the tabernacle, g and the tent, r the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

26 And the hangings s of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords t of it, for all the service thereof.

27 ¶ And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their u charge shall be the ark, x and the table, y and the candlestick, and the altars, z and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, a and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 ¶ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old

and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these c shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And <sup>3</sup> under the custody and d charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

38 ¶ But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping e the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger f that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 All g that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Number h all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And i thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males, by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take k the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed l of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more m than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five n shekels apiece by the poll; after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel o is twenty gerahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odd number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption money of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites:

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after p the shekel of the sanctuary:

51 And Moses gave q the money of them that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as r the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The age and time of the Levites' service. 17 The office of the priests.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers.

3 From a thirty years old and upward, even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This h shall be the service of the sons of Kohath, in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the c most holy things:

5 ¶ And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering vail, d and cover the ark e of testimony with it:

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over f a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put it in the staves f thereof.

7 And upon the table g of h shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to i cover withal: and the continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them k a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves k thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue and cover the candlestick l of the light, and his lamps, and his songs, and his snuff-dishes, and all be oil vessels thereof, wherewith l they minister unto it:

curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to

if thou be defiled, and some man husband:

21 Then the priest shall charge q

people, when the LORD doth make shall say, Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall wave u the offering before the LORD and offer
it upon the altar:

26 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that, if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive a seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear a her iniquity.

2 The law of the Nazarite. 21 The form of blessing the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the LORD;

3 He shall separate himself from wine, and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his separation, shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall come at no dead body.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with <sup>g</sup> him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the mercy-seat <sup>h</sup> that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims: and he spake unto him.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 How the lamps are to be lighted. 5 The conversation of the Levites: 23 the age and time of their service.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as the LORD commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the b candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was c beaten work: according unto the pattern d which the LORD had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle water e of purifying upon them, and f let them <sup>1</sup> shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering, q even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 And h thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and i thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put k their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall <sup>2</sup> offer l the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may <sup>4</sup> execute the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate m the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine.

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer o them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel: instead p of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the firstborn q of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19 And I have given r the Levites q a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall <sup>7</sup> cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

Of the cloud and fire.

19 And when the cloud 2 tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge h of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud
was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud
3 abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning : then they journeyed : whether it rests by day or by night : that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode n in their tents, and journeyed not; but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed : they kept e the charge of the LORD, at the w commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER X.

1 The use of the silver trumpets. 33

Moses' blessing.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo-
ses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of an whole piece shalt thou make them; that thou mayest use them for the calling a of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow b with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads c of the thousands of Israel,
shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, d then the camps that lie on the east e parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south f side shall take their journey : they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow,
but ye shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the g
priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war h in your land against the enemy that oppresseth i you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered k before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved l from your enemies.

10 Also m in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for an memorial before your God: l om the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the seventh month, in the second year, that the cloud o was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinai; p and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran q.

13 And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD r by the hand of Moses.

14 ¶ In the first place went the s standard of the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host was Nabalson the son of Amminadab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Helon.

17 And the tabernacle was taken t down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward, bearing u the tabernacle.

18 ¶ And the standard r of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Ehizur the son of Shedeer.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelumai the son of Zurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 And the Kohathites set forward, bearing the sanctuary: w and the other did set up the tabernacle against they came.

22 ¶ And the standard z of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their armies: and over his host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasse was Gamaliel the son of Peleahzur.

talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit ² which is upon thee, and will put ³ it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify ⁴ yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for you have wept in the ears ⁵ of the LORD, saying, Who ⁶ s shall give us flesh to eat? for ⁷ it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a ² whole month, y until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which ³ is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I ¹ am are six hundred ² thousand footmen; and thou hast said I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall ³ a the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is ⁴ b the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether ⁵ c my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down ¹ d in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that ² was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when ³ e the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one ¹ was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they ² were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and ³ f they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun,

the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid g them.

20 And Moses said unto him, Envyest thou for my sake? Would h God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 ¶ And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought i quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were 2 a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten k homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while l the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place 10 Kibroth-hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed m from Kibroth-hattaavah unto Hazeroth; and abode 11 at Hazeroth.

CHAPTER XII.

God rebuketh the sedition of Miriam and Aaron.

AND Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the 1 Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had 2 married a an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken b also by us? And the LORD heard c it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And d the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down e in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

to Kadesh; o and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the 27 And they told him, and said,

We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth p with milk and honey;
and this q is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the people r be-

land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea,
and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And Caleb u stilled the people

him said, We be not able to go up

33 And there we saw the giants,

CHAPTER XIV.

The people murmur at the news.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept a that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured b against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the Lord brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey?
were it not better for us to return
into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another,
Let us make a captain, and let us return c into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces d before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And Joshua, e the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight f in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel h not ye against the LORD, neither fear i ye the people of the land; for they are bread k for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: i fear m them not.

10 But all the congregation bade stone them n with stones. And o the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke p me! and how long will it be ere they believe me, q for all the signs which I have shewed among them!

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of r thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And Moses *s*aid unto the LORD, Then t the Egyptians shall hear u, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them:)

14 And they will tell v to the inhabitants of this land: for they have w heard that thou, LORD, art among this people; that thou, LORD, art seen face to face; and that thy cloud x standeth over them, and that thou y goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of a fire by night.

15 ¶ Now, z thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will *a*shamed, saying,

16 Because b the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my LORD be great according as thou hast spoken, a saying,

18 The LORD is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving b iniquity and transgression, and by no means *c*onsuming the guilty, visiting c the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

39 And Moses told these say- ings unto all the children of Is- rael: and the people mourned x greatly.

40 ¶ And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

ing, or a sacrifice in ^l performing a vow, ^b or in a freewill offering, or in your solemn feasts, c to make a sweet savour d unto the LORD, of this kind, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering e of a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oil f.

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare for a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or g peace offerings unto the LORD:

9 Then shall he bring h with a bullock a meat offering of three tenth deals of flour mingled with half an hin of oil.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

11 Thus i shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their num- ber.

13 All that are born of the coun- try shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One k ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourn- eth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations; as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.

16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Is- rael, and say unto them, When l ye come into the land whither I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when ye eat of the bread of the land, m ye shall offer up an heave offering unto the LORD.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the n first of your dough for an heave offering: as ye do the heave offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye heave it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the LORD an heave offering in your generations.

22 ¶ And if ye have erred, p and not observed all these commandments, which the LORD hath spoken unto Moses.

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance q without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with q his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the r manner, and one kid r of the goats for a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance; s and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 ¶ And if t any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And u the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 Ye shall have one law for him that v sinneth through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger v that sojourneth among them.

30 ¶ But the soul that doeth *w*ought w presumptuously, w whether w be born in the land, or a stranger, w no same reproacheth the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

fifty censers : thou also, and Aaron,
each of you his censor.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them into
the door of the tabernacle of the congregation : and so the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate x yourselves from among this congregation, that I may y consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell z upon their faces, and said, O God, the God a of the spirits of all flesh, shall one b man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation ?

23 ¶ And the LORD, spake unto
Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram : and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, c I pray
you, from the tents of these wicked
men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side : and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby ye d shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works ; for I have not done them of mine own mind.

29 If these men die e the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation f of all men ; then the LORD hath not sent me.

30 But if the LORD g make a new g thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up,
with all that appertain unto them,
and they go down quick into the pit ; h then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD.

31 ¶ And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them :

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for m they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these sinners n against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: and they shall be a sign o unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brazen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, that p no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow, all the congregation of the children of Israel q murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, the cloud r covered it, and the glory s of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Get t you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment. And u they fell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein

CHAPTER XVII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod, a according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where b I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, c shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby d they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel; and every one of their princes gave him e a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, e twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle f of witness.

21 And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which is never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for it is a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 ¶ He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

brethren died before the LORD!

4 And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto

the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the LORD spake unto

Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou

the assembly together, thou and

Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes;

and it shall give forth his water,

and thou shalt bring forth to them

water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Moses took the rod from

before the LORD, as he commanded

him.

10 And Moses and Aaron gathered

the congregation together before the rock; and he said unto them,

Hear now, ye rebels: h must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and the i water came out abundantly: and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto

Moses and Aaron, Because k ye believed me not, to sanctify l me in the eyes of the children of Israel,

therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which l

I have given them.

13 This is the water of m Meribah:

because the children of Israel

strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified n in them.

14 ¶ And n Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith o thy brother

Israel, Thou knowest all the travail that hath 2 befallen us:

15 How our fathers went down p

into Egypt, and we have dwelt q

in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us and our fathers;

16 And when r we cried unto the LORD, he heard s our voice, and sent t an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt: and behold,

we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

17 Let u us, pass, I pray thee

rewards q of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me; and the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; <sup>2</sup> peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for h they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth i to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, <sup>2</sup> Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come k therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If l Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I m cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 And n God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet o the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And God's anger was kindled because he went; and p the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now, he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the ass saw q the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyard, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD opened r the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, s for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, ⁴ upon which thou hast ridden ever since t I was thine unto this day? ⁵ Was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD opened t the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed u down his head, and ⁶ fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore has thou smitten thine ass v these three times? behold, I went out 7 to withstand thee, because thy w way is perverse x before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if y it displease thee, I z will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go a with the me:

but b only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak; so Balak went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote c thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word d that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto a Kirjath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high e places of Baal, thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

1, 13 Balak's sacrifice. 7, 18 Balaam's parable.

AND Balaam said unto Balak, a Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered b on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, c Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go; peradventure the Lord will come to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went d to an high place.

4 And d God met Balaam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the Lord put e a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus shalt thou speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, f and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse g me Jacob, and come, defy h Israel.

hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the Lord hath not de-

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall I not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let a me die the death a of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I a took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, p Must I not take heed to speak that which the Lord hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto q another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

14 ¶ And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of a Pisgah, and built r seven altars, and offered s a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the Lord yonder.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What a hath the Lord spoken?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise v up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zip-por:

19 God w is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repeat: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath x he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless, and he y hath blessed; and I cannot z reverse it.

21 He a hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the Lord b his God is with him, and the shout c of a king is among them.

25 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered, and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do!

27 ¶ And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place: peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Balaam prophesieth Israel's happiness.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at other times, 1 to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel abiding in his tents, according to their tribes; and the spirit of God came upon him.

3 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man 2 whose eyes are open hath said:

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of Lebanon which the carpenter planted, as cedars that grow beside the waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God shall pour him forth out of his bowels, as it were, and shall be as it were the fountain of his strength: he shall not

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies: and Israel shall dwell vanity.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations: but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses,
saying,

2 Avenge a the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou be gathered b unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge
the LORD of Midian.

4 I Of every tribe a thousand,
throughout all the tribes of Israel,
shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe,
them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to c blow, in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and d they slew all the males.

8 And e they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Re-kem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also,
the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took
all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they f burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, g
and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives,
and the prey, and the spoil unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains h of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the i battle.

15 And Moses said unto them,

Have ye saved all the women y alive!

16 Behold, these k caused the children of Israel, through the counsel l of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore n kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with o him.

18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever p hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all q that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified p with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And q ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey r that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide r the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation.

28 And levy a tribute s unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one t soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take u of their half, and give u unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave offering of the LORD.

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

37 And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.

38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as u the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred,

9 For when they went up unto the valley of Eschol, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and he swore, saying,

11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob ; because ^m they have not ² wholly followed me :

12 Save Caleb the son of Jephun-neh the Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun ; for they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them ⁿ wander in the wilderness forty years, until ^o all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD was consumed.

14 And behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase ^p of sinful men, to augment ^q yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ^r ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave ^s them in the wilderness ; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheep-folds here for our cattle, and cities
for our little ones :

17 But we ^t ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place : and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We ^u will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance :

19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward ; because ^v our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 ¶ And ^w Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD
to war,

21 And will go all of you armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his enemies
from before him,

22 And the land be subdued ^x before the LORD ; then afterward ^y ye shall return and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel :
and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin z will find you out.

24 Build a you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy b servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:

27 But c thy servants will pass over, every man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And d Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you: then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours.

33 And e Moses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, f the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon, g and Ataroth, and Aroer, h 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jazer, and Jogobah, 36 And Beth-nimrah, k and Beth-haran, fenced l cities: and folds for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, m and Elealeh, and Kirjathaim, 38 And Nebo, n and Baal-meon, o (their names being changed,) and Subinath: and p gave other p names unto the cities which they builded.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan; (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan, with the coasts thereof:)

3 Then a your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin, along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea b eastward:

15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sun-rising.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Eight and forty cities given to the Levites: 6 six of them to be cities of refuge. 9 The laws concerning murder.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

2 Command a the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in: and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs b of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward, a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the man-slayer, that he may flee thither: and <sup>1</sup> to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight d cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession e of the children of Israel: from f them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance which <sup>2</sup> he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When g ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

11 Then h ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person <sup>3</sup> at unawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; <sup>4</sup> that the man-slayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give, six k cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give three l cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, m and for the sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him with <sup>4</sup> throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand-weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The o revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him of hatred, p or hurt at him by laying q of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm;

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed <sup>5</sup> with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; <sup>6</sup> he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest, but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for statute of t judgment unto you throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, <sup>7</sup> murderer shall be put to death the mouth of witnesses: u but witness shall not testify against person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is <sup>6</sup> guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it <sup>5</sup> defileth the land: and <sup>7</sup> the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but <sup>6</sup> by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not <sup>8</sup> therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for <sup>1</sup> ye the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

Moses' speech rehearsing the story of God's promise. 19 Of sending the spies to search the land.

THESE be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel on his side Jordan, in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red sea, between Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Hazahab.

2 (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, unto Kadesh-barnea.)

3 And it came to pass in the fourth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them :

4 After he had slain B Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei :

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare his law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, c saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount :

7 Turn d you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto e all the places which thereto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the mth, and by the sea-side, to the end of the Canaanites, and unto Ebron, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have h set the land before you : go in and possess the land which the LORD swore i unto our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them, and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am j not able to bear on myself alone :

10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are k this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The LORD h God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you !)

12 How i can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife !

13 ¶ Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took k the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, and l made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge i righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger m that is with him.

17 Ye shall not n respect persons in judgment : but ye shall hear the small as well as the great : ye shall not be o afraid of the face of man ; for the p judgment is God's : and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

19 ¶ And when we departed from Horeb, we went q through all that great and terrible wilderness r which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us ; and we came s to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee : go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee ; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me

every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And they turned, and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Whither shall we go now? our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller than we, the cities are great and walled up to heaven: and, moreover, we have seen the sons of the z Anakims there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God, which goeth before you, he y shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare z thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the LORD your God,

20 Moses' prayer to enter into the land: 27 he is permitted to see it.

THEN we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and a Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. b

2 And the LORD said unto me, c Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon d king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, e the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside f a wall of towns a great many.

6 And g we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But g all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;

7 For k what nation is there so great, who hath God so high unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And l what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and m keep thy soul diligently, lest a thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach o them thy sons, and thy sons' sons:

10 Specially the day p that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear q me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the r midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; 2 only ye heard a voice. r

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, *e*ven s ten commandments; and he t wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And u the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take v ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; (for ye saw no manner of similitude u on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:)

16 Lest ye corrupt x yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness y of male or female.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, d as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore e the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed f unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God, is a consuming fire, g given a jealous God.

25 ¶ When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger;

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whitherunto ye go over Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong h your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And i there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But j if from thence thou shalt see the LORD thy God, thou shalt not k him, if thou seek him with all l thy heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things have come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31 For the LORD thy God is a jealous God: he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of the fathers, which he swore unto them.

32 For m now of the days that are past, when ye were before thee, since thou wast a God-created man upon the earth, and ask from the heavens of heaven unto the other,

whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, s as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, t by signs, u and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty v hand, and by a stretched-out w arm, and by great terrors, x according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God: there is none else beside him.

36 Out of heaven y he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he z loved thy fathers, therefore he chose thee seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

2 The LORD our God made a a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, b even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 The LORD c talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the midst of the fire.

11 Thou k shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

12 Keep l the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.

13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work;

14 But the seventh day is the m sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy man-servant n and thy maid-servant may rest as well as thou.

15 And remember a that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence, through a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

16 ¶ Honour p thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee: that thy days q may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

17 Thou shalt not r kill.

18 Neither shalt thou commit s adultery.

19 Neither shalt thou t steal.

20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness u against thy neighbour.

21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet v thy neighbour's house, his field, or his man-servant, or his maid-servant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.

22 ¶ These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more; and w wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And x it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he y liveth.

These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 Thou t shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well remember u what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt:

19 The great temptations v which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so w shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover, the LORD thy God will send the hornet x among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty y God and terrible.

22 And the LORD thy God will z put out those nations before thee by z little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them 4 unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he shall deliver their a kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from b under heaven: there shall c no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn d with fire: thou shalt not desire e the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be f snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither g shalt thou bring an abomination unto thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed h thing.

8 Also o in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you, to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I p abode in the mount forty days and forty nights ; I neither did eat bread nor drink water.

10 And the q LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone, written with the finger of God ; and on them ~~was written~~ according to all the words which the LORD spake with you in the r mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence ; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves ; they are quickly t turned aside out of the way which I commanded them ;
they have made them a molten
image.

13 Furthermore, the LORD spake u unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked v people :

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot w out their name from under heaven : and x I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So y I turned, and came down from the mount, and z the mount burned with fire : and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf : ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands,
and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I a fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights : I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD,
to provoke him to anger.

19 (For I was afraid b of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you.) But c the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And d I took your sin, e the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, f and at g Massah, and at Kibroth-hattavah, h ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when i the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and k ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious l against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus m I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down of the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed n therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people, and o thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: look not unto the stubbornness p of this people, nor to their wickedness, q nor to their sin.

28 Lest the land r whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to this land, to this wilderness.

29 Yet thou, O Lord God, art merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and great in mercy, and thou wilt not forsake them, neither wilt thou break thy promise unto them.

30 And the LORD said unto me, I have heard thy prayer, and have seen thee, and will do as thou sayest.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, say unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I have seen thee, and have heard thy prayer.

32 And the LORD said unto me, I will do as thou sayest: and I will be gracious unto this people, and will not break my promise unto them.

33 And the LORD said unto me, I will be gracious unto this people, and will not break my promise unto them.

34 And the LORD said unto me, I will be gracious unto this people, and will not break my promise unto them.

35 And the LORD said unto me, I will be gracious unto this people, and will not break my promise unto them.

you this day, that ye may be strong,
and go in and possess the land,
whither ye go to possess it:

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where e thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God a careth for: are the eyes d
of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year
even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to f love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That g I will give you the rain
of your land in his due season, the h
first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn,
and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 And i I will a send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat k and be full.

16 Take heed l to yourselves,
that your heart m be not deceived,
and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath a be kindled against you and he shut o up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and best ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 ¶ Therefore shall ye lay up p
these my words in your heart and in your soul, and q bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And r ye shall teach them
your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house,
and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the door-posts of thine
house, and upon thy gates:

21 That s your days may be mul-tplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD
swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days t of heaven upon
the earth.

22 ¶ For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be your's: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea, shall your coast be.

25 There y shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 ¶ Behold, I have set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day;

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the campaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER XII.

2 Monuments of idolatry are to be destroyed. 16, 23 Blood is forbidden.

THESE are the statutes and judgments which ye shall observe to do in the land which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possess served

6 ¶ If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, i which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand n shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of 2 bondage.

1 God's children are not to disguise themselves in mourning. 3 What may be eaten.

Y are the children a of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut b yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead:

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch q their dead carcase.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days ; neither f shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day of even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not g sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee :

7 And thou shalt roast i and eat it in the place i which the LORD thy God shall choose : and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread : and on the seventh k day shall be a l solemn assembly to the LORD thy God : thou shalt do no work therein.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with n a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according m as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee :

12 And o thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt : and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 ¶ Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles p seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy q corn and thy wine :

18 And it shall be when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19 And y it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn z not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong a his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 The Lord is the priests' and Levites' inheritance. 3 The priests' due. 15 Christ the prophet is to be heard.

THE priests a the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings b of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among thy brethren: the c LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 ¶ And this d shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer u sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep: and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The first-fruit e also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him f out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 ¶ And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where g he sojourneth, and come with all the h desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions: to eat, beside 1 that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 ¶ When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 There k shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch.

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD: and because of these abominations l the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee.

13 Thou shalt be 2 perfect with the LORD thy God.

14 For these nations, which thou shalt 3 possess, hearkened unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the LORD thy God hath not suffered m these to do.

15 ¶ The LORD thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet a from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him o ye shall hearken.

CHAPTER XX.

The priest's exhortation to encourage the people to battle.

WHEN thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, a and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach, and speak unto the people.

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel: ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts <sup>1</sup> faint, fear not,
and do not <sup>2</sup> tremble, neither be ye terrified b because of them;

4 For c the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart faint as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 ¶ When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the

Jebusites, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them; for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is man's life) to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it be subdued.

CHAPTER XXI.

18 A stubborn son is to be stoned to death. 22 The malefactor must not hang all night on a tree.

1 If one be found slain in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither sown nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley;

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near: for them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried;

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou put away

guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 ¶ When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive,

11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, y and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife;

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave h her head, and a pare her nails;

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her i father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go into her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not k sell her at any for money; thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled i her.

15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one beloved, m and another hated, n and they have born him children; both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be her's that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before o the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that h hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right g of the firstborn is his.

18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey r the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened s him, will not hearken unto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say unto the i elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey u our voice; he is a glutton, v and a drunkard.

21 And w all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: x so shalt thou put evil away from among you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Of humanity toward brethren.

5 Divers laws. 20, 22 Of adultery.

25 Of rape. 28 Of fornication.

30 Of incest.

THOU a shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide b thyself from them; thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise; thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 ¶ Thou c shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them; thou shalt surely help him to lift d them up again.

5 ¶ The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination e unto the LORD thy God.

6 ¶ If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones f or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam g with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; that h it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong i thy days.

8 ¶ When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, k that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence.

9 ¶ Thou l shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the i fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of th vineyard, be defiled.

10 ¶ Thou shalt not plow

with an ox and an ass together.
11 ¶ Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

12 ¶ Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

13 ¶ If any man take a wife, and cop in unto her, and hate her,
14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her,

17 And lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid: and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man, and chastise him;

19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and he shall be his wife; or he may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that they die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shall thou put evil away from among you.

22 ¶ If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; so shall thou put away evil from Israel.

23 ¶ If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and catch her:

24 Then they shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and shall stone them with stones: and thou shalt hear, the damsel, because she was not found in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife: so y thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 ¶ But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

28 ¶ If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found:

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife: because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

30 ¶ A man shall not take his father's wife, nor discover his father's skirt.

CHAPTER XXIII.

9 Unlawfulness to be avoided in the host. 19 Of usury. 21 Of vows. 21 Of trespasses.

He that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2 A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever:

4 Because e they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia to curse thee.

5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam: but the LORD thy God turned the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou shalt not seek thee peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 ¶ Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite, for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egypti-

because thou hast wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

9 ¶ When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep thee from every wicked thing.

10 ¶ If there be among you any man that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp :

11 But it shall be, when evening cometh on, he shall wash himself with water : and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 ¶ Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad :

13 And thou shalt have a pad upon thy weapon ; and it shall be when thou wilt ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith and shalt turn back and cover that which cometh from thee :

14 For the LORD thy God watcheth in the midst of thy camp, deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee ; therefore shall thy camp be holy : that he see no unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee.

15 ¶ Thou shalt not deliver unto his master the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee :

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates where it liketh him best : thou shalt not oppress him.

17 ¶ There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow : for even both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 ¶ Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother : usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury :

20 Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury ; but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury : that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 ¶ When thou shalt vow a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it : for the LORD thy God will surely require

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Of divorce. 6, 10 Of pledge

7 Of man-stealers. 34 The h

19 Of charity.

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorcement, and give it in his hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband be her, and write her a bill of divorcement, and give it to her, and sendeth her out of his house, or if the latter husband die, who took her to be his wife ;

4 Her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled ; for that is abomination before the LORD ; and thou shalt not cause the land to do which the LORD thy God give thee for an inheritance.

5 ¶ When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go to war, neither shall he be charged with any business : but he shall be at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

6 ¶ No man shall take the yeth or the upper millstone to pledge for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

7 ¶ If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him ; then that thief shall die ; and thou shalt put a evil away from among you.

8 ¶ Take heed in the pl

leprosy, h that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you : as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do.

9 Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam i by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.

10 ¶ When thou dost lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge :

13 In k any cause thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment and bless thee ; and it shall be m righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates :

15 At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it : for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it : lest he cry n against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.

16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers : every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

17 ¶ Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless ; p nor take the widow's raiment to pledge :

18 But q thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence : therefore I command thee to do this thing.

19 ¶ When r thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it : it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow : that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hands.

20 When thou beatest thine olive-tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again : it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it s afterward : it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

Of offering the first fruits. DEUTERONOMY, XXVI

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not have in thy bag <sup>4</sup> divers weights, a great and a small.

14 Thou shalt not have in thine house <sup>5</sup> divers measures, a great and a small.

15 But <sup>6</sup> thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16 For all <sup>7</sup> that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

17 ¶ Remember what Amalek did unto thee by the way, when were come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met thee by the way and smote <sup>8</sup> the hindmost of thine rear all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint a weary; and he feared <sup>9</sup> not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot <sup>10</sup> out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

CHAPTER XXVI

The covenant between God and the people.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein;

2 That <sup>1</sup> a thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD swore unto our fathers for to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, A Syrian ready to perish <sup>2</sup> was my father; and <sup>3</sup> he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous:

CHAPTER XXVII.

The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the day a when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster :

3 And b thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey ; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be, when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal ; and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones ; thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 *T*h<sup>u</sup> shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones ; and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God.

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice d before the LORD thy God :

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law, very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites, spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel : This e day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God.

10 *T*h<sup>u</sup> shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments, and his statutes, which I command thee thus say :

1 The blessings for obedience. 15 The curses for disobedience.

AND it shall come to pass, if a <sup>1</sup> thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe <sup>2</sup> and to do all his commandments which I command <sup>3</sup> thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high <sup>4</sup> above all the nations of the earth :

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: thou shalt come out against thee in way, and flee before thee in ways.

8 The LORD shall command & blessing upon thee in thy cities, houses, and in all that thou sett thine hand unto: and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto him as he hath sworn unto thee, thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, & walk in his ways.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee.

11 And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasures, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath: if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover, all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till b thou be destroyed: because thou hearkenest not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee.

46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign c and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

48 Therefore f shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, g and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron h upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

49 The LORD shall bring a i nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as k swift as the eagle flieth, a nation whose tongue thou shalt not l understand;

50 A nation is of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favour to the young:

51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52 And he shall besiege m thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustest, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And thou shalt eat n the fruit of thine own 14 body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall o be evil toward his brother, and toward the p wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her <sup>15</sup> young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children <sup>7</sup> which she shall bear: for she shall eat <sup>7</sup> them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58 If thou wilt not observe to all the words of this law that is written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful <sup>1</sup> name, <sup>1</sup> THE LORD thy GOD;

59 Then the LORD will make plagues wonderful, and plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD <sup>16</sup> bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldst not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you a good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy <sup>7</sup> you and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65 And <sup>1</sup> among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest; but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind.

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt

2 An exhortation to obedience. 29

cret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of

covenant, which the LORD

commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land

Mosab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto

Israel, and said unto them,

have seen all that the LORD hath done before your eyes in the land

Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto

his servants, and unto all his land.

3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and

those great miracles:

4 Yet the LORD hath not given

you an heart to perceive, and eyes

to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

5 And I have led you forty years

in the wilderness: your cloths are not waxen old upon you, neither

is your shoe worn, neither is your foot bare.

6 Ye have not eaten bread, neither

have ye drunk wine, neither strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.

7 And when ye came unto the place, Sihon king of the Amorites,

and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us, and we fought with them, and smote them:

8 And we took their land, and gave

it to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites,

to the half tribe of Manasseh.

9 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you

before the LORD your God; ye are

captains of your tribes, your elders,

and your officers, with all the men

of Israel.

11 Your little ones, your women,

and your stranger that is in your

camp, from the beaver of thy water

unto the drawer of thy water.

12 That thou shouldst <sup>1</sup> enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, <sup>m</sup> which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may establish <sup>n</sup> thee to day for a people unto himself, and <sup>that</sup> he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said <sup>o</sup> unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, <sup>p</sup> to Isaac, <sup>q</sup> and to Jacob. <sup>r</sup>

14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath:

15 But <sup>s</sup> with <sup>him</sup> that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with <sup>him</sup> that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their <sup>2</sup> idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which <sup>were</sup> among them:)

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth <sup>3</sup> gall and wormwood: <sup>u</sup>

19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the <sup>4</sup> imagination of mine heart, to add <sup>5</sup> drunkenness <sup>v</sup> to thirst:

20 The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger <sup>w</sup> of the LORD and his jealousy <sup>x</sup> shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall be upon him, and the LORD shall blot out <sup>y</sup> his name from under heaven.

21 And the LORD shall separate <sup>z</sup> him unto evil out of all the tribes of Israel according to all the curses of the covenant that <sup>6</sup> are written in this book of the law:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses <sup>7</sup> which the LORD hath had upon it:

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew <sup>c</sup> in his anger and in his wrath.

7 ¶ And Moses called unto Joshua,

and said unto him in the sight of all

Israel, Be k strong and of a good

8 And the LORD, he f it is that doth

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this law,

and delivered u it unto the priests

the sons of Levi, which bare the

ark of the covenant of the LORD,

and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven

nacles,

11 When all Israel is come to g appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose,

thou shalt r read this law before all

Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather s the people together, men, and women, and children, and

thy stranger that is within thy gates,

that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that their children, t which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: u call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. v And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And w the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise x up and go a whoring y after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I z will forsake them, and I will hide a my face from them, and they shall be devoured, a i many evils and troubles shall b befall them, so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not b among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat: then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when d many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify e against them as a witness: for p shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they q go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swear.

24 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,

25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there f for a witness against thee.

29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt k conscience, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you: and evil l will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

selves being judges:

32 For their vine is ¹⁴ of the vine i of Sodom, k and of the fields of Gomorrah: their grapes are grapes
of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their wine is the poison l of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps. m

34 Is not this laid up n in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

35 To me o belongeth vengeance, and recompense; their foot p shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, q and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For the LORD shall judge his people, and repent r himself for his servants, when he seeth that their ¹⁴ power is gone, and there is none shut up, or left.

37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted,

38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings! let them rise up and help you, and be ¹⁶ your protection.

39 See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I will kill, and I will make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

44 ¶ And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and ¹⁸ Hoshea the son of Nun.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words unto all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you: because it is your life: and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whether ye go over Jordan to possess it.

48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that self-same day, saying,

49 Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, whence is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho: and behold the land of Canaan which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest: up, and be gathered unto thy people: as Aaron thy brother died in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye sanctified me not in the midst of the children of Israel.

CHAPTER I.

The Lord appointeth Joshua to succeed Moses.

NOW after the death of Moses, the servant of the LORD, it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, b saying,

2 Moses my servant is dead: now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, c even to the children of Israel.

3 Every c place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you as I said unto Moses.

4 From d the wilderness and this Lebanon even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 There e shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as f I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I g will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for I unto this people shall thou divide for an inheritance the land which I swear unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be h thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper: whithersoever thou goest.

8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate thereon day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to it: that as written therein, thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee to be strong and of a good courage? be not afraid, neither be thou discouraged: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for m within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, n The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren o armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD'S servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sun-rising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saying, All p that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as q he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever r be that doth rise up against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he s shall be put to death: only t be strong and of a good courage.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you: wherefore the name of the place is called <sup>4</sup> Gilgal unto this day.

10 ¶ And I the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the month at even, in the plains of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes and parched corn in the self-same day.

12 ¶ And the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; so that they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 ¶ And it came to pass when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood a man <sup>p</sup> over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Ni called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD. 7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass before the ark of the LORD.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the ² rereward came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any of us proceed out of your mouth, on the day I bid you shout, then shall ye shout.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on the seventh day they compassed the city seven times.

7 And Joshua said, Alas! O Lord God, wherefore h hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what i shall I say, when Israel turneth their 9 backs before their enemies!

12 Therefore q the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: r neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify s yourselves against to-morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according t to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the u LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought v folly in v Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarahites: and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession x unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done, hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done:

21 When I saw y among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a z wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted z them, and took a them, and behold, they are hid b in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

1 God encourageth Joshua. 3 The stratagem whereby Ai was taken.

30 Joshua buildeth an altar, 34 propoundeth blessings and cursings.

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: only the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 ¶ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall lie c in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass when they come out against us, at the first, d that we will flee before them.

the people, even the king that were with him, drew nigh, and came, and pitched on the Ai: now there was a trench about them and Ai.

About five thousand men to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of the city.

They had set the people host that was on the west of the city, and their front that night into the valley.

He came to pass when he saw it, that they rose up early, and the king went out against him, he and all his army appointed, before the king: he saw not that there was an ambush against him.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them: so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew I not his hand back wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua.

28 And Joshua burnt Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation, unto this day.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until even-tide: and as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and cast it at the entering of the gate of the city, and raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.

30 ¶ Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal.

31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

32 ¶ And e he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which w bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger x as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded y before, that they should bless the people of Israel.

34 And afterward he read z all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that 5 were conversant among them.

3 The Gibeonites, by craft, obtain a league.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the h Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite heard thereof.

2 That they gathered c themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.

3 ¶ And when the inhabitants of d Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai.

4 They did work wisely, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gidai, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country: now therefore make e a league with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the g Hivites, Perizzites, y dwell among us; and how shall we make a league h with you?

8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. i And Joshua said unto them, Whence are ye? and 12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still & upon Gibeon, and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of 3 Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and lasted not to a go down about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought o for Israel.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear: not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies at a net when ye fight.

26 And at evening Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time when they were hanging down from the trees, that the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, and the day was prolonged unto evening.

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, c and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor d on the west.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand h that is upon the sea-shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and smote together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be: not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough k their horses, l and burn their chariots m with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD o delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto 2 great Zidon, and unto 3 Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward: and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt q their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not 4 any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

17 Even from t the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Beal-gad, in the valley of Lebnor under mount Hermon: and all the kings u he took, and smote them and slew them.

18 Joshua made war v a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel save the Hivites, w the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took to be battle.

20 For it was of x the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD z commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua and cut off the a Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gath, c and in Ashdod, c there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land according to all that the LORD said d unto Moses, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions e by their tribes. And the land rested f from war.

CHAPTER XII.

The one and thirty kings on the other side Jordan which Joshua smote.

NOW these are the kings of h land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed i land on the other side Jordan ward the rising of the sun:

the river Arnon a unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east:

2 Sihon b king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Arer, which a upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which a the border of the children of Ammon:

3 And from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea on the east, the way to Beth-jeshmoth; and from a the south, under a Ash-beth-pisgah:

4 a And the coast of Og c king of Bashan, even the coast of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt c at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Saicah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites, and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

7 a And these a the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Bael-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Hermon, that goeth up to Sair; when Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel a for a possession according to the divisions:

8 In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the b Gittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

CHAPTER XIII.

2 The bounds of the land not yet conquered. 22 Balazam slain.

23 Tow Joshua was old and stricken in years; and the Lord said unto him, Thou art old and stricken in years, and there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed.

2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the borders of the Philistines, and all Geshur, &

3 From Sihor, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Canaanite: five d lords of the Philistines; the Gazathites, and the Ashdodites, the Ekhalontes, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the e Avites:

4 From the south all the land of the Canaanites, and 2 Meunah that is beside the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the Gittites, & all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Bael-gad under mount Hermon unto the entering into Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill country, from Lebanon unto Mes-rephoth-maim, & all the Sidonians, them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only m divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded thee.

7 Now then n divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families,
the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh;
and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And f their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the Kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and in Bashan, threescore cities;

ing unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by 32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the land of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But i unto the tribe of Levi
Moses gave not any inheritance;
the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said k unto them.

CHAPTER XIV.

Catch by privilege absterth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Elenzar a the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot b was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan; but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were c
two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim;
therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs e
for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As f the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did,
and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb p the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said h unto Moses the man i of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent k me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was l in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people m melt: but I wholly followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon o thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said, p these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel q wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as q my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to r go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day: for thou heardest in that day how s the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if t so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

13 And Joshua blessed u him and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenazite unto this day; because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; u which Arba x was a great man among the Anakims. And y the land had rest from war.

3 And it went out to the south side to 2 Maadish-acrabim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hebron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkas.

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan: and their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to c Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, e and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, f that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at g En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom h unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is i Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants k northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill unto the fountain l of the water of Nephtoth, and went out to the cities of mount Ephron; and the border was drawn to Baalah, m which is Kirjath-jearim: a

10 And the border compassed from Baalah westward unto mount Seir, and passed along unto the side of mount Jearim (which is Chesalon) on the north side, and went down to Beth-shemesh, and passed on to Timnah: o

11 And the border went out unto the side of Ekron p northward: and the border was drawn to Shimon, and passed along to mount Baalah, and went out unto Jahmel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the g great sea, and the coast thereto. This is the coast of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.

13 ¶ And unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, even ² the city of Arba the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the r three sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the inhabitants of Debir: s and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.

16 ¶ And Caleb said, He t that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son u of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came *w*ith him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she e lighted off her ass; and Caleb sat unto her, What wouldest thou? 19 Who answered, Give me a w blessing; for thou hast given me a south land, give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the coast of Edom southward, were Kabzeel, and Eder, and Jagur, 22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adadah.

55 Maon, u Carmel, v and Zaph, and Juttah,

56 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah,

57 Cam, Gibeah, and Timnah; ten cities with their villages:

59 And Murrath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon; six cities with their villages:

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The general borders of the sons of Joseph, 5 and of Ephraim.

AND the lot of the children of Joseph ¹ fell from Jordan by Jericho, unto the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el.

2 And goeth out from Beth-el to a Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Archi to Ataroth.

3 And goeth down westward to the coast of Japhlet, unto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gezer : and the goings out thereof are at the sea.

4 So ^d the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 ¶ And the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus : even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper ;

6 And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethah ^e on the north side ; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shilo, and passed by it on the east to Janohah ;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tappuah westward unto the river ^f Kanah ; and the goings out thereof were at the sea : This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And ^g they drive not out the Canaanites that dwell in Gezer : but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAPTER XVII.

The lot of Manasseh.

THIS ^h lot was : for a lot for the tribe of Manasse at for he was the first born ⁱ of Joseph : to wit, for Manasse the first born of Manasse, the father of Gilead : because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasse by their families : for the children of Machir, and for the children of Aser, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Joseph, and for the children of Shemuda : these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But Zelophehad, the son of Ephraim, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters : and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hegliah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses ^f to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan :

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons : and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 ¶ And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, ^g that lieth before Shechem ; and the border went along on the right hand, unto the inhabitants of Ectappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah ; but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the coast descended unto the ^h river Kanah, southward of the river. These cities ⁱ of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh the coast of Manasseh, also was on the north side of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the sea :

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border ; and they met together in Ashtar on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And ^j Manasse had, in Issachar, and in Ashtar, Beth-ein and her towns, and the inhabitants of Beth-ein and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Ramoth and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet ^k the children of Manasse could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities ; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute ; ^l but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed p me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the 3 giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, q both they who are of Beth-shean r and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have lot only:

18 But the mountain shall I give thee; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanite though they have iron chariots, as though they be strong.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, a and set up the tabernacle b of the congregation there: and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye slack c to go to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise and go d through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah e shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of f Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast g lots for you here before the LORD our God.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the b entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city,

they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place,

that he may dwell c among them.

5 And if the avenger d of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him

not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city

until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 ¶ And they appointed Kedesh e in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem f in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arba g (which is Hebron) in the mountain h of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer i in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth k in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan l in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed m for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he n stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER XXI

Eight and forty cities given unto the Levites.

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

2 And they spake unto them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, the LORD commanded c by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath e had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon f had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the 8 And the children of Israel gave h by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here i mentioned by name.

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they j gave them k the city of Arba the father h of Anak, (which city is Hebron) in the hill l country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it.

12 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, gave they to Caleb m the son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 ¶ Thus n they gave to the children of Aaron the priest Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Libnah with her suburbs.

14 And Juttir with her suburbs, and Eshtemoa with her suburbs.

18 Anathoth with her suburbs, and Almon r with her suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 ¶ And the families of the children of Kohath, s the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with her suburbs.

dren of Israel were forty and eight y cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities.

43 ¶ And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he swore e to give unto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein.

44 And a the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers: and b
there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 There c failed not aught of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel;
all came to pass.

CHAPTER XXII.

The two tribes and half with a blessing are sent home.

THEN Joshua called the Reu-benites, and the Gailites, and the half tribe of Manasseh,

2 And said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses a the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that
b he commanded you:

3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God.

4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you c on the other side Jordan.

5 But take d diligent heed to do
the commandment and the law,
which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to e love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave f unto him, and to serve g him with all your heart and with all your soul.

6 So Joshua blessed h them, and sent them away; and they went unto their tents.

7 ¶ Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given possession in Bashan: but i unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed
them,

8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches k unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment; divide l the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

9 ¶ And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead. m to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 ¶ And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar n to see to.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel heard o say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard o, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh into the land of Gilead, p Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each l chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head q of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 ¶ And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, no to the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass u *th*at ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel r this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of Peor s too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? and t it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be w *w*roth with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, v and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not Achan w the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh answered and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD God x of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, y and Israel z he shall know; if it be in rebellion, a or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day.)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering, or meat offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require b it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, in time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad: ye c have no part in the LORD. So shall your children make our children cease d from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a witness e between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD before f him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern g of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacri-

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Joshua assemblth the tribes at Shechem. 11 He renewth a covenant between them and God.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called a for the elders of Israel, and for their heads and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented b themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers c dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor; and they served other gods.

3 And I took d your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him e Isaac.

4 And f I gave unto Isaac, Jacob and Esau; and I gave unto Esau g mount Seir, to possess it; but Jacob h and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued i Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt; and k ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt; and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwell on the other side Jordan; and m they fought with you; and I leave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose, and warred against Israel, and sent n and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 But o I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And p ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men

12 And I sent the hornet r before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but not s with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given t you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities u which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 ¶ Now v therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity v and in truth; and put away x the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose y you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but z as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods:

17 For the LORD our God, he is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwell in the land: therefore b will we also serve the LORD; for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot c serve the LORD: for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; he f will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If g ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after h that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye i are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen k you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

8 Now the children of Judah hadg taken it, and smitten it with the 9 ¶ And afterward h the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in 10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in i Hebron:

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 ¶ And the children of the manite, Moses' father-in-law, went up out of the city of palm-trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of the Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the LORD was with Judah; and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to descry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was Luz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Show us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will show thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword: but they let go the man and all his family.

3 Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you ; but they shall be as thorns f in your sides, and their gods g shall be a snare h unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place i Bochim : and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And when i Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that 2 outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, k in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers : and there arose another generation after them, which knew l not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim :

12 And they forsook m the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed n themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 ¶ And the anger o of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered p them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold q them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever r they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them : and they were greatly distressed.

16 ¶ Nevertheless the LORD raised p judges, s which t delivered u them out of the hand of those that *u*ed them.

God's anger and pity to Israel.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring a after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them : they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD ; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then e the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge : (for it repented e the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.)

19 And it came to pass, when e the judge was dead, that they returned, and 2 corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them : they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 ¶ And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel ; and he said, Because g that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice ;

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died :

22 That through them I may prove z Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD, to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD 7 left those nations, without driving them out hastily ; neither delivered he them into the hands of Joshua.

CHAPTER III.

1 The nations which were left to prove Israel : 5 By communion with them, they commit idolatry.

NOW these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, (even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan :

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof.)

3 Namely, five a lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwell in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 ¶ And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And they took b their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim, and the groves.

8 ¶ Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of c Chushan-rishathaim king of 1 Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a 2 deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel e the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the Spirit f of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of 4 Mesopotamia into his hand: and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had rest forty years: and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the o city of palm-trees.

14 So the children of Israel served h Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, 2 a Benjamite, a man 6 left-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length: and he hid it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the 7 quarries that k were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him: and he was sitting in 9 a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone: and Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade: and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly: and 9 the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he 10 covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries l and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain u of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for the LORD hath delivered o your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all 11 lusty, and all men of valour: and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel: and the land had rest fourscore years.

31 ¶ And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with q an ox-goad: and he also delivered Israel r.

down from mount Tabor, and ten

15 And the LORD ^p discomfited
Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword
before Barak; ^q so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and ^r there was not ^s a man left.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 ¶ And ^t Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in,
my lord, turn in to me; fear not.
And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a ^u mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me,
I pray thee, a little water to drink;
for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, ^v and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and ^w took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, ^x and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came unto her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So ^y God sold him on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel ^z prospered and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER V.

The song of Deborah and Barak.

WHEN ^a sang Deborah and Barak
the son of Abinoam on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O

The song of

ye princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 LORD, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through by-ways.

7 The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

8 They chose new gods; then was war in the gates: was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the LORD.

10 Speak, ye that ride on white asses, ye that sit in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; after thee, Benjamin, among thy people: out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah: even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the sea-shore, and abode in his branches.

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardied their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo; they took no gain of money.

20 They fought from heaven: the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast a trodden down strength.

22 Then were the horse-hoofs broken by the means of the pransings, the pransings of their mighty ones.

23 Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the LORD, curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

24 Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be; blessed shall she be above women in the tent.

25 He asked water, and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed there he fell down dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself,

30 Have thy not sped? have they not divided the prey: to every man a damsel or two; to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needlework, of divers colours of needlework on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil!

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O LORD: but let them that love him be as the sun at when he goeth forth in his night. And the land had rest forty years.

my Lord, if ¹ the LORD be with us,
why then is all this befallen us?
and where ² be all his miracles
which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, ³ and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites:
have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, ⁴ my family ⁵ is poor in Mamsech, and I am the least ⁶ of
in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, ⁷
Surely I will be with thee, and ⁸ thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now
I have found grace in thy sight, then shew ⁹ me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart ¹⁰ not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my ¹¹ present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ And Gideon went in, and made ready ¹² a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put into a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth.
And he did so.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes;
and ¹³ there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord God!
for because ¹⁴ I have seen an angel
of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him,
Peace be unto thee; fear not:
thou shalt not die.

it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this rock, in ¹¹ the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him : and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing ? And when they enquired and asked, they said Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die : because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal ? will ye save him ? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning : if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him ¹² Jerubbaal, z saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

33 ¶ Then all y the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh ; who also was gathered after him : and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zabulon, and unto Naphtali ; and they came up to meet them.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men. And the host of Midian was beneath him in the valley.

9 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for g I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And A thou shalt hear i what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the armed men that were in the host.

12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like crashoppers k for multitude: and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea-side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake l of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 ¶ And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the 2 interpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put 2a a trumpet into every man's hand, with empty pitchers and 4 lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be, that as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side.

19 ¶ So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him, came on the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the middle watch; as they had but newly set on the watch, and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal, and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they stood p every man in his place round about the camp, and q all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the LORD s every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah t in Zererath, and to the border of Abel-meholash, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manassah, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 ¶ And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah u Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah v and Jordan.

25 And they took w two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; as they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the wine press of Zeeb, and pursued Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Peniel, saying, When I come again in peace, h I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell ^a an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 ¶ And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents, on the east of Nobah and Zebah, and smote the host: for the host was secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took l the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and ^a discomfited all the host.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at Tabor? o And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my brethren, even the sons of my mother: as the LORD liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I would not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength.

And Gideon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would give me every man the ear-rings of his prey. (For they had golden ear-rings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the ear-rings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden ear-rings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; beside ornaments, and collars, and purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the chains that were about their camels' necks.

27 And Gideon made an ephod thereof, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel went thither a whoring after it, which thing became a snare unto Gideon, and to his house.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then God sent a an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 That is the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them, and upon the men of Shechem, which aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is y Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And would a to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed, and his brethren, be come to Shechem; and behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt find occasion.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city; and shut it to them, and gathered up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to break his skull.

3 ¶ And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass-colls, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, who served not him.

7 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side of Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan, to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim: so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Zidonians, also, and the Moabites, and the Ammonites, I oppressed you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore will I deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 ¶ And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: thou art unto us whatsoever we pray thee, this day.

16 And they put away their strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled the selves together, and encamped at Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, We men be that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon, he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

and her towns, and in Arero<sup>y</sup> and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Ammon, three hundred years! why therefore did ye not recover them within that time!

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge: he judge a this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands,

31 Then it shall be, that whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them: and the LORD delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Arero even till thou come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with a timbrels and with dances: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth: forasmuch as the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, If this thing be done for me: Let

CHAPTER XII.

The Ephraimites quarrelling with Jephthah, and discerned by Shibboleth, are slain by the Gileadites.

AND the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put b my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay;

6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan. And there fell at that time of the Ephraimites four and two thousand.

CHAPTER XV.

Samson burneth the Philistines' corn with foxes and firebrands.

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore ^a I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? ¹ take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

3 ¶ And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be ² more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took ³ firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn ^b of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 ¶ Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt ^c her and her father with fire.

7 ¶ And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter. And he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etnah.

9 ¶ Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah and spread themselves in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him: as he hath done to us.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 ¶ And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and <sup>g</sup> the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords <sup>h</sup> that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his hands <sup>i</sup> loosed from off his bands.

16 And Samson said, With the jaw-bone of an ass, <sup>k</sup> heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jaw-bone out of his hand, and called that place <sup>l</sup> Ramath-lehi.

18 ¶ And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance unto the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised!

19 But God clave an hollow place that was in <sup>m</sup> the jaw, and there came <sup>n</sup> water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again, <sup>o</sup> and he revived. Wherefore he called the name thereof, En-hakkore, which <sup>p</sup> is in Lehi unto this day.

said, Our god hath delivered Sam-him, they praised n their god: for they said, Our God hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country; <sup>13</sup> which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, o that they said, Call for Samson that he may make us p sport. And they called for Samson out of the prisonhouse; and he made <sup>14</sup> them

sport : and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women : and all the lords of the Philistines were there : and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called q unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, remember r me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and <sup>15</sup> on which it was borne up, of the one with his right, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let <sup>16</sup> me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might ; and the house s fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between t Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly dedicated the silver unto the LORD from my hand for my son, to make d a graven image, and a molten image ; now therefore I will restore it unto thee.

4 Yet he restored the money unto his mother ; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and e gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image : and they were in the house of Micah.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The Danites send five men to seek out an inheritance.

IN a those days there was no king in Israel : and in those days the tribe of the Danites b sought them an inheritance to dwell in : for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men <sup>1</sup> of valour, from Zorah, c and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it ; and they said unto them, Go, search the land : who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite : and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither ? and what maketh thou in this place ? and what hast thou here ?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealt Micah with me, their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

30 ¶ And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manassah, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Micah's graven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAPTER XIX.

A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife.

AND it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there four whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, a having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son-in-law, Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father-in-law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they turned until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night: behold, the day is growth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to-morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go home.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus, which is Jerusalem: and there were with him two asses saddled; his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in unto this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to Gibeath.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeath or in G Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them when they were by Gibeath, which belongeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned aside thither, to go in and to lodge in Gibeath: and when he went in, he set him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodge.

16 ¶ And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was also of mount Ephraim; and he sojourned in Gibeath; but the men of the place were Benjamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah toward the side of mount Ephraim: from thence am I: and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to the house of the LORD; and there is no man that receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, Peace be with thee; howsoever, let all thy wants be upon me; only lodge out in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they washed their feet o and did eat and drink.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their hearts p merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons q of Belial, beset r the house round about, and beat at the door, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth s the man that came into thine house, that we may know him.

23 And the man, the master of the house, went out unto them, and said unto them, Nay, my brethren, uay, I pray you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not this folly t.

24 Behold, here is my daughter, a maiden, and his concubine; them I will bring out now, and humble u ye therein, and do with them what seemeth good unto you: but unto this man do not 11 so vile a thing.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: so the man took his concubine, and brought her forth unto them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 ¶ And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided v her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coast of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider to of it, take advice, x and speak your minds.

even of all the tribes of Israel, p sented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that d drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) T said the children of Israel, Tell how was this e wickedness?

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came f into Beah that belongeth to Benjamin and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah h against me, and beset the road round about upon me by night, i thought to have slain me: and concubine have they 2 forced, t she is dead.

6 And g I took my concubine, i cut her in pieces, and sent i throughout all the country of inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly h Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel: give i here your advice o counsel.

8 ¶ And all the people arose one man, saying, We will not a of us go to his tent, neither will any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the which we will do to Gibeah, we go up by lot against it;

10 And we will take ten men of hundred throughout all the tribe of Israel, and an hundred of the sand, and a thousand out of a thousand, to fetch victual for a people, that they may do, while they come to Gibeah of Benjamin according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, a k together as one man.

12 ¶ And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us t men, i the children of Belial, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away m evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together c of the cities unto Gibeah, to go to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time o the cities twenty and six thou-men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men a left-handed; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and went o up to the house of God, and asked p counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed q down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And r the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed s down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 ¶ Then t all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, u and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel enquired of the LORD, (for v the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And Phinehas, w the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood x before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against 29 And Israel set liers z in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, a and kill, as at other times, in the high-ways, of which one goeth up to b the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us see, and draw them from the city unto the high-ways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Beth-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but c they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place d to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hastened, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait e drew the bowels loose, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed f sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great g flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite h and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as at the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites look

6 ¶ Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab : for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread :

that was set over the reapers,
Whose damsel is this!

<sup>6</sup> And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

<sup>7</sup> And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers
among the sheaves: so she came,
and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried
a little in the house.

<sup>8</sup> Then said Boaz unto Ruth,
Heardest thou not, my daughter?
Go not to glean in another field, neither e go from hence, but abide
here fast by my maidens:

<sup>9</sup> Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged thee?
young men that they shall not touch f thee! and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

<sup>10</sup> Then she fell g on her face,
and bowed herself to the ground,
and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

<sup>11</sup> And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been showed me h all that thou hast done unto thy mother-in-law since the death of thine husband: and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD recompense i thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou k art
come l to trust.

<sup>13</sup> Then she said, <sup>2</sup> Let me find m favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken <sup>4</sup> friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

<sup>14</sup> And Boaz said unto her, At meal-time come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parched corn, and she did eat,
and was sufficed, and left n.

<sup>15</sup> And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and <sup>2</sup> reprove o her not.

<sup>16</sup> And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean
them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 ¶ And she took it up, and went unto the city: and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth, and gave to her that she had reserved after she was sufficed.

19 And her mother-in-law said unto her, Where hast thou gleaned to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be p he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to day is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said unto her daughter-in-law, Blessed q be he of the LORD, who hath not left off r his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin unto us, one 6 of our next kinsmen.

21 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou s shalt keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they 7 meet thee not in any other field.

23 So she kept t fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley-harvest and of wheat-harvest; and dwelt with her mother-in-law.

CHAPTER III.

1 By Naomi's instruction, 5 Ruth lieth at Boaz's feet.

THEN Naomi her mother-in-law said unto her, My daughter, shall a I not seek rest b for thee, that it may be well with thee?

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? c Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshing-floor.

3 Wash thyself therefore, and d anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down: and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.

5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.

6 ¶ And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, e he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.

8 ¶ And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and 2 turned himself: and behold, a woman lay at his feet.

9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid: spread f therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou art 3 a near kinsman.

10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter: for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, g inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the 4 city of my people doth know that thou art 5 a virtuous h woman.

12 And now, it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit, i there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part k of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as l the LORD liveth: he down until the morning.

14 ¶ And she lay at his feet until the morning: and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, m Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the 6 val that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me: for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother-in-law.

18 Then said she, Sit a still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

CHAPTER I.

Hannah having borne Samuel, presents him to the LORD.

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, a the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephrathite :

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah : and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city yearly b to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah offered, c he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons, and her daughters, portions :

5 But unto Hannah he gave a 2 worthy portion : for he loved Hannah : but d the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary also 2 provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, 1 when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her ; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou ? and why eatest thou not ? and why is thy heart grieved ? am not I better to thee than ten sons ?

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. (Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD :)

10 And she was 2 in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she vowed g a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt 13 Now Hannah, she spake heart ; only her lips moved, h voice was not heard : the Eli thought that she had drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, long wilt thou be drunken away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered no. No, my lord, I am a woman sorrowful spirit : I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, have I poured out my soul l the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid a daughter of Belial : for out of abundance of my 2 complaint grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and Go in peace : and the God of grant m thee thy petition that hast asked of him.

18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight : for woman went her way, an eat, n and her countenance 1 more sad.

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat to the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed,
Give flesh to roast for the priest;
for he will not have sdden flesh
of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him,
Let them not fail to burn the fat

as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before x the LORD: for men abhorred y the offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ But Samuel ministered be-

19 Moreover his mother made him
a little coat, and brought it to him

20 ¶ And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the a loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD visited b Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that a assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear b of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear; ye make the LORD's people to c transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him; but if a man sin against c the LORD, whod shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because e the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both f with the LORD, and also with men.

27 ¶ And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Did I plumb appear g unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did I choose him h out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I leave i unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore kick k ye at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded o in my habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel said, I said l indeed Put thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever, but now m the LORD saith, Be it far from me; for them n that honour me I will honour, and they that despise o me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 Behold, the days p come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

CHAPTER III.

How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel.

AND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word a of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see:

3 And ere the lamp b of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep:

4 That the LORD called Samuel, and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; he down again. And he went and lay down again.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; he down again.

7 ¶ Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, he down; and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the
ark of the covenant of the LORD
of hosts, which dwelleth a between the cherubims: b and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant
of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard
the noise of the shout, they said,
What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?
And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Wo unto us!
for there hath not been such a thing
2 heretofore.

8 Wo unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods! these are the Gods that smote
the Egyptians with all the plagues
in the wilderness.

9 Be c strong, and quit yourselves
like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as d they have been to you: 2 quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel e was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter,
for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; f and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, 7 were slain.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the array, and came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes rent, and with earth g upon his head.

13 And when he came, io, Eli sat
upon a seat by the way-side, watching: for h his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told i, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes 2 were dim,
that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army,
and I fled to day out of the army.

even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men; and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shemesh
said, Who z is able to stand before

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, b saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAPTER VII.

They of Kirjath-jearim bring the ark unto the house of Abinadab, to keep it.

AND the men of Kirjath-jearim came and fetched a up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of b Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified c Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD.

2 And it came to pass, while the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented d after the LORD.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return e unto the LORD with all your hearts, then put f away the strange gods and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare g your hearts unto the LORD, and serve him h only: and he i will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim k and Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only.

5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD.

6 And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured l it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there,

We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 ¶ And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD: and Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel: and the LORD heard him.

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel: but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them: and they were smitten before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-car.

12 Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpeh and Shen, and called the name of it, Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.

13 So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath: and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to Ramah: for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah.

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 ¶ But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, where-with they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maid-servants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, ⁶ I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant,
⁶ Well said; come, let us go: so they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up ⁷ the hill to the city, they found young maidens ^h going out to draw water,
and said unto them, Is the seer
here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city: for there is a ⁸ sacrifice i of the people to day in ^k the high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place
to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless l the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that be bidden.
Now therefore get you up; for about ⁹ this time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city, and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ Now the LORD had ¹⁰ told m
Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow, about this time, I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint a him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked o upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul,
the LORD said unto him, Behold
the man whom I spake to thee of!
this p same shall ¹¹ reign over my
people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and tomorrow I will let thee go, and will tell q thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses r that were lost ¹² three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire s of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest t of the tribes of Israel? and my family u the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou 13 so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the r shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is 14 left! set it before thee, and eat; for unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel continued with Saul upon the top x of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass, about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still 15 a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 Samuel anointed Saul. 2 He confirms him by prediction.

THEN a Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and b kissed him, and said, Is it not because the Lord hath anointed thee to be captain c over his inheritance 1 d?

2 When thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel's sepulchre e in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah: f and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, s one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will 2 salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill h of God, where is the garrison i of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high k place with a psaltery l and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy: m

6 And the Spirit n of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 And 3 let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, 4 that thou do as occasion serve thee: for God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; o and behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven p days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his 2 back to go from Samuel, God 6 gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold a company of prophets met him: and the Spirit of God came q upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him before-time saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said 7 one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is r Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one 8 of the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

Saul chosen at Mizpeh.

1 SAMUEL, XI.

Jabesh-gilead rescued.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together unto the LORD to Mizpeh; ²

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus ¹ saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities, and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD ² by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him he could not be found.

22 Therefore they enquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him hence: and when he stood among the people, he ² was higher than any of the people, from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen, that ¹ there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, ¹ God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went home to Gibeah; ² and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 ¶ But the children ² of Beniamin said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents. ² But he held his peace.

h Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make <sup>2</sup> a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, <sup>1</sup> Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if <sup>2</sup> there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.

4 ¶ Then came the messengers to <sup>2</sup> f Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said, What <sup>2</sup> aileth the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.

6 And <sup>2</sup> g the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces <sup>2</sup> h and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever <sup>2</sup> i cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out <sup>2</sup> with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, <sup>2</sup> k the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To-morrow, by <sup>2</sup> that time the sun be hot, ye shall have <sup>2</sup> l help. And the messengers came and shewed <sup>2</sup> l to the men of Jabesh; and <sup>2</sup> l they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow we will come out <sup>2</sup> m unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three <sup>2</sup> n companies: and they came into the midst of the host in the morning-watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? how the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There g shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought salvation r in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal: and there they renewed the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal: and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD: and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER XII.

Samuel testifieth his integrity.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said a unto me, and have made b a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed: and behold, my sons c are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that f ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 • And Samuel said unto the people, P is the LORD that 3 delivered Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

10 And as they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and a have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal, o and Bedan, and Jephthah, p and Samuel, q and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that r Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said unto me, Nay: but a king shall reign over us: when the LORD your God was your king.

13 Now therefore behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired: and behold, the LORD hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the e commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye, and also the king that reigneth over you 7 continue following the LORD your God:

17 Is it not wheat-harvest to day? I will e call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain: that ye may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the LORD: and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and x all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray q for thy servants: unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet z turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;

21 And turn ye not aside: for then should ye go after vain things, which a cannot profit nor deliver: for ye are vain: b

22 For the LORD will not forsake e his people for d his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the LORD to make you his people.

23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD <sup>2</sup> in ceasing to pray e for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

24 Only fear f the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider <sup>3</sup> how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both g ye and your king.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Saul's selected band: 3 He call-eth the Hebrews to Gilgal against the Philistines.

SAUL <sup>1</sup> reigned one year; and when he reigned two years over Israel.

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel: whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmas and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeon of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison b of the Philistines that was in <sup>2</sup> Geba; and the Philistine heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear.

4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also <sup>3</sup> was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait d (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves e in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people <sup>4</sup> followed him trembling.

8 ¶ And he tarried seven days, according to the set time f that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the <sup>11</sup> garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of g Michmash.

CHAPTER XIV.

Jonathan goeth and miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison.

NOW it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeath under a pomegranate-tree which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were about o six hundred men:

3 And Ahiah b the son of Ahitub, I-chabod's c brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod d And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, e there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The <sup>2</sup> forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeath.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD to f save by many or by few.

7 And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that o in thine heart: turn thee: behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over g unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, <sup>3</sup> Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up h unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and this shall be a sign h unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come h up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me: for i the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and as they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within us it were <sup>4</sup> an half-acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plough.

15 And there was trembling s in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, o they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was u a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeath of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and p they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, q Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass while Saul talked r unto the priest, that the <sup>6</sup> noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him <sup>7</sup> assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and behold, every man's s sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also t turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid t themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So u the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over v unto Beth-aven.

and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee.
Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw e ye near hither, all the 12 chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For as d the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.
But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel,
Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, 13 Give a perfect lot e. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people 14 escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan,
Tell f me what thou hast done.
And Jonathan told him, and said,
I g did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God h do so, and more also: for i thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid; as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair k of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God l this day. So m the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, n and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, o and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he 15 gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, p and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons q of Saul were

Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchishua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the first-born Merab; and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Abinon, the daughter of Ahinon; and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner, the father of Abner, was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

CHAPTER XV.

Samuel sendeth Saul to destroy Amalek.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not: but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Belem, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and he and all his men waited in the valley.

6 And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for ye showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah unto Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag, the king of the Amalekites, alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the kids, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel: and he cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and came down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as yet delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

the Beth-lehemite: for d I have provided me a king among his sons.

z And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear z, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer i with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice e to the LORD.

z And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me hmf whom I name unto thee.

z And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his z coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably? g

z And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: sanctify h yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

z ¶ And it came to pass when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, i and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

z But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not k on his countenance, or on the height of his stature: because I have refused him: for l the LORD seeth not as man seeth: for man looketh on the z outward appearance, m but the LORD looketh on the heart. n z Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

z Then Jesse made z Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

z Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

z And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and behold, he o keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, send and fetch him: for we will not sit z down till he come hither.

z And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, p and withal q of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

z Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit q of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

z ¶ But the Spirit of the LORD departed r from Saul, and an evil s spirit from the LORD <sup>7</sup> troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play t with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant a man, and a man of war, e and prudent in <sup>h</sup> matters, and a comely x person, and the LORD y is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before z him: and he loved him greatly: and he became his armour-bearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me: for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit a from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER XVII.

Goliath cometh forth to challenge a combat with the Israelites.

NOW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, a which b belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephesdunim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and <sup>2</sup> set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between the two.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gethwhose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was <sup>2</sup> armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a <sup>4</sup> target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff c of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set our battle in array? Am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was the son f of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight g sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Elab the first-born, and next unto him, Abinadab; and the third, Shamunah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed h his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren:

18 And carry these ten <sup>5</sup> cheeses unto the camp, and <sup>6</sup> thy brethren shall eat, and thou shalt be strong.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, where was the Philistines.

d David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep-keeper, and took, and went, as he had commanded him; and he went to the trench, as the going forth to the fight, for the battle: and the Philistines were in array, army against army.

David left his carriage in the hands of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and saluted his brethren.

As he talked with them, there came up the champion Philistine of Gath, whose name was, and spake unto him the same words: and he answered him.

All the men of Israel, when they saw him, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

The men of Israel said, We have seen this man that is up: and it shall be, that who killeth him, the king will give him great riches, and will give him his daughter, and will make him his father's house free in Israel.

David spake to the men of Israel, saying, What have I done to the man that killeth him, and taketh away his inheritance from Israel? for who circumcised me Philistine, should defy the armies of the Lord?

The people answered him in a manner, saying, So shall it be to the man that killeth him.

David's eldest brother Eliab spake unto the men, and he said, Why dost thou come down hither? and wilt thou leave these few in the wilderness? I know thee, and the naughtiness of thy art; for thou art come at this time, that thou mightest see the face of the Lord.

David said, What have I done? Is there not a cause? and he turned from him to his brethren, and spake after the manner: and the people glorified him again after the former.

When the words were ended, David spake, they remembered him before Saul: and he returned him.

And David said to Saul, Let my heart fail, because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, The Lord that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and the Lord be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these, for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on, and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he despised him: for he was but a youth, and a ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thee flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied y.

46 This day will the LORD is deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take s thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth: that all the earth may know b that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for d the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slung it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell e upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling f and with a stone, and smote the Philistine and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

51 Therefore David ran and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, g and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off h his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the k valley, and to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled l their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.

55 ¶ And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, m whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistines, Abner took him, and brought him before n Saul: with the head n of the Philistine in his hand.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jonathan loveth David. 5 Saul enveth his prize.

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul a of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan b loved him as his own c soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself d of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the 2 Philistines, that e the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with 2 instruments of music.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, g and the saying h displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom? i h

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit j from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied k in the midst of the house: and David played with his harp, as at other times; and there was a javelin l in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoided m out of his presence twice.

foreskins, ^b and they gave them in full tale to the king that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michael his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that the LORD ^{was} with David, and that Michael, Saul's daughter, loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy ^c continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines went ^d forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more ^e wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jonathan discloseth his father's purpose to kill David.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

2 But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much ^a in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee. Now, therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in ^a secret place, and hide thyself.

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou ^{art}, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see,
that I will tell thee.

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good ^b of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king sin ^c against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works ^{have been} to thee-ward very good.

5 For he did put ^e his life in his hand, and slew ^f the Philistine, and the ^g LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest ^{it}, and didst rejoice: wherefore ^h
then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul swore, ⁱ As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence ^{as} ¹ in times past.

8 ¶ And there was war again:
and David went out and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from ^z him.

9 And the evil spirit ^l from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David played with his hand.

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped m that night.

11 Saul also sent a messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So o Michal let David p down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered q Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why r should I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Saul sent messengers s to take David: and t when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they u also prophesied.

21 And when v was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent w messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, in a chariot, to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked, and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at x Beth-lehem.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God

CHAPTER XX.

David consulteth with Jonathan for his safety.

AND David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto o him, God forbid: thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will 1 show it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? is it not so?

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but a truly as the Lord liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, 2 Whatsoever thy soul 3 desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to-morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field c until the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well, thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wrath, then be sure that evil is determined d by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant: for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant e of the Lord with thee notwithstanding, if q there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself: for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee.

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto Da-

Jonathan said unto David,

said to my father about to-morrow, or the third day, and there be good toward David, then send not unto thee,
and it shall be thee;

thee to do thee evil, then I

Jonathan 7 made a covenant with the house of David, saying, LORD, even require it I of the LORD of David's enemies.

Jonathan caused David to swear, because he loved him, as he loved him as he loved his own soul.

Jonathan said to David, Behold, now is the new moon: and it will be missed, because thou hast been empty.

thyself, then thou shalt go down

at thee.

Behold, I will send a lad to thee, find out the arrows. If I the arrows are on this side of thee, then come thou: for peace to thee, and 13 no

war to thee, the LORD liveth.

If I say thus unto the young man, hold, the arrows are behind thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

As touching the matter between thee and I have spoken of,
the LORD be between thee
and me for ever.

as at other times, even upon a seat
by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him,
he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to-day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul,
David earnestly asked leave of me
to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother he hath commanded me to be there:
and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of a perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, and he shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul
his father, and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain?
what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast to a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table
in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month:
for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with
him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran he shot an arrow 17 beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried
after the lad, and said, Is not this arrow beyond y thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his artillery unto ¹⁸his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go ^z in peace, ²⁰forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

David at Nob obtaineth of Ahimelech hallowed bread.

THEN came David to Nob, to Ahimelech ^aa the priest: and Ahimelech was ^bafraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said ^cunto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed ^{me}servants to such and such a place.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels ^fof the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, ²yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest gave ^ghim hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the showbread ^hthat was taken from before the LORD, to put ⁱhol bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD: and his name was Doeg, ^aan Edomite, the chiefest of the herdsmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is ^bhere wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And ^cthe servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, ^dW Saul hath slain his thousands, and David has ten thousands!

12 And David hid up ^ethese words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed ^fhis behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad ^gin their hands, and ^hscrambled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man ⁱis mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of madmen, that ye have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

CHAPTER XXII.

Companies resort unto David at Adullam.

DAVID therefore departed thence, and escaped ^ato the cave Adullam: ^band when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And ^cevery one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizreph of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

he brought them before the doab : and they dwelt with him while that David was in it.
And the prophet Gad g said unto David, Abide not in the hold ;
and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.
When Saul heard that David was covered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Ramah, under a ³ tree in Ramah, his spear in his hand, and his servants were standing about

Saul said unto his servants,
Behold now, ye fools ; will the son of Jesse leave any one of you fields and flocks, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds ?
All of you have conspired against me, and there is none that is faithful to me : that my son hath league with the son of David, there is none of you that for me, or sheweth unto me
my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, to slay me ?

Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the house of Saul, and said, I saw of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.
He inquired of the LORD,
and gave him victuals, and the sword of Goliath the Gittite.

Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, his father's house, the priests that were in Nob : and they came to him.

Saul said, Hear now, thou fool. And he answered,
My lord.

Saul said unto him, Why
hast thou conspired against me, thou son of Jesse, in that thou hast hid me, and a sword,
inquired of God for him,
should rise against me, to slay me, as at this day ?

Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful to thee, as I, and thy servants, which have kept thee, and have said, God is with thee, thou shalt be successful ?
Then the king said, Behold
now, the hand of the LORD is with thee, and thou shalt be successful.

on that day fourscore and five per-

the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life : but with me thou shalt be

CHAPTER XXIII.

David inquiring of the Lord by Abiathar, rescueth Keilah.

THEN they told David, saying,
Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshing-floors.

2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go, and smite these Philistines ? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite
the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah :
how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines ?

4 Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah ; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar
the son of Ahimelech escaped to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he f is shut in, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 ¶ And David knew that Saul g secretly practised mischief against him; and h he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for i my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilah l deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

13 ¶ Then David and his men, k which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain m in the wilderness of Zaphan. And Saul sought him every day, but n God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Zaphan in a wood.

16 ¶ And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened o his hand in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not for the hand of Saul my father shall not q find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul r my father knoweth.

18 And they two s made a covenant before the LORD: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came t up the Zaphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which u is on the south of Jeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of 8 Ask thy young men, and they will show thee. Wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: h give, i I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine k hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and l ceased.

10 m And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who n is David? and who o is the son of Jesse! there be many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall p I then take my bread, and my water, and my q flesh that I have killed for my shepherds, and give r it unto men, whom I know not whence they s be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword: and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode t by the staff.

14 u But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he v railed on them.

15 But the men w were very good unto us, and we x were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields.

16 They were a wall y unto us both by night and day, in the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider, what z I have done, for evil is determined against our master, and against a his household: for he b is such a scoundrel, that c a man can die of speaking to him.

18 d Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred leaves, and two bottles of wine, and two sheep, and e covered them, and f sent her servants to carry them, and g followed them on asses, and two hundred asses of hers, and h led them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, i Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was j so, as she rode on the ass, that k she came down by the l side of the hill, and m behold,

CHAPTER XXVI.

Saul cometh to Hachilah against David.

AND a the Zaphites came unto Saul to Gibeath, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon? i

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by the way. But David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies,
and understood that Saul was come in very deed.

5 ¶ And David arose and came to the place where Saul had pitched:
and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner b the son of Ner, the captain of his host. And Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai c the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench,
and his spear stuck in the ground as his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God hath d delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not e smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not; for d who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guilt-less? f

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the LORD e shall smite him; or his day f shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. g

11 The LORD forbid h that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off: a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who art like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is k this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have stirred thee up against me, let him receive me in offering: but if thou be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD: for they have driven me off this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth: for the face of the LORD, for the king of Israel is come off to seek a deal, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in mine eyes this day. In good, I have saved the fool, and have rescued him.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear, and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The LORD render to every man his righteousness, and his faithfulness: for the LORD doeth as he saith unto me, and to-day,

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Saul hearing David to be in Gath, seeketh no more for him.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in the coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him unto Achish, the son of Maach, king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, a Hittite and the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should my servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertained unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gittites, and the Gathites, and the Amalekites, for those were the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, & even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Whither have ye made a road to-day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of 14 And he said unto I form: he of! And old man cometh up; covered with a man Saul perceived that it I. $ and he stooped with his face ground, and bowed himself.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore u distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed a from me; p 2 by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing q the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy l?

17 And the LORD hath done 3 to him, as he spake s by 4 me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

18 Because t thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore u hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover the LORD will also v deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to-morrow shall thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul 3 fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, u because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul and saw that he was sore troubled and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put x my life in mine hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spak-
est unto me

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Achish dismisseth David with commendations of his fidelity.

NOW the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: b and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days, c or these years, and I have found no fault d in him since he fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and e the princes of the Philistines said unto him, make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle f he be an adversary to us: for wherewith should he reconcile himself unto his master? g should it not be with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul slew his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth, thou hast been upright, and h thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host is good in my sight: for i I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless, j the lords favour thee not.

9 And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as h an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have i said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went in up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The Amalekites spoil Ziklag: David pursueth them.

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein: they slew not a man, either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives b were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed: for c the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was d grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters; but e David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring e me hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

NOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter a of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that behold, a man b came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead: and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul c leaned upon his spear: and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, d Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for e anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure he could live after that he was fallen:

I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was his arm, and have brought them unto my lord.

Then David took hold on his thes, and rent d them; and wise all the men that were with
him.

And they mourned, and wept, fasted until even, for Saul, and Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the people of Israel; because they were in the sword.

¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence thou? And he answered, I am son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

And David said unto him, e
wast thou not afraid to stretch thine hand to destroy the anointed?

And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and smite him upon him. And he smote him on the head.

And David said unto him, Thy ath hath testified g against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's
anointed.

¶ And David lamented with lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

(Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the ark: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.)

The beauty of Israel is slain
in thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!

Tell it not in Gath, publish
it in the streets of Askelon:
the daughters of the Philistines
see, lest the daughters of the

Ye mountains of Gilboa, let n e be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offering: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not anointed p with oil.

From the blood of the slain,
and the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

Saul and Jonathan were lovely & pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, & were stronger than lions.

Ye daughters of Israel, weep

CHAPTER II.

David goeth to Hebron, where he is made king of Judah.

AND it came to pass after this;
that David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up?

And he said, Unto Hebron.
2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came,
and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, Blessed ye be ye of the LORD, that ye have showed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now g the LORD show kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness,
because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands
be strengthened, and be ye valiant:
for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 ¶ But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim.

9 And made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the time that David was king in Hebron, over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim k to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met g together by the pool m of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play n before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number, twelve of Benjamin, which o pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together; wherefore that place was called p Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, q and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 ¶ And there were three r sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light s of foot t as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from u following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his v armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab w thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under x the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, y that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that z lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour z for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? a how long shall it be thus, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

CHAPTER III.

During the war David still waxeth stronger.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 ¶ And g unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam h the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, i Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Abdon j the son of Maachah the daughter of Tahmai king of Geshur; k

4 And the fourth, Adonijah l the son of Hazeiah; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong m for the house of Saul.

not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done?
behold, Abner came unto thee;
why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy going: e out and thy coming in, and to know a all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers
after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron Joab took him aside b in the gate to speak with him quietly, and smote him there under the fifth rib that he died, for the blood of Asahel c his brother.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the d blood of Abner
the son of Ner:

29 Let it rest e on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not f gail from the house of Joab one that hath an issue, e or that is a leper, f or that leameth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, g Rend your clothes, and gird h
you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the a bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool i dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause David to eat & meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it was told them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hard for me. The LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER IV.

Baanah and Rechab slay Ish-bosheth.

AND when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth also was reckoned to Benjamin.)

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephobosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under the fifth rib: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and sent them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul thine enemy, which sought thy life: and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When I once told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (I thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER V.

The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel.

THEN came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we have thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and brought'st in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron: and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

CHAPTER VI.

David fetcheth the ark from Kirjathjearim on a new cart.

AGAIN, David gathered together
all the chosen men of Israel,
thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from 1 Beale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, 2 whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts, that dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they 3 set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in 4 Gibeah ; and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, 5 accompanying the ark of God : and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of vastruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to a Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah put forth h his hand to the ark of God,
and took hold of it : for the oxen
6 shook it.

LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because d of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare e the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced f before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded g with a linen ephod.

15 So h David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, i and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And k they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered l burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, he blessed m the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And n he dealt among all the people, o p q among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of r flesh, and a flagon of s wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ Then David returned to bless t his household. And Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to-day, who u uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows v shamelessly uncovereth himself!

CHAPTER VII.

David's prayer and thanksgiving.

AND it came to pass, when s the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given b him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, c but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains. d

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that u in thine heart: for the LORD is with thee.

4 ¶ And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell <sup>1</sup> my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou e build me an house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house, since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walked f with all the children of Israel, spake l a word with any of the <sup>2</sup> tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to g feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, from <sup>3</sup> following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

9 And I was with thee h whithersoever thou wastest, and I have cut off all thine enemies: <sup>4</sup> out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, k like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will I plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither m shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime.

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee an house n

CHAPTER VIII.

David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

AND after this it came to pass,
that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them : and David took Methem-anmah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and he measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground ; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ David smote also Hadadezer,
the son of Rehob, king of Zobah,
as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen : and David houghed
all the chariot horses, but reserved
of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Bethah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king
David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him : (for Hadadezer had wars with Toi :) and Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass :

11 Which also king David did dedicate k unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued ;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David eat him a name, when he returned from <sup>11</sup> smiting of the Syrians l in the valley m of salt, <sup>12</sup> being eighteen thousand men.

14 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom : throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD o preserved David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgment p and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host ; and Jehoshaphat q the son of Ahilud was <sup>13</sup> recorder ;

17 And Zadok r the son of Ahitub, and Ahimeleciah the son of Abiathar, were the priests ; and Seruiah was the <sup>14</sup> scribe ;

18 And Benaiah s the son of Jehonath was over both the Cherethites t and the Pelethites ; and David's sons were <sup>15</sup> chief rulers.

CHAPTER IX.

David by Ziba sendeth for Mephibosheth.

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness a for Jonathan's sake ?

2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba. b And when they had called him unto David the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba ? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him ? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, whose c name is on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he ? And Ziba said unto the king, Be hold, he is in the house of Machir, d the son of Ammihel, in Gilead.

5 ¶ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammihel, from Gilead.

was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant.

7 ¶ And David said unto him, Fear not : for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father ; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldst look upon such a dead dog as I am ?

9 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have f given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits that thy master's son may have food to eat : but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always g at my table. Now Ziba had h fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Michael. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem : for he did eat continually at the king's table : k and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER X.

David's messengers are sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash.

AND it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him, by the hand of his servants, for his father. And David's servants came unto the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun the lord, I thankest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee : hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee to search l the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it ?

CHAPTER XI.

While Joab besiegeth Rabbah, David
commiteth adultery with Bath-sheba.

AND it came to pass, i after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent a Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an evening-tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw b a woman washing herself: and the woman was very beautiful c to look upon.

3 And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this d Bath-sheba, the daughter of e Eliam, the wife of Uriah d the Hittite f?

4 And David sent messengers and took her; and she came in unto him, and e he lay with her; f for she was purified f from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite.
And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him g how Joab did, and how the people did,
and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash g thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there h followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not came to his oven house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive I fasted and wept;
for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him

he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that
the child may live?

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called

26 ¶ And as Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Am-

27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and I be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took
it.

30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, (the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones;) and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon.
So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XIII.

Amnon, feigning himself sick, ravisheth Tamar.

AND it came to pass after this,
that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar;

for she was a virgin; and ¹ Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, ^c David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtle man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, ² lean ³ from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 ¶ So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes ^d in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house: (and he was laid down,) And she took ^e flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured ^f thereof before him: but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all this from me. And they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought ^g them into the chamber to Amnon his brother.

11 And when she had brought ^h them into the chamber, her foots hold of her, and said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for this is the thing which ought to be done in Israel: I have not been here.

13 And he, whether saw, or otherwise, he would not believe her: for he was strong, and he forced her. And he lay with her, and he forced her.

14 And when he had done this, he said unto her, I have not commanded you to do this: and he lay with her.

15 ¶ And when he had finished her, he said unto her, I have not commanded you to do this: and he lay with her.

greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered to him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours: upon her: for ^u with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar put ashes ^v on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and had her hand ^w on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother saw unto her, Hath ^x Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: be as thy brother: ^y regard not this thing. So Tamar remained ^z desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither a good nor bad: for Absalom hated ^a Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers: let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, do, so that it be not now gone: we will cheerfully go into thee. And he pressed hard: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I will take of my brother Amnon to go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 And Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 ¶ Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite, then kill him: but have not I commanded you? Be courageous, and be strong.

29 And the servants of Absalom

humiled. Then all the king's arose, and every man ¹³ put up upon his mule, and fled. And it came to pass, while were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom slain all the king's sons, and is not one of them left.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand, or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 ¶ And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To-day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord. O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of ⁹ his servant.

23 So Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ ¹⁰ But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.

27 And ¹¹ unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is next ¹² mine, and he hath barley there: go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore art thou come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have seen thee still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER XV.

Absalom, by fair speeches and countenances, stealeth the hearts of Israel.

AND ¹ it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared ¹³ him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any and that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, O what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribe of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See thy matters are good and right; but ² there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh, that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. So ³ Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

unto them, ^r They be gone over

they had sought and could not find

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and tol
king David, and said unto David, Arise, ^s and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ⁷ And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not ² followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city, ^t and ¹⁰ put his household a

order, and hanged u himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

21 Then David came to Mahanaim. v And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son whose name was 11 Itura, an Israelite, that went in to 12 Abigail the daughter of 13 Nabal, sister to Zeruiah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi x the son of Nabal of Bahah y of the children of Ammon, and Machir z the son of Ammihai of Laish, and Barzillai a the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and 14 basins, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentils, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The b people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Absalom, hanged in an oak, is slain by Joab.

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But b the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth, for if we die away, they will not care for us, neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art c worth ten thousand of us: therefore now d we better that thou sendest our us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best? I will do. And the king stood by the gate, and all the people came out by the gate, and by the way.

5 And the king commanded Joab, and Abishai, and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood d of Ephraim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood e devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and e his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth: and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, f I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him thence to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a grille.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should g receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for f in our hearing the king charged thee and Absalom and Ittai, saying, g Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for g there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldst have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not carry this h with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bore Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and laid h a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel felt very sore to him.

this day, Absalom's place.

Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear tidings, how that the LORD has avenged him of his enemies:
And Joab said unto him, Thou hast not: ¹⁹ bear tidings this day,
how thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear tidings, because the king's son is dead.

Then said Joab to Cushi, Go
and tell the king what thou hast seen.
Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But however, let me, I pray thee, also run wilt thou run, my son, seeing thou hast no tidings ¹² ready?

But howsoever, (said he) let me run. And he said unto him,

Then Ahimaaz ran by the Joab.

And David sat between the gates: and the watchman ¹¹
was upon the roof over the gate of the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, Is he alone, there is tidings in his hand. And he came apace, and was near.

And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

And the watchman said, ¹² Me-teth the running of the forerunner as like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and commeth with good tidings.

And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, ¹⁴ All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which has delivered up the men that were up their hand against my lord
the king.

And the king said, ¹⁶ Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent wot not what it was.

over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom! my son, my son Absalom!
would God I had died for thee, O
Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER XIX.

Joab causeth the king to cease his mourning.

AND it was told Joab, Behold,
the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

² And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

³ And the people got them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away
when they flee in battle.

⁴ But the king covered his face,
and the king cried with a loud voice, c O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!

⁵ And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved
thy life, and the lives of thy sons,
and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines:

⁶ In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

⁷ Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD,
if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

⁸ Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for e
Israel had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines: and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now, therefore, why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my flesh and my bone: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Amasa, h Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually, in the room of Jonh.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even i as the heart of one man: so that they sent th word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilead, k to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 ¶ And Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of Bahurim, hastened and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him: and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera let down before the king, as he was come over Jordan:

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember a that when thy servant did *p*erversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should lay it to his heart.

20 For thy servant did not know that I have sinned: therefore, I behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph, I am down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Asahel the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed r the Lord's anointed?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king swore unto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth s the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he is hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel s of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And Barzillai s the Gileadite, came down from Rozelin, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim: for he was a very great man.

king, from Jer
3 <sup>1</sup> And Da

at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women <sup>his</sup> concubines, <sup>d</sup> whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in <sup>1</sup> ward, <sup>e</sup> and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were <sup>2</sup> shut up unto the day of their death, <sup>3</sup> living in widowhood.

4 <sup>1</sup> Then said the king to Amasa,
4 Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went <sup>f</sup> to assemble
the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than <sup>did</sup> Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants, <sup>g</sup> and pursue after him, lest he get him
fenced cities, and <sup>h</sup> escape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, <sup>h</sup> and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba
the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a gridle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard
with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he <sup>k</sup> smote him therewith in <sup>l</sup> the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and <sup>m</sup> struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway unto the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba
the son of Bichri.

11 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, m and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they cast up a bank n against the city, and it stood n in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab s battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near, hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, ¶ They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother o in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so; but a man of mount Ephraim, (Sheba the son of Bachri by p name;) hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people in her wisdom. p And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bachri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they q returned from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 ¶ Now Joab q went over all the host of Israel: and Baanah the son of Nehemai was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites;

24 And Asaiah was over the tribute, and Josabab the son of Ahileah was r over the king's chamber.

25 And Sheva was scribe, and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

26 And Ba also the Gittite was a chief ruler about David.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were b not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites: and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may blow the inheritance c of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, ¶ We will have no silver, nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the counts of Israel.

6 Let seven men of his sons e be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeon of Saul, f whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath g that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah h the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth: and the five sons of i Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she j brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Gileadite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell k all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley-harvest.

10 ¶ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me because he delighted in me.

21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from his God.

23 For a all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also upright before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in his eye-sight.

26 With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt show thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the forward c thou wilt show thyself unsavoury.

28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, d that thou mayest bring them down.

rose up against me hast thou subdued under me.

41 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad.

44 Thou also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen; a people which I knew not shall serve me.

45 Strangers shall submit themselves unto me; as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their close places.

47 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the rock of my salvation.

48 It is God that avengeth me, and that bringeth down the people under me.

49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

51 He is the tower of salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.

CHAPTER XXIII.

David in his last words professeth his faith in God's promises.

NOW these be the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,

2 The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, d ruling in the fear of God.

CHAPTER XXIV.

David, tempted by Satan, forceth Joab
to number the people.

AND again a the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and b he moved David against them to say, Go b number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, 2 Go now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number c of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, (how many soever they be,) an hundred-fold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Arzer, d on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the e river of Gad, and toward Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the f land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaun, f and about to Zidon, g

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hytives, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beersheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 ¶ And David's heart smote h him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away i the iniquity of thy servant: for I have done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad, m David's seer, saying,

12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three n things: and thou shalt choose o thee one of them, o and I will do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land! or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto God, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; (for his mercies are o great :) p and let us not fall into q the hand of man.

15 ¶ So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning even to the time appointed: and died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angel r stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD repented s him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough: t stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of Araunah u the Jebusite.

17 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep, to what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of o Araunah the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to thy servant? And David said, To buy x the threshing-floor of thee, to build y an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed z from the people.

22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen z for burnt-sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oven for wood.

23 All these things did Araunah, as a king, a give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept b thee.

24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy c of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD

red of that which doth cost shekels of silver.

11 ¶ Wherefore Nathan spoke unto Bath-sheba the mother of So-that Adonijah the son of Hagarith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life,
and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king
David, and say unto him, I hadst not thou, my lord, O king, swear i unto 21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep in with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted <sup>13</sup> offenders.

22 ¶ And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For n he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest: and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, <sup>13</sup> God save o king Adonijah.

12 ¶ Then y sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his 13 ¶ And Adonijah the son of Hag-gith came to Bath-sheba the mo-

Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have some-

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bath-sheba therefore went him for Adonijah. And the king rose e up to meet her, and f bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be

30 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; (for he is mine elder brother;) even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, God I do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 ¶ And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, mine own field; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absalom.) And Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, & from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner, & captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed forever; but & upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever & from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 ¶ And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for Shimei, & said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there; and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish son of Maachah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

 14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen e thy days.
 15 And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered peace-offerings, and made a feast f to all his servants.
 16 ¶ Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before g him.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead; and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, (for her bowels were yearned upon her son,) and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

1 Solomon's princes. 7 His twelve officers for provision.

SO king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest,

3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder.

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend:

6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abiathar was over the tribute.

7 ¶ And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: 9 The son of Hur, in mount Ephraim:

10 The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shean, and Elonbeth-hanan:

11 The son of Hesed, in Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher.

12 The son of Ahimad, in all the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife:

13 Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Tannach and Megid-

20 ¶ Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned 40 over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt; they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 ¶ And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal.

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphshah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 ¶ And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

over Israel.

is the second month, that he ¹ began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And the house ^a which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made ^a windows of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And ^a against the wall of the house he built ^b chambers ^b round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle : and he made ^b chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad : for without in the wall of the house he made ^c narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before ^c it was brought thither; so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right ^f side of the house : and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house and finished it; and covered the house ^g with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high : and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if ^d thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father :

13 And ^f I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake ^g my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, ^h both the floor of the house, and he walls of the ceiling : and he covered them on the inside with

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar : he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the ^h most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with ⁱ knops and ^j open flowers ; all was cedar ; there was no stone seen.

19 ¶ And the oracle : he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the fore part was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof ; and he overlaid it with ^k pure gold ; and so covered the altar, which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold : and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle ; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold until he had finished all the house : also ^l the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two cherubims ^m of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub : from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits : both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was ⁿ of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house : and ^o they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall ; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and ^p open flowers, within and without.

ed stones, and a row of cedar

the house of the LORD, and for the porch e of the house.

13 ⁷ And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram d out of Tyre.

14 He was ⁸ a widow's son e of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father f was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass : and g he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass.
And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he ⁷ cast two pillars h of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece : and a line of twelve cubits
did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars : the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits :

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars : seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapters that were upon the top, with pomegranates : and so did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was
by the net-work : and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows.
round about upon the other chapter.

21 And he set up the pillars in the porch ⁱ of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof ^h Jachin: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof ^h Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten sea, ^k ten cubits ^l from the one brim to the other: ^m it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And ⁿ under the brim of it round about ^o there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass: four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, ^p oxen, and cherubims: ^q and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions ^r of nude of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were carvings with their borders, four-square, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels: ^s and the axletrees of the wheels were ^t joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naues, and their fellows, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the ^{ag} proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 ¶ Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right ^{ah} side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

40 ¶ And ^{ai} Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the two pillars: and the two net-works, ^{aj} to cover the two bowls of the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars:

9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there k at Horeb, l when the LORD made a covenant l with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud m filled the house of the LORD,

11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD
had filled the house of the LORD.

12 ¶ Then n spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in 13 p have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place q

for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed r all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood:)

15 And he said, blessed s be the LORD God of Israel, which spake t
with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled u, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt,
I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein: but I chose David v to be over my people Israel.

17 And w it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart.

19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house: but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as w the LORD promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein x is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread y forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who a keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk b before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him; thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father: that thou promisedst him, c saying, d There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; e so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let d thy word, (I pray thee,) be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father:

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven e and heaven of heavens f cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded!

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to-day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, e even toward the place of which thou hast said, g My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make h toward this place.

30 And h hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray i toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling-place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 ¶ If any man trespass against his neighbour, and k an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, l condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying m the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

if they shall ¹⁴ bethink themselves in the land whither they have carried captives, and return to make supplication unto the land of them that carried them captive, saying, ¹⁵ We have sinned, and have done perversely,
we have committed wickedness, so return ¹⁶ unto thee with a clean heart, and with all their iniquity, the land of their enemies shall return them away captive, and they shall go to their land thou gavest unto their fathers city which thou hast and the house which I built for thy name:

And thou shalt hear their prayer
or supplication in heaven thy dwelling-place, and maintain their cause.

Forgive thy people that they have sinned against thee, and all their iniquities wherein they have sinned against thee, and have compassion before them, for thou hast carried them captive, and may have compassion on

as they be thy people, and thy inheritance, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt, from the furnace of iron:
Thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servants, and thou shalt hear unto the supplication of all Israel, to hearken unto all that they call for unto

the day that thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou hast said by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest thy fathers out of Egypt, O
LORD.

It was so, that when Solomon made an end of praying unto thee, and supplication unto thee, he arose from before the face of the LORD, from kneeling unto thee with his hands spread abroad.

And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, Blessed be the LORD, that hath said unto his people Israel, I will be unto you as I have said, for ye have not failed one word of my promise, which I have given by the hand of Moses.

before the LORD,
LORD our God

he maintain the covenant with Israel at all time

shall require:

60 That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart
therefore be perfect with the LORD our God,
to walk in his statutes, and to mandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ And Moses the king,
and all Israel
with him, offered sacrifice before
the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice
of peace-offerings,
which he offered
unto the LORD,
two and twenty thousand oxen,
and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep.
So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house
of the LORD.

64 The same day
did the king
hallo the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for
there he offered
burnt-offerings,
and meat-offer-

fat of the peace-offerings: because the brazen altar that
was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt-offerings and meat-offerings, and
the fat of the peace-offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon
held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great
congregation,

ing in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt,
before the LORD our God,

even fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed
the king, and went unto their tents joyful
and glad of heart
for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAPTER IX.

God's covenant in a vision with Solomon.

AND as it came to pass,
when Solomon
had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house,
and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,
2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time,
as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD
said unto him,

have heard e thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there g perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David a thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments;

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised k to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if l ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then m will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house n which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight: and Israel shall be a proverb o and a by-word among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why p hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook q the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore r hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ And s it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,

11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees, and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they t pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of u Cabul unto v this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king w sixscore talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the reason of the x levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, y and 16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwell in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon a the nether.

18 And Baalath, b and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land.

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, c and cities for his horsemen, and d that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel,

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able e utterly to destroy, upon them did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-service f unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel g did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But h Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her i house which Solomon had built for her: then k did he build Millo.

25 ¶ And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt-offerings and peace-offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense l upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ And m king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, n which is beside Eloth, on the o shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And p they came to Ophir, q and fetched from thence gold, for hundred and twenty talents, and brought r it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER XI.

Solomon's acts, reign, and death.

BUT king Solomon loved many strange women, (1 together with the daughter of Pharaoh,) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said a unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives b turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect c with the LORD his God, as was d the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after 2 Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and 3 went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place e for Chemosh, f the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 ¶ And the LORD was angry g with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice h.

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is i done of thee, and thou hast not kept j my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend k the kingdom from thee, and will give it l to thy servants.

12 Notwithstanding in thy m days I will not do it, for I David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit n I will not rend away all the kingdom: but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, which o I have chosen.

14 ¶ And the LORD p stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 For it came to pass, when q David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host, was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male r in Edom:

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)

17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: t and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife u the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house, and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household, among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and v that Joab the captain of the host, was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, 5 Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, 6 Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 ¶ And God stirred him up w another adversary, Rezon the son of Hadad, which fled from he lord Hadadezer x king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when y David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad z did: w

And Jeroboam y the son of an Ephraimite of Zareda, his servant, (whose mo-
name was Zeruiah, a widow
;) even he lifted up z his against the king.

d he took the cause that he
in his hand against the king;
he built Millo, a and 7 re-

his father.

And the man Jeroboam was by man of valour: and Solomon the young man that he industrious, he made him over all the 9 charge of the of Joseph.

And it came to pass at that time
Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem that the prophet Ahijah b donite found him in the
and he had clad himself
new garment; and they were alone in the field:

And Ahijah caught c the new
it that was on him, and rent
it into pieces:

And he said to Jeroboam, Take a piece: for d thus saith the
the God of Israel, Behold, I and the kingdom out of the of Solomon, and will give ten of thee:

And he shall have one tribe servant David's sake, and Jerusalem's sake, the city
I have chosen out of all the
of Israel:)

And he said that they have for-the goddess of the Zelo-

Am, and Milcom the god of the Ammon, and have led in my ways, to do that

David his father.

39 And I will for this afflict the 40 Solomon sought p therefore to

CHAPTER XII.

The Israelites assemble at Shechem
to crown Rehoboam.

AND a Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when b Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt:)

3 That they sent and called him.
And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke c grievous: now, therefore, make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart
yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 d And king Rehoboam consulted with the old d men that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise, that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant e unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words f to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him :

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter, unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little Amor shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke; my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people, saying, I will add to your yoke, and forsake I the old man's counsel that they gave him :

14 And he spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke; my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat :

16 ¶ So when all Israel saw that the king would not listen unto them, they answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David, when we have no inheritance in him? neither will we be partakers of his kingdom; we will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom. We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom.

17 And the children of Israel answered Jeroboam, saying, We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom. We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom. We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom.

18 And Jeroboam said unto the people, I have made you a kingdom, and yet ye have despised me, saying, We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom. Now ye have despised me, saying, We will have no part in him, neither will we be partakers of his kingdom.

of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

21 ¶ And as when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David :

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again unto Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Where upon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sin for the people went to worship before the one, even unto this day.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the Levites, and of all the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar, (so called in Beth-el), a sacrifice unto the calves that he had made; and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el; the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon.

14 And went after the man of God,
and found him sitting under an oak:
and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that comest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee:
neither will I eat bread nor drink
water with thee in this place:

17 For 4 it was said to me by l
the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way
that thou comest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spoke unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he hied m unto him.

19 So a he went back with him,
and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying,
Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch o
as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But comest back, and hast eaten p bread and drunk water in the place of the which the LORD
did say q to thee, Eat no bread,
and drink no water; thy carcass r

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion s
met him by the way, and slew him:
and his carcass was cast in the lion also stood by the carcass.

5 Because David did that which 9 ¶ And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah his mother,

even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa ^h destroyed her idol, and burnt ⁱ it by the brook Kidron.

11 But ^k the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the ⁴ things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 [¶] And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And ^l Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, ^m that he ⁿ might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that ^o were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt ^o at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold: come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may ^q depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Honi, and Dan, ^q and Abel-beth-machiah, ^r and all Ommeroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard ^{thereof}, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirosh.

and ^o Jehoshaphat ^o his son reigned in his stead.

25 [¶] And Nadab the son of Jeroboam ^q began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin where with he made Israel to sin.

27 [¶] And Baasha the son of Abijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and ^z Baasha smote him at ^y Gibbethon, which ^{belonged} to the Philistines: (for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.)

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when ^h reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until ^h had destroyed him, according ^{to} the saying ^z of the LORD, which ^h spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked ^z the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 [¶] Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, as they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And ^h there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tishbe, twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin, wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth <sup>m</sup> Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou and thy father's house, <sup>n</sup> in that ye have forsaken <sup>o</sup> the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, <sup>and</sup> gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, <sup>p</sup> and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves <sup>q</sup> four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered <sup>r</sup> the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How <sup>s</sup> long halt ye between two <sup>o</sup> opinions? if the LORD <sup>be</sup> God, follow him: but if <sup>t</sup> Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, <sup>even</sup> I only, <sup>u</sup> remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets <sup>are</sup> four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire <sup>under</sup>: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire <sup>under</sup>:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, <sup>v</sup> let him be God. And all the people answered and said, <sup>6</sup> It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye <sup>are</sup> many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire <sup>under</sup>.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, <sup>7</sup> hear us. But <sup>there</sup> <sup>was</sup> no voice, nor any that <sup>8</sup> answered. And they leaped <sup>9</sup> upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry <sup>10</sup> aloud: for <sup>x</sup> he is a god: either he <sup>11</sup> is talking, or he <sup>12</sup> is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut <sup>y</sup> themselves, after their manner, with knives and lancets, till <sup>13</sup> the blood gushed out upon them.

<sup>29</sup> And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the <sup>14</sup> offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any <sup>15</sup> that regarded.

<sup>30</sup> And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

<sup>31</sup> And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom <sup>2</sup> the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:

<sup>32</sup> And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench round about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

<sup>33</sup> And he put the wood in order, and cut <sup>a</sup> the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice, and on the wood.

<sup>34</sup> And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

<sup>35</sup> And the water <sup>16</sup> ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench <sup>b</sup> also with water.

<sup>36</sup> And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, <sup>c</sup> LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, <sup>d</sup> let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and e that I have done all these things at thy word.

<sup>37</sup> Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

<sup>38</sup> Then <sup>f</sup> the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

<sup>39</sup> And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

<sup>40</sup> And Elijah said unto them, <sup>17</sup> Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew h them there.

<sup>45</sup> And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

CHAPTER XIX.

Elisha, taking leave of his friends, followeth Elijah.

AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Ahab did, and withal how he had slain <sup>a</sup> all the prophets with the sword.

<sup>2</sup> Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So <sup>b</sup> let the gods do to me, and more also, if e I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.

<sup>3</sup> And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

<sup>4</sup> ¶ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for <sup>1</sup> himself that he might die; and said, d It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life: for e I am not better than my fathers.

<sup>5</sup> And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

<sup>6</sup> And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a cruse of water at his <sup>2</sup> head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 Then the king of Iſrael called all the elders of the land, and ſaid, Mark, I pray you, and ſee how this man ſeeketh miſchief: for he ſent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my ſilver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people ſaid unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor conſent.

9 Wherefore he ſaid unto the meſſengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou diſdeſt,
ſend for to thy ſervant at the firſt,
will do: but this thing I may not do. And the meſſengers departed and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods c do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that a follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let a him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this a message, (as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions,) that he said unto his servants, b Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 ¶ And, behold, there c came a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; e and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the b young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall a order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered f the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking g himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And i they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 ¶ And the prophet k came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for l the return l of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods m are gods of the hills: therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army like the army that n thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and o surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek p to q fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were r as present and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because s the Syrians have said, The LORD s is God of the hills, but he t is not God of the valleys, therefore u will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was that in the seventh day the battle was joined: v and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there w a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into x an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful y kings: let us, I pray thee, put z sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? aa he thy brother.

AND it came to pa

2 And Ahab spake saying, Give a me thy

3 And Naboth said to LORD forbid it me, tha
give the inheritance t unto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house c heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 ¶ But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why d is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest
no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered,
I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry:
I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So f she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Na-

lial, before him to bear

nessed i against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then m they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take a possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And o the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which p is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold s thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I t will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will u cut off from Ahab him that passeth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel.

22 And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam v the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha w the son of Aliah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

23 And of Jezebel x also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the y wall of Jezreel.

24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 But y there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife z stirred up.

CHAPTER XXII.

Ahab, seduced by false prophets, is slain at Ramoth-gilead.

AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And a it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth b in Gilead is ours, and we be c still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, c Will thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I d am as thou e art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Inquire, e I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets f together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And g they said, Go up; for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is h there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, (Micahiah the son of Imlah,) by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate i him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called on j an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micahiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a k void place in the entrance of the gate of Beersheba; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go s into s an inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son :

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, t and feed him with bread of affliction, u and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If e thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, to Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, 7 I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle ; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel x disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And y they turned aside to fight against him : and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow s at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints s of the harness : wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host ; for I am t wounded.

35 And the battle 11 increased that day : and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even : and the blood ran out of the wound into the 12 midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every z man to his city, and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king died, and 13 was brought to Samaria ; and they buried the king in Samaria.

41 ¶ And c Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And d he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD; nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense, yet in the high places.

CHAPTER I.

Elijah bringeth fire from heaven upon them whom Ahaziah sent to apprehend him.

WHEN Moab rebelled a against Israel after the death of Ahab. 2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick; and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of b Ekron, whether I shall recover c of this disease.

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub d the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

Elijah went with b Elisha from Gilead.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As e the LORD liveth, and as d thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the sons e of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest
thou that the LORD will take away
thy master from thy head to-day?
And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest
thou that the LORD will take away
thy master from thy head to-day?
And he answered, Yea, I know it;
hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee.
And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood i to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Eljah took his mantle, f
and wrapped it together, and smote
the waters, and g they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

9 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let h a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast 2 asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee,
it shall be so unto thee; but if not,
it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot i of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 ¶ And Elisha saw it, and he cried k My father, my father! the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more:
and he took hold of his own clothes,
and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the ³ bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, ¹ they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view ^m at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 ¶ And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty ⁴ strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the ⁿ Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon ⁵ some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground ⁶ barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt ^c in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have ^p healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death, or barren ^q land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children ^r out of the city, and mocked ^s him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed ^t them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER III.

NOW a Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the ¹ image of ² Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the ³ sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ And Mesha the king of Moab was a sheep-master, and ⁴ rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, ⁵ and an hundred thousand rams with the wool.

5 But ^f it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 ¶ And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: ^g I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle ² that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 But ^h Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here ⁱ is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured ^j water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom, went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, What ^k have I to do with thee? get ^l thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Is-

CHAPTER IV.
1 Elisha multiplieth the widow's oil.

18 He raiseth again her dead son.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of a of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead: and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the b creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not c
any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, d borrow three vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels: 1 borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in,
thou shalt shut the door upon thee
and upon thy sons, and e shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut
the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her: and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel: and he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy 2 debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And 3 it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, f where was a great woman: and she 4 constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that, as oft as he passed by,
he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband,
Behold now, I perceive g that this is an holy man of God which passeth by us continually.

10 Let h us make a little chamber,
I pray thee, on the wall: and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About k this s season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do I not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the sheeps.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head! And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new moon n nor sabbath. And she said, it shall be s well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; 7 slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. o And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, pouder is that Shunammite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well:

with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is p well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him s by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. q And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is s vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid d from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say, z Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute s him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child: but there was neither voice nor 10 hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked. 10

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut s the door upon them twain, and y prayed unto the LORD.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands; and z he stretched himself upon the child, and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house 11 to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took s up her son, and went out.

38 ¶ And Elisha came again to i Gilgal: and there was s a dearth c in the land; d and the sons of the prophets were e sitting before him: and he said unto his servant, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, 12 Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

23 And Naaman said, Be a content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the 1 axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

CHAPTER VII.

Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty in Samaria.

WHEN Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To-morrow, a about this time, shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord, i on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD
 would make b windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine
 eyes, but c shalt not eat thereof.

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: d
 and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians; if e they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight,
 to go unto the camp of the Syrians:
 and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise f
 of chariots, and a noise of horses,
 even the noise of a great host: and g
 they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings h of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose i and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We k do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if l we tarry till the morning-light, <sup>2</sup> some mischief will come upon us: now therefore, come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porter m of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left <sup>3</sup> in the city, (behold they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, they are even as the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed;) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot-horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan; and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and saw the tents of the Syrians.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, f that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. among d his brethren, and carry him to an <sup>1</sup> inner chamber;

3 Then e take the box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 ¶ So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I h have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge <sup>1</sup> the blood of my servants & the prophet's, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up m and left in Israel.

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam n the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha o the son of Ahiab;

10 And p the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? Wherefore camest thou mad q return to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is as r; tell us now. And he said, Thus s and thus s came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hastened, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew t with trumpets, saying, Ahab is king.

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the servant of the LORD conspired against Jehoram. Now Jehoram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.

15 But king <sup>2</sup> Jehoram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians <sup>3</sup> had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Jehu said, If u the word of the LORD, then <sup>4</sup> let 16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; (for Jehoram lay there.) And Ahaziah, king of Judah, was come down to see Jehoram.

17 And there stood a watchman r on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Jehoram said, Take an horse-man, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? so

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? Turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again; and the <sup>2</sup> driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimsi; for he driveth <sup>3</sup> furiously. x

21 And Jehoram said, <sup>4</sup> Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and <sup>5</sup> met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Jehoram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What y peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?

23 And Jehoram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah!

24 And Jehu <sup>6</sup> drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he <sup>7</sup> sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Balkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD <sup>8</sup> shed this burden upon him: a

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two a kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand!

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying,
 We h are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be ² mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. (Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.)

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew c seventy d persons, and put their heads e in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 ¶ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood,
 and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I f conspired against my master, and slew him:
 but who slew all these!

10 Know now that there shall fall g unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake h concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake ² by his servant
 Elijah.

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his ⁴
 kinsfolks i and his priests, until k
 he left him none remaining.

12 ¶ And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the ³ shearing-house in the way,

13 Jehu ⁶ met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said,
 Who are ye? And they answered,
 We are the brethren of Ahaziah;
 and we go down to ⁷ salute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. I And they m took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men;
 neither left he any of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he ⁸ lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab, ⁹ coming to meet him; and he ¹⁰ saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give ¹¹ me thine hand. And he gave him his hand: and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal ¹⁷ for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all ¹⁸ that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake ¹⁹ to Elijah.

18 ¶ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab ¹⁹ served Baal, a little, but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets ²⁰ of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice ²¹ to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did ²² it in subtlety, ²³ to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, ²¹ Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed ²² it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came in ²³ to the house of Baal; and the house was ²⁴ full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and ²⁴ Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but ²⁵ the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices, and burnt-offerings, and appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your house escape, ²⁶ he shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay ²⁷ them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the ²⁸ edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them

26 And they brought forth the <sup>27</sup> images <sup>28</sup> of the house of Baal, and burned <sup>29</sup> them.

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and <sup>30</sup> made it a draught-house unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 ¶ Howbeit, from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to <sup>31</sup> set, the golden calves <sup>32</sup> that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because <sup>33</sup> thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that <sup>34</sup> was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth <sup>35</sup> generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu <sup>36</sup> took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: <sup>37</sup> for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

32 ¶ In those days the LORD began <sup>38</sup> to cut Israel short: and Hazeel <sup>39</sup> smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan <sup>40</sup> eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Arzer, (which is by the river Arnon,) <sup>41</sup> even Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And in the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

Jehoaiah's wicked reign.

6 But it was so, that, <sup>4</sup> in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoaiah, the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then <sup>e</sup> king Jehoaiah called for Jehoadah the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? Now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoadah the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the hid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the <sup>6</sup> door put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's <sup>6</sup> scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they <sup>7</sup> laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD.

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that <sup>8</sup> was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and required therewith the lease of the LORD.

15 Nor over any <sup>f</sup> reckoned not with the man whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

16 The trespass-money <sup>g</sup> and sin-money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it <sup>9</sup> was the law.

17 <sup>h</sup> Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and beset against Gath, and Hazeel set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XIII.

Jehoaiah's wicked reign.

IN <sup>1</sup> the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoazabab the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and <sup>2</sup> followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 <sup>t</sup> And <sup>a</sup> the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all <sup>3</sup> four days.

4 And Jehoazabab besought <sup>e</sup> the LORD, and the LORD heard him: for he <sup>d</sup> saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And the LORD gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as <sup>3</sup> beforetime.)

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but <sup>4</sup> walked therein: and there <sup>e</sup> remained the grove also in Samaria.

7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoazabab, but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen: for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing <sup>g</sup>.

8 <sup>h</sup> Now the rest of the acts of Jehoazabab, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Amaziah's good reign: 5 His justice
on the murderers of his father.

I N a the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel reigned b Amaziah the son of Joash king
of Judah.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit e the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burn incense on the high places.

5 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants d which had slain the king his father.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written e in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers f shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He slew of Edom in the valley of salt, ten thousand, and took 1 Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel g unto this day.

8 ¶ Then h Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jeho-haz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel
sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, The thistle k that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted thee up: glory of this, and tarry at home: for why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, m. even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoshaphat king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at n Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

12 And Judah was put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoshaphat king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Azariah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate o of Ephraim unto the corner-gate, p four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold q and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 ¶ Now r the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

16 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 ¶ And s Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoshaphat son of Jehoshaphat king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem: and he fled to Beth-shean; but they sent after him to Beth-shean, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses: and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David.

21 ¶ And all the people of Judah took Azariah, u which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 v He built Lachish, and restored it to Judah, after that the king died with his fathers.

21 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath unto the sea of the phun, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD said not that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering and his meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of o his peace-offerings upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the brazen altar, p which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urjah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning's burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the king's burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.

16 Thus did Urjah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 ¶ And q king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oven that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones:

18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, turned he from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

19 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and p was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

the fire, and used divination and enchantments, b and sold c them-

LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but d the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also e Judah kept not the co-

20 And the LORD rejected f all the

2 KINGS, XVIII.

Hezekiah's good reign.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests, whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the LORD, and served their own gods after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and a stretched-out arm, him shall ye fear, and 37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget: neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 4 He destroyed idolatry, and prospered.

NOW it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi, the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he gave to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He smote the Philistines, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD ^s said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; (for we understand it)
and talk not with us in the Jews'

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto that they may eat their own dung, and drink ^o their own piss with 28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews'

king of Assyria:

29 Thus ^u saith the king, Let not

30 Neither ^v let Hezekiah make

The LORD will surely deliver us,
and this city shall not be delivered

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, ^o Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree,
and drink ye every one the waters
of his ^o cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like s your own land: a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah when he ¹⁷ persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

¹⁸ Hath y any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath, s and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hema, and Ivah? a have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

²⁰ Who b are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

²² Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Josh the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, d with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

CHAPTER XIX.

Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them.

AND it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

² And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah b the prophet the son of Amoz.

⁴ It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent d to reproach e the living God: and will reprove f the works which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up g the prayer for the remnant g that are ² left.

<sup>7</sup> Behold, I i will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

<sup>8</sup> ¶ So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warlike against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

<sup>9</sup> And m when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

<sup>10</sup> Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

<sup>11</sup> Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?

<sup>14</sup> ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed q before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which r dwellest between the cherubims, thou s art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou t hast made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> LORD, bow u down thine ear, and hear: open, v LORD, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

<sup>18</sup> And have <sup>2</sup> cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

<sup>19</sup> Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know, 3 that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

<sup>20</sup> ¶ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz

Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith

Thou hast thou reproached me, and against whom thou exalted thy voice, and thou thine eyes on high? even the Holy One of Israel.

Thy messengers thou hast said, and the Lord, and hast said,
a multitude of my chariots
come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, cut down <sup>a</sup> the tall cedar tree, and the choice fir tree: and I will enter into the land of his borders, and into the rest of his Carmel.

Thou digged and drunk strange water, and with the sole of my feet trampled up all the rivers of
the land.

Thou hast thou not heard long ago, and done it, and of ancient times, that thou
dost be to lay waste fenced cities, and ruinous heaps.

Before their inhabitants of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they gathered the grass of the field, and gathered the herb, as the grass on before it be grown up.

I know thy <sup>10</sup> whole, and

Thou use thy rage against me, and tumult is come up into

is of the same; and in the third year thou shalt sow seed,

And the remnant that is

1 Josiah's good reign. eth the book of

JOSIAH a was eig when he began to reigned thirty and on rusalem. And his n was Jedidiah, the dau iah of Boscath. b

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walk-ed in all the way of David his fa-ther, and turned not aside c to the right hand or to the left.

3 ¶ And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshu-lam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver d which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers e of the ¹ door have gathered of the people: 5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house.

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit there was no reckon-ing made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 ¶ And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found f the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have ² gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD, 10 And Shaphan the scribe show-ed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read g it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent h his clothes.

And the king commanded Hildai the priest, and Ahikam the Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Michaiah, and Shaphan scribe, and Assiah a servant of the king's, saying,

Ye inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

So Hildai the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Assiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, or the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: (Now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college) and they communed with her.

And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

But to the king of Judah which sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard;

Because thine heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.

Behold therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and the people, both small and great, and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

3 And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart and their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven; and he burnt them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the plain round about Jerusalem: them that burned incense unto Baal, the sun, and to the moon, and the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, and out Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the head of Kidron, and stamped it in powder, and cast the powder of it upon the graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the high places of the sodomites, that were in the house of the LORD, where men gave wages in grove.

8 And he brought all the high places of the high places, which the priests had burned in the Gaba to Beer-sheba, down the high places of that were in the eastern gate of Joshua the governor, which were on the hand at the gate of the city. Nevertheless the high places came up to the altar of the LORD, but they did not eat of the bread of the king among the 31 ¶ 14 Jehoiakim was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bands at Riblah, o in the land of Hamath, 15 that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and 16 put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned p his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoiakim away: and q he came to Egypt, and died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver r and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, or every one according to his taxation, to give t unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

36 ¶ 17 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zedekia, the daughter of Gedaniah of Rumah.

1 IN his days, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiachin became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Arabians, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came the word on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for they have forsaken his law, according to all that he did;

6 So q Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And h the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken i from the river of Egypt unto the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

14 And n he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

30 And his allowance x was a continual allowance given him of the king, y daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

2 Saul's overthrow. 8 the Philistines triumph over Saul.

NOW a the Philistines fought: 1 against Israel; and the men of Israel fell from before the Philistines, and fell down 1 slain on mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and the Philistines slew Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the 3 archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, for these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they gathered their arms, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwell in the

Now all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, Behold, we are thy people Israel, and thou shalt be our king.

Moreover in time past, when Saul was king, thou wast leddest out and broughtest in: and the LORD thy God to thee, Thou shalt feed thy people Israel, and thou shalt be our king.

Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and made a covenant with them there before the LORD; and anointed David king over Israel according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

And David and all Israel went to Hebron, which is Jebus; and the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

Nevertheless David took counsel of his servants, and said, Behold, I have been anointed king over Israel, and I have not drunk of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate:

And David said, Whosoever shall drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate, shall be as I have been. So the three mighty men went first up, and 7 And David therefore they called David.

8 And he was about, even from and Joab repeated the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty.

13 He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley, and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy for me with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty.

20 ¶ And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, for he was their captain: howbeit he attained not to the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, ¹⁵ who had done many acts: he slew two lion-like men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of ¹⁶ great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam: and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among the three mighty men.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem,

27 17 Shammoth the ¹⁸ Harorite, Helez the ¹⁹ Pelonite,

28 Ira the son of Ikkeiah the Tekoite, Abiezer the Antiochite,

CHAPTER XII.

The companies that came to David at Ziklag.

NOW these are they that came to David to Ziklag, ¹ while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in handling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of 2 Shennah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmavoth; and Beraiah, and Jehu the Antiochite.

4 And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremnah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Joab had the Gederathite, 5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Beraiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite.

6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azrael, and Joazer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites,

7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gador.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the hold to the wilderness, men of might, and men ³ of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and bricker, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliah the third,

11 Agai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Eliazabai the ninth,

13 Jeremnah the tenth, Machbazeu the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: ⁵ one of the best was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so : for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshing-floor of ⁶ Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark ; for the oxen ⁷ stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because ⁸ he put his hand to the ark : and there he died k before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza : wherefore that place is called ⁹ Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God l come to me ?

13 So David ⁹ brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside unto the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed ¹⁰ the house of Obed-edom in all that he had.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves c in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines ? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand ? And the LORD said unto him, Go up ; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim ; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, like the breaking forth of waters : therefore they called the name of that place <sup>3</sup> Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again <sup>4</sup> spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God ; and God said unto him, Go not up after them : turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle : for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him : and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the name of David went out into all lands : and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

moth, and Jehiel, and Umi, Elah, and Benaiah, and Manasseh, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mik-neiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel,
the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound
with cymbals of brass:

20 And Zechariah, and ³ Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Umi, and Eliah, and Manasseh, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamothe: ^o

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the ⁴ Shemnith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, ⁵ was for ⁶ song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah
were door-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nathaneel, and Anasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow ^p with the trumpets before the ark of God:
and Obed-edom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

25 ¶ So ^q David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the
ark of the covenant of the LORD,
that they offered seven bullocks
and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the ⁷ song, with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus ^r all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, as the
ark of the covenant of the LORD
came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice: 7 His psalm of thanksgiving.

So ^a they brought the ark of God,
and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it:
and they offered burnt-sacrifices
and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jehiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliah, and Benaiah, and Obadedom; and Jehiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered first this psalm, to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, take care of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 Praise the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word which he commanded I do not stand generations;

16 Even to the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob: for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant.

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but a few, even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people.

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes.

CHAPTER XVIII.

David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.

NOW ^a after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 [¶] And David smote ¹ Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven ² thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of ³ Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus: and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from ⁴ Tibhath, and from Chim, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith ^b Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 [¶] Now when ⁵ Tou king of Hamath heard that David had smitten in the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah:

10 He sent ⁶ Hadoram his son to king David, to ⁷ inquire of his welfare, and to ⁸ congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him: (for Hadarezer ⁹ had war with Tou,) and ^z from all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

CHAPTER XIX.

David sendeth messengers to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash.

NOW ^a it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will show kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, ¹ Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore ^c Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went ^{certum}, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: (for the men were greatly ashamed.) And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

found it ^f to weigh a talent of gold,
and there were precious stones in it;
and it was set upon David's head:
and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ^g And ^h it came to pass after this, that there ⁱ arose war at ^j Ge-zer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew ^k Sippai, that was of the children of ^l the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of ^m Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear-staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And ⁿ yet again there was war
at Gath, where was a man of great ^o stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was ^p the son of the giant.

7 But when he ^q defied Israel, Jonathan the son of ^r Shimea, David's brother, slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

David, tempted by Satan, forceth Joah to number the people.

AND ^a Satan stood up ^b against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring ^c the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, 'The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?'

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing: therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away with the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD,

12 Choose thee

13 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, (while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee); or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; (for very great are his mercies:;) but let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

16 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented of him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 ¶ And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel: and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price; for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

CHAPTER XXIII.

David in his old age maketh Solomon
king.

SO a when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty b years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to s set forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers c and judges:

5 Moreover four thousand were porters; and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments of which I made, (said David,) to praise the LORD.

6 And David divided them into 2 courses among the sons of Levi, namely Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the Gershonites were, 3 Ladan, and Shimei.

8 The sons of Ladan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Hazziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Ladan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, 4 Zina, and Jeush, and Beriash. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriash had not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 ¶ The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were, Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershom, 6 Shebuel was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the 7 chief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were 8 very many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar; 9 Shelomith the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 ¶ The sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar, and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their 10 brethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 ¶ These were the sons of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest 4 unto his people, 11 that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also unto the Levites: they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David the Levites were 12 numbered from twenty years old and above:

28 Because their 13 office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God:

29 Both for the show-bread, and for the fine flour 4 for meat offering, and for 5 the unleavened cakes, and for 6 that which is baked in the 14 pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measures and size;

30 And 7 to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at even:

31 And to offer all burnt-sacrifices unto the LORD in 7 the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, 8 by number, according to the order commanded unto them, continually before the LORD:

32 And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and be the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIV.

The division of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and they were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, 4 one sort with another, for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Iari, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

19 The twelfth to Hashabiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

20 The thirteenth to Shubael, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

21 The fourteenth to Mattithiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

7 The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel d the brother of 8 The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite:

9 The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira e the son of Ikesh
the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty and four thousand.

10 The seventh captain for the sevand in his course were twenty and four thousand.

11 The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai g the Hushathite, of the Zaraites: and in 12 The ninth captain for the ninth othite, of the Benjamites: and in thousand.

13 The tenth captain for the tenth

twenty and four thousand.

15 The twelfth captain for the thousand.

16 ¶ Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: the ruler of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah:

17 Of the Levites, Hashabiah (the son of Kemuel): of the Aaronites, Zadok:

18 Of Judah, Elihu, ^{as} one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael:

19 Of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah: of the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah:

21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 ¶ But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said ^a he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath ^a for it against Israel: neither ^a was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 ¶ And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziab:

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over ^a the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellsars was Zabdi the Shiphmite:

30 Over the camels also was Ohel the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

David encouraged Solomon to build the temple.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies <sup>b</sup> that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and the stewards <sup>c</sup> over all the substance: and <sup>a</sup> possession of the king, <sup>a</sup> and of his sons, with the <sup>a</sup> officers, and with the <sup>d</sup> mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren and my people: As for me, I had <sup>e</sup> in my heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, <sup>q</sup> because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed <sup>a</sup> blood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me <sup>k</sup> before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler: and of the house of Judah the house <sup>k</sup> of my father: and among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons (for <sup>l</sup> the LORD hath given me many sons,) he hath chosen Solomon <sup>m</sup> my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said <sup>n</sup> unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover I will establish his kingdom for ever, if <sup>e</sup> he be <sup>e</sup> constant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight <sup>p</sup> of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, <sup>q</sup> keep <sup>r</sup> and <sup>s</sup> seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that <sup>t</sup> ye may possess this good land, and leave <sup>u</sup> it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also h rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 Time, m O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine: thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both n riches and honour come of thee, and thou regnest over all: and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength p unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our s days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own work.

17 I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the generations of the heart of thy people, and prepare to their heart unto thee:

19 And give unto Solomon my son

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless y the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of the fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered offerings unto the LORD, o tomorrow after that day, e thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drank of the LORD on that day with gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the same time, and s anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor: Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of his father, and prospered: all Israel obeyed him.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congreg-

14 And Solomon gathered chariots

and fifty; and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their u means.

CHAPTER II.

Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple.

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ¶ And a Solomon sent to b Hur-am the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David h my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn c be-him ² sweet incense, and for continual show-bread, ^d and for burnt-offerings ^e morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on new moons, and on the solemnities of the LORD our God. This is ordinance for ever to Israel.

And the house which I build is for ^f great is our God above gods.

^g But ^g who ^h is able to build him a house, seeing ^h the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

⁷ Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill ⁴ to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom I David my father did provide.

⁸ Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and ⁵ alnum trees, out of Lebanon: (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon:); and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants,

⁹ Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be ⁶ wonderful great.

¹¹ ¶ Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because ^k the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

¹² Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, and a heart with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

¹³ And now I have sent a cunning man, (endued with understanding,) of Huram my father's,

¹⁴ The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device, which shall be put to him, with cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

¹⁷ ¶ And a Solomon number all ¹⁰ the strangers that were in land of Israel, after the number wherewith David his father I numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and hundred.

¹⁸ And he set threescore and thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and fourscore thousand be hewers in the mountain, and the thousand and six hundred overset to set the people a work.

CHAPTER III.

The place and time of building the temple.

THEN a Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount ^b Moriah, where the LORD ^c appeared to David his father, in the place ^d where David had prepared in the three ing floor of ^e Ornan the Jebusite. ² And he began to build in the second day of the second month, the fourth year of his reign.

³ ¶ Now these are the things which in Solomon was ³ instructed of the building of the house of ^f the LORD. The length by cubits after the ^g measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

⁴ And the porch ^h that was in front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth was an hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

⁵ And the greater house he overlaid with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm trees and chains.

⁶ And he garnished the house with precious stones ⁱ for the hearth, and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

⁷ He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the work thereof, and the floors thereof, with gold; and graved cherubims on the walls.

⁸ And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.

<sup>6</sup> ¶ He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: <sup>7</sup> such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

<sup>7</sup> And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

<sup>8</sup> He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred <sup>9</sup> basins of gold.

<sup>9</sup> ¶ Furthermore, he made the courts of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

<sup>10</sup> And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

<sup>11</sup> And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the <sup>12</sup> basins. And Hiram <sup>13</sup> finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

<sup>12</sup> To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars;

<sup>13</sup> And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were upon the <sup>14</sup> pillars.

<sup>14</sup> He made also bases, <sup>15</sup> and <sup>16</sup> lavers made he upon the bases;

<sup>19</sup> ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the show-bread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn in after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold ;

21 And the flowers, k and the lamps, and the *l*ongs, made he of gold, and that is perfect gold ;

22 And the snuffers, and the l basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold : and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CHAPTER V.

God being praised, giveth a visible sign of his favour.

THUS a all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished : and Solomon brought in all the b things that David his father had dedicated : and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 ¶ Then c Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark d of the covenant of the LORD out of the city e of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast g which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came ; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in h the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims :

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the k staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle : but they were not seen without. And l there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, 2 when the LORD made a covenant with the

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD ; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For q he is good : for his mercy endureth for ever : that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD :

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud : for r the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

CHAPTER VI.

Solomon's prayer at the consecration of the temple.

THEN a said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed c the whole congregation of Israel : (and all the congregation of Israel stood.)

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who e hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that f my name might be there ; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel :

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, g that my name might be there ; and have chosen David h to be over my people Israel.

7 Now i it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, g
even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, and h an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

23 Then hear thou from heaven,
and do, and judge thy servants, by requiring the wicked, by recom-pensing x his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel be e put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee 7 in
this house;

25 Then d hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, b because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and thou dost afflict
them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven,
and forgive the sin of thy servants,
and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way wherein they should walk; and send rain c upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there be dearth d in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, e or caterpillars; if their enemies besieve them in the h cities of their land; whatsoever sore, f or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel,
when every one shall know his g own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands h in
this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven,
thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and h render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only knowest

the hearts of the children of men :
31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, ¹⁹ so long as they live ¹¹ in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover concerning the stranger, which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched-out arm ; if they come and pray in
this house ;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place,
and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for ; that all k people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that ¹² this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war m against their enemies by the way thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name ;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain a their ¹³ cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for o there is no man which sinneth not),
and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and ¹⁴ they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near ;

37 Yet if they ¹⁵ bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly ;

38 If p they return to thee with all their heart, and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither
they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city q which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name :

39 Then r hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place,
their prayer and their supplications,
and maintain their ¹⁶ cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let, (I beseech thee,) thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent ¹⁷ unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore arise, s O LORD
God, into thy resting t place, thou,
and the ark of thy strength : let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

CHAPTER VII.

God giveth to Solomon promise upon condition.

NOW a when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire b
came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices ; and the glory c of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good ; for d his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¶ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house
of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices : the e Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry ;
and f the priests sounded trumpets
before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD : for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, and the fat of the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meal-offerings, and the fat.

8 ¶ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath g unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn h assembly : for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent
the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had showed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus i Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the k

all that came into Solomon to make in the house, and in his own house, easily effected.

CHAPTER IX.

The queen of Sheba admireth the wisdom of Solomon.

AND a when the queen of Sheba
heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundant, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon,
she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all b her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba
had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel: his c cup-bearers also,
and their apparel; and his ascent
by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true d report which I heard in mine own land of thine e acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the e one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceed-st the fame that I heard.

Happy are thy men, and happy
these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

Then e he be the LORD thy God,

which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish thee forever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgmente and justice.

9 And f she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither g was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon,
which h brought gold from Ophir,
brought i alburn trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the alburn trees j terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps k and psalteries for singers:
and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Beside that which chymen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia, and l governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets m of beaten gold;
six hundred n shields of beaten gold
went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields o made he of beaten gold: three hundred shields of gold went to one shield.
And the king put them in the house p of the forest of Lebanon.

17 ¶ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid
it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold,
which were fastened to the throne,
and q stays on each side of the sitting-place, and two lions standing
by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking-vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of s pure gold: t none were of silver: it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thou shalt thou answer
the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father <sup>1</sup> put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yokes: my father
chastised you with whips, but I
will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam i forsook the counsel of the old men.

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying,
My father made your yoke heavy,
but I will add thereto: my father
chastised you with whips, but I
will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for k the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake l
by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel <sup>1</sup> saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, m What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse:
every man to your tents, O Israel:
and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel

that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram a that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And o Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER XI.

Rehoboam, preparing to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But b the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah c the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for e this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified f the strong holds, and put captains g in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

16 And after them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened a the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jeroboam the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zabai.

20 And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made p Abijah the son of Maachah the chief to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired many wives.

CHAPTER XII.

Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established e the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he b forsook c the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, (because they had transgressed against the LORD.)

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, d the Sukkims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah e the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem.

use of Shishak, and said unto g, Thus saith the LORD, Ye f forsaken me, and therefore I also left you in the hand of sak.

hereupon the princes of Israel
the king humbled g them-
s; and they said, The h LORD
hteous.

al; when the LORD saw that humbled themselves, the word
e LORD came to Shemaiah,
g, They have humbled them-
s, therefore j I will not destroy g, but I will graut them l some erance; and my wrath shall e poured out upon Jerusalem
e hand of Shishak.
e vertheless they shall be his k
nts; that they may know my ce, and the service of the king-
l of the countries.

Shishak king of Egypt came against Jerusalem, and took
e the treasures of the house
e LORD, and the treasures of king's house; he took all:
arried away also the shields old which m Solomon had instead of which king Reho-am made shields of brass, and nitted them to the hands of chief n of the guard, that kept ntrance of the king's house.

And when the king entered the house of the LORD, the d came and fetched them, and ght them again into the guardaber.

And when o he humbled him-
the wrath of the LORD turned him, that he would not de-him altogether: 2 and also dah things went well.

¶ So king Rehoboam strength-himself in Jerusalem, and ed: for Rehoboam was one forty years old when he began ign, and he reigned seventeen
s in Jerusalem, the city which LORD had chosen out of all the s of Israel, to put his name
t. And his mother's name Nammah an Ammonitess.
And he did evil, because he pared not his heart p to seek
LORD.

Now the acts of Rehoboam,
and last, are they not written

het, and of Iddor the seer erning genealogies: And there was between Rehoboam and boam continually.

And Rehoboam slept with his

David: and Abijah s his son

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God's smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

16 And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.

17 And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

18 Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.

19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Jeshanah with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

20 Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD stricken him, and he died.

21 ¶ But Abijah waxed mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

CHAPTER XIV.

Asa destroyeth idolatry.

SOON Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and he the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment:

5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand: and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Maresiah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle array in the valley of Zephath at Maresiah.

11 And Asa cried unto the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee, to help, whether I with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God: let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar: for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the flocks of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And <sup>a</sup> also concerning Ma- chah the <sup>b</sup> mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an <sup>c</sup> idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But the high places <sup>a</sup> were not taken away out of Israel: never- theless the heart of Asa was per- fect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVI.

Asa diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah.

IN <sup>a</sup> the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent <sup>b</sup> that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at <sup>c</sup> Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold: go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of <sup>a</sup> his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store-cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard <sup>a</sup> it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani <sup>a</sup> the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because <sup>b</sup> thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians <sup>a</sup> and the Lubims <sup>b</sup> a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen <sup>c</sup> yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For f the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, 4 to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house: h for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa 6 oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa, in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had 6 made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND a Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which b Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the domes c of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah 2 brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart 2 was lifted up in the d ways of the LORD: moreover he c took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hai, and to Obadiah, and to Zerahiah, and to Nethameel, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; I let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 (And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, & but evil?)

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the hosts of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chechiah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee? 24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So <sup>a</sup> the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that <sup>a</sup> were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped <sup>a</sup> him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from <sup>a</sup> pursuing him.

33 And <sup>a</sup> certain man drew a bow <sup>a</sup> at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints <sup>a</sup> of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am <sup>a</sup> wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the sun going down he died.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jehoshaphat, reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani <sup>a</sup> the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love <sup>a</sup> them that hate the LORD? therefore <sup>a</sup> is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless there are good <sup>a</sup> things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared <sup>a</sup> thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he <sup>a</sup> went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 ¶ And he set judges <sup>a</sup> in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city.

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, <sup>a</sup> who is with you in the <sup>a</sup> judgment. 7 Therefore now, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed

8 ¶ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, <sup>a</sup> and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear <sup>a</sup> of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn <sup>a</sup> them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath <sup>a</sup> come upon you, and upon your brethren: thus do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters <sup>a</sup> of the LORD: and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. ¶ Deal courageously, and the LORD <sup>a</sup> shall be with the good.

1 Jehoshaphat proclaimeth a fast: 5 His prayer.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them <sup>a</sup> other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, there cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria: and, behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, <sup>a</sup> which is En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and <sup>a</sup> he himself to seek <sup>a</sup> the LORD, and proclaimed a fast <sup>a</sup> throughout <sup>a</sup> all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask <sup>a</sup> help of the LORD even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court.

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and I request not thou over all the kingdoms <sup>a</sup> of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

went forth, Jehoshaphat

ers b unto the LORD, s should praise the beauty
ness, as they went out army, and to say, Pra-LORD; e for his mercy e
ever.

22 ¶ And 6 when they began 7 to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah;
and they 8 were smitten.

23 For f the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them; and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped 9 to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch-tower in the wilderness,
they looked unto the multitude,
and, behold, they were dead g bodies fallen to the earth, and 10 none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, (which they stripped off for themselves,) more than they could carry away; and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it h was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of 11 Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called,
The valley of Berachah, unto this
day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the 12 forefront of them,
to go again to Jerusalem with joy;
for i the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

29 And the fear k of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries,
when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for l his God gave him rest round about.

years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD.

33 Howbeit in the high places were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared o their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the 13 book of Jehu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 ¶ And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah join himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very wickedly:

36 And p he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber.

37 Then Eliezer the son of Dolabah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because q thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAPTER XXI.

Jehoram succeeding Jehoshaphat, slayeth his brethren.

NOW as Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Ahaziah, and Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great riches of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah: but Jehoram gave them not: because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he slew his brethren, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and slew also the princes of Israel.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the s dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go for a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab: and also hast slain h thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great s plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD stirred up k against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives: so that there was never a son left him, save s Jehorahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote l him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of

according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiaida the priest dismissed not the courses.<sup>g</sup>

9 Moreover Jehoiaida the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's,
which h were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, (every man having his weapon in his hand,) from the right <sup>2</sup> side of the <sup>3</sup> temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony;<sup>h</sup>
and made him king. And Jehoiaida and his sons anointed him, and said,
4 God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And k she looked, and behold,
the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes, and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced,<sup>i</sup> and sounded with trumpets, also the m singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then n Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, <sup>o</sup> Treason, Treason!

14 Then Jehoiaida the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host,
and said unto them, Have her forth <sup>p</sup> of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her: and when she was come to the entering of the horse-gate <sup>q</sup> by the king's house, they slew <sup>r</sup> her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiaida made a covenant <sup>s</sup> between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that <sup>t</sup> they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and <sup>u</sup> slew Mat-than the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiaida appointed the officers of the house of the LORD,
by the hand of the priests the Levites whom David had distributed <sup>v</sup>
in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as

CHAPTER XXIV.

Joash reigns well all the days of Je-hoiaida.

JOASH <sup>c</sup> was seven years old
when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem,
his mother's name also was Zibiah
of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days <sup>d</sup> of Jehoiaida the priest.

3 And Jehoiaida took for him two wives, and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this,
that Joash was minded to <sup>e</sup> repair
the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiaida
the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, the collection, according to the commandment <sup>f</sup> of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the <sup>g</sup> tabernacle of witness?

7 For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up-the house of God: and also all the dedicated things <sup>h</sup> of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made a <sup>i</sup> proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection <sup>j</sup> that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness

11 the princes and all the sided, <sup>a</sup> and brought in,
into the chest, until they
an end.

12 It came to pass, that at the chest was brought

was much money, the 14 The workmen wrought, and

15 Then they had finished <sup>it</sup>,

23 ¶ And it came to pass <sup>e</sup> at the Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusa-unto the king of <sup>y</sup> Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabab the son of <sup>6</sup> Shum-rith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens <sup>laid</sup> upon him, and the <sup>10</sup> repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the <sup>11</sup> story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Amaziah's reign: 17 He provoked Joash to his overthrow.

AMAZIAH <sup>a</sup> was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not <sup>b</sup>
with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was <sup>1</sup> established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but <sup>did</sup> as it is written <sup>c</sup> in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The <sup>d</sup> fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die

 9 over hundreds, according to 10 houses of their fathers, through-11 all Judah and Benjamin: and 12 numbered them from twenty e-13 ars old and above, and found
 14 em three hundred thousand
 15 choice men, able to go forth to war,
 16 that could handle spear and shield.
 17 6 He hired also an hundred thou-18 sand mighty men of valour out of 19 Israel for an hundred talents of 20 silver.

21 7 But there came a man of God to 22 him, saying, O king, let not the 23 army of Israel go with thee; for the 24 LORD is not with Israel, to sit, with 25 all the children of Ephraim.
 26 8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be-27 strong for the battle: God shall 28 make thee fall before the enemy:
 29 for God hath power to help, and 30 to cast down.

31 9 And Amaziah said to the man
 32 of God, But what shall we do for 33 the hundred talents which I have 34 given to the army of Israel? And 35 the man of God answered, The 36 LORD is able to give thee much 37 more than this.

38 10 Then Amaziah separated them,

 42 greatly kindled against Judah, and Hananiah, one of the king's cap- tains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was 9 an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uziah prepared for them throughout all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and 10 slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal: and his name 11 spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped till he was strong.

16 ¶ But k when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: i for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went k into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah l the priest went in after him, and with him four-score priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uziah the king, and said unto him. It apper- taineth not m unto thee, Uziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated n to burn incense: go out o of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither shall it be for thine honour p from the LORD God.

19 Then Uziah was wroth, q and had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while r he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense-altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself s hastened also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And t Uziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a 12 several house, u being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uziah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write

23 So u Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which b belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Jotham reigneth well. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM a was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. 2 So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, b because he 3 prepared c his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the doings of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Ahaz is afflicted by the Syrians.

AHAZ a was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten b images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he burnt incense in the valley d of the son of Humon, and e burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore f the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria: and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to h Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For Pekah g the son of Remah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all 3 valiant men: because h they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye k have slain them in a rage that reacheth 1 up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even n with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me, therefore, and deliver a the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for p the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azarias the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Mesullemoth, and Jehazkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadad stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD of old, ye intend to add more to our sins and our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign; 3 He re- storeth religion.

HEZEKIAH a began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. b

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first c year of his reign, in the first month, opened d the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street,

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, sanctify e now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy f place.

6 For g our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and h have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and i turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up j the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore k the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to 2 trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, l as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, our fathers have fallen m by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant n with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, be not now 3 negligent: for the LORD hath chosen o you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and 4 burn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Ma- hath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: p and of the son of Merari; Kish the son of Azmuth,

and Azariah the son of Jehalelel;
and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jeiel: and of the sons
of Asaph; Zachariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Je-hiel, and Shimeï: and of the sons of Jeduthan; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified q themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, 6 by the words of the LORD, to cleanse r the
house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out s all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD.
And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and
and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch t of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and in the sixteenth day of the first month
they made an end.

18 Then they went into Hezekiah
the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the show-bread
table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away u in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of
the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bul-locks, seven rams, and seven lambkins, and seven kids of the land: for the LORD your God is gra-

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun:
y but they laughed them to scorn,
and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless divers q of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God r
was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by s the word of the LORD.

13 t And there assembled at l Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away
the altars u that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests v and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they stood in their s place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God:
the priests sprinkled the blood,
which they received of the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified:
therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

18 For so a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed x themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one

19 That prepareth y his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the LORD hearkened z to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel that were o present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake ^a comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making ^b confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

23 And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah ^a did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep: and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwell in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 ¶ Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to ¹⁰ his holy dwelling-place, even unto heaven.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The people forward in destroying idolatry.

NOW when all this was finished, all Israel that were ¹ present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the ² images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars ^b out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until ³ they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekiah appointed the ^c courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites ^d for burnt-offerings, and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written ^e in the law of the LORD.

4 Moreover he commanded the people that dwell in Jerusalem to 5 ¶ And as soon as the commandment <sup>4</sup> came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first-fruits <sup>h</sup> of corn, wine, and oil, and <sup>i</sup> honey, and of all the increase of the field: and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Israel and Judah, that dwell in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe <sup>j</sup> of holy things which were consecrated unto the LORD their God, and laid <sup>k</sup> them <sup>6</sup> by heaps.

7 In the third <sup>k</sup> month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished <sup>7</sup> them in the seventh month.

8 And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the <sup>l</sup> LORD, and his people Israel.

9 Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since <sup>the</sup> people began to bring the offerings unto the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left <sup>as</sup> plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people: and that which is left <sup>is</sup> this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare <sup>7</sup> chambers in the house of the LORD: and they prepared <sup>7</sup> them.

12 And brought in the offerings, and the tithes, and the dedicated things <sup>a</sup> faithfully: over which Conaniah the Levite <sup>was</sup> ruler, and Shimei his brother <sup>was</sup> the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asubel, and Jeremoth, and Jozabab, and Eliel, and Ismaiah, and Minath, and Benaiah, <sup>were</sup> overseers <sup>a</sup> under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Innah the Levite, the porter toward the east, <sup>was</sup> over the free-will offerings of God, to <sup>o</sup> distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

gate of the city, and spake s com-

7 Be e strong and courageous, be f not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him; for there g
be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an h arm of flesh;
but with us i is the LORD our God
to help us, and to fight our battles.
And the people b rested themselves upon the k words of Hezekiah king
of Judah.

9 ¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his 7 power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the s siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die
by famine and by thirst, saying,
The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done? unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their hands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much m less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters n to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice, in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright e them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

18 ¶ And e they spake against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man.

20 ¶ And e for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed r and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ And s the LORD sent an angel, t which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, that came forth of his own bowels u slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus v the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and v guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and w presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ In x those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he y gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah rendered z not again according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was z lifted up: z therefore there was written upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the 12 pride of his heart, (both he a and the inhabitants of Jerusalem,) so that b the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

27 ¶ And c Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for hawks, and for all manner of pleasant jewels:

28 Storehouses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil: and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.

29 Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks, and herbs in abundance: for God d given him substance very much. 30 This same Hezekiah also stop-

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his 18 goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the 16 chiefest of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour k at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Manasseh's wicked reign: 3 He setteth up idolatry.

MANASSEH a was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like unto the b abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ¶ For he c built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, d and worshipped e all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, whereof the LORD had said, in Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And f he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnon: also g he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, (the idol which he had made,) in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign: 3 He destroyeth idolatry.

JOSIAH ^a was eight years old
when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined ^b neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, ^c he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to ^d purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high ^e places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the ¹ images that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves,
and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces,
and made dust of them, ^f and strewed it upon the ² graves of them that had sacrificed unto them.

5 And he burnt ^g the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ³ mattocks round about.

7 And when he had broken down
the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images ⁴ into powder, ^h and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Sha-pham the son of Azaliah, and Man-

Asai the governor of the city, and Joash the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

9 And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered i the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplines, and to h floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work k faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and *o*ther of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of music.

13 Also they were over the bearers l of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and m of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book n of the law of the LORD given *h*y Moses.

15 And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried o the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed 7 to thy servants, they do it.

17 And they have h gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given *m*e a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard p the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Akubai the son of Shu-phan, and 10 Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asai a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, inquire q of the LORD for me, and for them that are left r in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great s is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of 11 Hnsrah, keeper of the 12 wardrobe: (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the 13 college:) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel. Tell ye the man that sent you to me.

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold. I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out u upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was r tender, and thou didst humble s thyself before God, when thou hearest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard th s also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then z the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and 14 Levites, and all the people, 10 h and small: and he read it

8 And his prince unto the people, t
to the Levites: H

of 4
e of God gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nathaneel his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jehiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, 2 gave unto the Levites for passover-offerings, five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared,
and the priests stood in their place,
and the Levites in their courses, l
according to the king's commandment.

11 And m they killed the passover,
and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites slayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written a in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted a the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod p they in pots, and in caldrons,
and in pans, and 4 divided them
speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests:
because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their 6 place, according to the commandment of David, q and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthan the king's seer; and the porters r waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were 6 present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet

neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing-men and the singing-women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, 27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.
